Andrews, Nartnalin Chompusri, Bryan J. Baldwin, 2003 Examines how and why corporate strategy structure and culture is continuing to change markedly in Southeast Asia The Geography of Southeast Asia Thomas A. Rumney, 2010-04-07 In The Geography of Southeast Asia Rumney discusses an area that has long been of interest to geographers and other academics As interest in Southeast Asia has grown particularly over the past forty years the volume and variety of scholarly publications on the varied geographical aspects of the region have also increased This collection is an attempt to identify organize and present as many of these works as possible The region as a whole and each individual country of the area are covered in individual chapters Each chapter is further systematically organized by topic including general works cultural social geography economic geography historical geography physical geography political geography and urban geography This book presents a myriad of sources such as atlases books chapters articles dissertations and theses are included as well as works written in English French German and other languages providing the reader with a thorough view of Southeast Asian geography

Southeast Asian Culture and Heritage in a Globalising World Ooi Giok Ling, Assoc Prof Rahil Ismail, Dr Brian J Shaw, 2012-11-28 Southeast Asia has in recent years become a crossroads of cultures with high levels of ethnic pluralism not only between countries sub regions and urban areas but also at the local levels of community and neighbourhood Illustrated by a series of international case studies this book demonstrates how the forces of post colonialism in their various manifestations are accelerating social change and creating new and imagined communities some of which are potentially disruptive and which may well threaten the longer term sustainability of the region Interdisciplinary in approach this book brings together geographers historians anthropologists architects education specialists planners and sociologists to make connections and new insights and to provide a truly comprehensive view of heritage culture and identity in this dynamic region

Southeast Asia Transformed Chia Lin Sien, 2003 Southeast Asia with a total population of 520 million remains a region characterized by fragmentation diversity and considerable internal conflict despite the unifying influence of the Association of Southeast Asian Nations ASEAN formed some thirty five years ago In the new millennium it has lost the distinction of being one of the worlds faster growing group of economies since the 1997 financial crisis While it has benefited from the winds of globalization it has now to cope with the painful adjustments to problems that stem from the inadequacies of good governance and structural changes

