Southeast Asia A Testament:

Southeast Asia George McTurnan Kahin, 2003 Southeast Asia A Testament gives a personal account of the US involvement in Indochina and covers the tragic history of post war Indonesia from its successful struggle against the Dutch to Suharto's bloody overthrow of Sukarno in 1965

Bandung Revisited See Seng Tan, Amitav Acharya, 2008 The 1955 Asian African conference the Bandung Conference was a meeting of 29 Asian and African nations that sought to draw on Asian and African nationalism and religious traditions to forge a new international order that was neither communist nor capitalist It led six years later to the non aligned movement Few would dispute the notion that the inaugural meeting in 1955 was a watershed in international history but there is much disagreement about its long term legacy and its significance for present day international affairs Determining the what why and how of this monumental event remains a challenge for students of the Conference and of Third World international politics Was it a post colonial ideological reaction to the passing of the age of empire or an innovative effort to promote a new regionalism based on mutual goodwill and strong regional ties Were its principles of peaceful coexistence a rhetorical flourish or a substantive policy initiative Did the Conference help define North South relations And in what way did the Conference contribute to the regional order of contemporary Asia Back cover

Christ in the Sabbath will take you on a Sabbath tour of the Bible. You'll explore the themes of Shabbat, Hebrew for Sabbath, and rest in both Old and New Testament, and then discover what it has meant to Jews and Christians for centuries. Rabbinical comments and a variety of traditions provide clarity and credibility to the study of Sabbath. While this volume does not resolve all the differences among Christians concerning the place of the Sabbath today, the journey undertaken in this book will help you in forming your own conclusions or inspire you to continue exploring the meaning and significance behind the Sabbath.

Coping with Violence in the New Testament Pieter de Villiers, Jan Willem van Henten, 2012-01-20 Violence is present in the very heart of religion and its sacred traditions also of Christianity and the Bible The problem however is not only that violence is ingrained in the mere existence of religions with their sacred traditions It is equally problematic to realise that the icy grip of violence on the sacred has gone unnoticed and unchallenged for a very long time The present publication aims to contribute to the recent scholarly debate about the interconnections between violence and monotheistic religions by analysing the role of violence in the New Testament as well as by offering some hermeneutical perspectives on violence as it is articulated in the earliest Christian writings Contributors include Andries G van Aarde Paul Decock Pieter G R de Villiers Ernest van Eck Jan Willem van Henten Rob van Houwelingen Kobus Kok Tobias Nicklas Jeremy Punt Jan G van der Watt and Wim Weren

The Promise-Plan of God Walter C. Kaiser, Jr., 2009-10-06 What is the central theme of the Bible Given the diversity of authorship genre and context of the Bible s various books is it even possible to answer such a question Or in trying to do so is an external grid being unnaturally superimposed on the biblical text These are difficult questions that the discipline of biblical theology has struggled to answer In this thoroughly revised and expanded edition of his classic Toward an Old Testament Theology Walter Kaiser offers a solution to these unresolved issues He proposes that there is indeed a unifying center to the theology and message of the Bible that is indicated and affirmed by Scripture itself That center is the promise of God It is one all encompassing promise of life through the Messiah that winds itself throughout salvation history in both the Old and New Testaments giving cohesiveness and unity to the various parts of Scripture After laying out his proposal Kaiser works chronologically through the books of both testaments demonstrating how the promise is seen throughout how the various sub themes of each book relate to the promise and how God's plan to fulfill the promise progressively unfolds Here is a rich and illuminating biblical theology that will stir the emotion and the intellect Matthew Craig L. Blomberg,1992-05-21 One in an ongoing series of esteemed and popular Bible commentary volumes based on the New International Version text Reading Hebrews and 1 Peter from Majority World Perspectives Sofanit T. Abebe,Elizabeth W. Mburu,Abeneazer G. Urga,2024-09-19 The contributors to this volume offer a bold re-reading of Hebrews and 1 Peter from the perspective of the Global South The chapters provide enriching new hermeneutical and theological insights revealing facets of the text that may not at first be apparent to readers within a Eurocentric context The volume is thus able to explore topics ranging from the authorship of Hebrews in the Ethiopian Orthodox tradition and the Batak reading of Christus Victor to a Xhosa perception of the solidarity and sacrifice of Jesus and intercultural readings of Christian identity in the context of persecution With an introduction and final response by scholars from the Global North this volume encourages awareness of how the Global South contributes to world Christianity Classification of Books in the Library Joseph Cummings Rowell,1915 James Kurt Richardson,1997-03-01 One in an ongoing series of esteemed and popular Bible commentary volumes based on the New International Version text Faiths across Time J. Gordon Melton,2014-01-15 This monumental four volume reference overviews significant events and developments in religious history over the course of more than five millennia Written for high school students undergraduates and general readers interested in the history of world religions this massive reference chronicles developments in religious history from 3500 BCE through the 21st century The set comprises four volumes treating the ancient world from 3500 BCE through 499 CE 500 through 1399 1400 through 1849 and 1850 through 2009 Each volume includes hundreds of brief entries arranged chronologically and then further organized by region and religion The entries provide fundamental information on topics ranging from the neolithic Ggantija temples near Malta through the election of Mary Douglas Glasspool as bishop of the Episcopal Diocese of Los Angeles in 2009 Global in scope and encyclopedic in breadth this chronology of world religions is an essential purchase for all libraries concerned with the development of human civilization Fifty Lessons in Training for Service Herbert Moninger,1916