The Changing Face of Management in South East Asia Chris Rowley, Saaidah Abdul-Rahman, 2007-12-19 South East Asia has undergone important economic social and political developments in the last decade The emergence of China as Asia s largest pool of cheap labour has resulted in remarkable changes in the volume of foreign direct investment it commands while the 1997 Asian Financial Crisis has undoubtedly influenced managerial practices in the majority of the countries in the region In response South East Asian governments and businesses have sought ways of attracting new investors while intensifying their efforts to retain existing industries This important new volume overviews the development of South East Asian management practices focusing on human resource management HRM as an indicator and measure of change Written by prominent scholars of the region the book focuses on reform in the human resource HR managerial domain documenting recent changes and assessing current practices from both macro and micro perspectives A consistent structure and content is used throughout with each chapter incorporating real life local organizational and manager case studies plus vignettes to give voice to practitioners and developments This is essential reading for anybody with an interest in management HR or the political social cultural and economic profiles of the countries of South East Asia Diversity for Development International Plant Genetic Resources Institute,1999 The Far East and Australasia 2003 Europa Publications,2002 A unique survey of each country in the region It includes an extensive collection of facts statistics analysis and directory information in one accessible volume Rethinking Environmental Management in the Pacific Rim Amrita Daniere,Lois. M Takahashi,2017-11-22 This title was first published in 2002 Environmental degradation resulting from rapid industrialization has become a serious issue for the governments of Southeast Asia This volume focuses on three interrelated factors in environmental management in Bangkok and other rapidly developing urban areas along the Pacific Rim government policy and enforcement non governmental organization intervention and community participation Unity and Diversity in Development Ideas Yves Berthelot,2004-01-30 This second volume from the United Nations Intellectual History Project surveys the history of the UN s regional commissions and the ideas they have developed over the last 40 years Each essay is devoted to one of the five regional commissions Europe Asia and the Far East Latin America Africa and Western Asia and how it has approached its mission of assessing the condition of regional economies and making prognoses about future conditions The essays describe how each commission has added local perspectives to global debates over economic development and brought an authentic regional voice to the UN Contributors are Adebayo Adedeji Yves Berthelot Leelananda de Silva Blandine Destremau Paul Rayment and Gert Rosenthal Whither South East Asian Management? Chris Rowley,Malcolm Warner,2013-09-13 This book examines the directions in which various structures and processes of management and business are moving in South East Asia covering Indonesia Malaysia Thailand and Vietnam It aims to update previous works in the field covering management and business in these countries It goes on to deal with a wide variety of themes and issues functional and practice areas sectors and organisational types Many key sectors are also covered such as finance retailing telecoms etc The types or organisations covered range from multinational companies to state owned enterprises The contributors cover current and ongoing developments of these themes particularly in the context of globalization The book also addresses the future directions management may be moving in this important part of the international economy The authors are all experts in their fields and are all based in universities and business schools in the region within the respective countries involved The work is aimed at undergraduate and postgraduate students in business administration especially those on MBA programmes development economics management studies and related fields as well as lecturers in those subjects and researchers in the field This book was published as a special issue of Asia Pacific Business Review International Relations in Southeast Asia Donald E. Weatherbee,Ralf Emmers,2005 This balanced comprehensive guide to Southeast Asian politics offers a sensible but nondogmatic realist approach to the region s international relations Donald E Weatherbee lucidly explains the dynamics of the Southeast Asian subsystem as a struggle for autonomy in pursuit of national interests He explores three important questions the answers to which will shape the future Southeast Asia Will democratic regimes transform international relations in Southeast Asia Will national leaders succeed in reinventing ASEAN as a more effective collaborative mechanism Finally how will the evolving Chinese position balancing and perhaps displacing the United States as Asia s great power affect Southeast Asia s struggle for autonomy Dragons and Tigers Barbara A. Weightman,2011-03-15 Dragons and Tigers A Geography of South East and Southeast Asia Third Edition explores and illustrates conditions events problems and trends of both larger regions and individual nations Using a cross disciplinary approach the author discusses evolving physical and cultural landscapes Nature Society relations provide the foundation for social economic political and environmental problems Dragons and Tigers is the only textbook that covers all three regions South Asia East Asia and Southeast Asia in one textbook It is the most comprehensive book on the market about the geography of Asia Thailand Douglas A. Phillips,2007 Formerly known as the Kingdom of Siam Thailand is the only country in Southeast Asia never to have been colonized by a European nation It is also one of the most beautiful countries in the world Thailand has developed its economy at a surprising pace Indonesia and the ASEAN Free Trade Agreement Alexander C. Chandra,2008-01-01 Chandra provides a political economic analysis of the dynamic relationship between ASEAN economic integration and Indonesian nationalism This book is suitable for those interested in contemporary Southeast Asian affairs Geographies of the New Economy Peter W. Daniels,Andrew Leyshon,Michael J. Bradshaw,Jonathan Beaverstock,2006-12-11 What is the new economy Where is it How does it differ from the old economy How does the new economy relate to issues such as the nature of work social inclusion and exclusion Geographies of the New Economy explores the meaning of the new economy at the global scale from the perspective of advanced post socialist and emerging economies Drawing on evidence from regions around the world the book debates the efficacy of the widely used concept of the new economy and examines its socio spatial consequences This book is important reading for policy makers academics and students of geography sociology urban studies economics planning and policy studies Managing International Connectivity, Diversity of Learning and Changing Labour Markets Ka Ho Mok,2016-08-10 This book examines how major Asian cities have enhanced their global competitiveness by transforming their higher education systems to equip their graduates with global competence It primarily focuses on policy implications and urban governance especially comparing how governments are responding to the growing challenges of international connectivity and are managing the diversity of populations resulting from an increasingly globalized world
