Southern African Liberation Movements and the Global Cold War 'East' Lena Dallywater,Chris Saunders,Helder Adegar Fonseca,2019-06-17 In the global context of the Cold War the relationship between liberation movements and Eastern European states obviously changed and transformed Similarly forms of material aid and ideological encouragement underwent changes over time The articles assembled in this volume argue that the traditional Cold War geography of bi polar competition with the United States is not sufficient to fully grasp these transformations The question of which side of the ideological divide was more successful or lucky in impacting actors and societies in the global south is still relevant yet the Cold War perspective falls short in unfolding the complex geographies of connections and the multipolarity of actions and transactions that exists until today Acknowledging the complexities of liberation movements in globalization processes the papers thus argue that activities need to be understood in their local context including personal agendas and internal conflicts rather than relying primarily on the traditional frame of Cold War competition They point to the agency of individual activists in both Africa and Eastern Europe and the lessons practices and languages that were derived from their often contradictory encounters In Southern African Liberation Movements authors from South Africa Portugal Austria and Germany ask What role did actors in both Southern Africa and Eastern Europe play What can we learn by looking at biographies in a time of increasing racial and international conflict And which creative solutions need to be found to combine efforts of actors from various ideological camps Building on archival sources from various regions in different languages case studies presented in the edition try to encounter the lack of a coherent state of the art They aim at combining the sometimes scarce sources with qualitative interviews to give answers to the many open questions regarding Southern African liberation movements and their connections to the East

The South African Intelligence Services Kevin A. O'Brien,2010-11-01 This book is the first full history of South African intelligence and provides a detailed examination of the various stages in the evolution of South Africa s intelligence organizations and structures Covering the apartheid period of 1948 90 the transition from apartheid to democracy of 1990 94 and the post apartheid period of new intelligence dispensation from 1994 2005 this book examines not only the apartheid government s intelligence dispensation and operations but also those of the African National Congress and its partner the South African Communist Party ANC SACP as well as those of other liberation movements and the independent homelands under the apartheid system Examining the civilian military and police intelligence structures and operations in all periods as well as the extraordinarily complicated apartheid government s security bureaucracy or securocracy and its structures and units the book discusses how South Africa s Cold War position influenced its relationships with various other world powers especially where intelligence co operation came to bear It outlines South Africa's regional relationships and concerns the foremost being its activities in South West Africa Namibia and its relationship with Rhodesia through 1980 Finally it examines the various legislative and other governance bases for the existence and operations of South Africa's intelligence structures in all periods and the influences that such activities as the Rivonia Trial at one end of the history or the Truth and Reconciliation Commission at the other end had on the evolution of these intelligence questions throughout South Africa's modern history This book will be of great interest to all students of South African politics intelligence studies and international politics in general Historical Dictionary of Modern Coups d'état John J. Kenneth Kaunda, the United States and Southern Africa Andy DeRoche, 2016-05-19 Kenneth Kaunda the United States and Southern Africa carefully examines US policy towards the southern African region between 1974 when Portugal granted independence to its colonies of Angola and Mozambique and 1984 the last full year of the Reagan administration's Constructive Engagement approach It focuses on the role of Zambian president Kenneth Kaunda the key facilitator of international diplomacy towards the dangerous neighborhood surrounding his nation The main themes include the influence of race national security economics and African agency on international relations during the height of the Cold War Andy DeRoche focuses on key issues such as the civil war in Angola the fight against apartheid the struggle for Namibia's independence the transition from Rhodesia to Zimbabwe and bilateral US Zambian relations The approach is traditional diplomatic history based on archival research in Zambia and the USA as well as interviews with key players such as Kaunda Mark Chona Siteke Mwale Vernon Mwaanga Chester Crocker and Frank Wisner The result offers an important new insight into the nuances of US policy toward southern Africa during the hottest days of the Cold War The Roots and Consequences of 20th-Century Warfare Spencer C. Tucker,2016-09-06 This unique reference book introduces readers to the causes and effects of the 20th century s most significant conflicts and explains how the impact of these conflicts still resonates today The Roots and Consequences of 20th Century Warfare Conflicts That Shaped the Modern World introduces students to the causes and effects of the 20th century s most significant conflicts Covering conflicts that occurred in all regions of the world readers will gain knowledge on the causes and consequences of each conflict and become familiar with the historical context needed to understand the roots and consequences of these seminal events The text also identifies key opponents in each conflict and illuminates the reasons why each country or group decided to fight the scope of their involvement in the war and the impact of the war Reference entries on key battles are presented in chronological order supplying engaging details on the events and people who shaped each war The book also supplies maps of the key battles to illuminate the strategic movements of both sides of the conflict A lengthy bibliography offers a wealth of options to readers seeking more sources of information on any of the conflicts The Mazruiana Collection Revisited Ali Al'Amin Mazrui,2005

Consists of 650 annotated entries covering Mazrui s books dissertations edited works about him major essays in books academic journals and conference papers This work contains essays including pamphlets magazine and newspaper articles and audio visual recordings Zero Hour: A Countdown to the Collapse of South Africa's Apartheid System Geoffrey Hebdon,2022-07-15 This enlightening book focuses on the history of how the ethnic groups of Africa eventually joined by white colonizers from Europe created the seedbed for the hateful apartheid system in Southern Africa The reader learns how apartheid began the dehumanizing effects it had on the black population and how it was finally abolished in its zero hour in 1994 Written by historian writer and researcher Geoffrey Hebdon this is the second in a series that covers the experience of a British citizen who emigrated to South Africa during that era and records in vivid detail his responses to the apartheid system and how South Africa and neighbouring countries evolved after apartheid was abolished As well as the first European settlers and the white Afrikaners attempted enslavement of the black population the book also covers the Zulu wars the Anglo Boer wars and individuals who supported apartheid such as Cecil Rhodes and the whites only National Party of South Africa Also covered are prominent leaders of the African National Congress ANC and the black revolutionaries who fought against apartheid many of whom gave their lives or served life sentences for their struggle including Nelson Mandela who became South Africa s first black president after serving years in prison The Mandela Revolution Huw

Lawford,2022-01-28 On 27 April 1994 South Africa went to the polls and delivered the first black government in the country s history This was the Mandela Revolution This is not the story of how the Rainbow Nation was formed but it tells a story of one part of the revolution a vital part that had to occur to give legitimacy to the new South Africa both at home and abroad It highlights the political necessity that drove a process and the seemingly inevitable failure that it became Not a failure of the process itself but a failure that had to occur to permit acceptability it resulted in the end of South Africa as a hegemony This account focuses on how the military forces supporting the Apartheid regime and those committed to its overthrow came together to form a new national force reflecting the new multi racial multi faith democracy The process appeared unacceptable in some measure to all sides but the political instruction in 1994 was that there was to be the integration of the South African defense Force and the armed wings of the African National Congress and the Pan Africanist Congress to form the South African National defense Force Within this revolution there was a small detachment from the British armed forces that were charged with assisting this transition They were required to oversee and assist a process that had never been done before and often had to operate alone It is a story of highs and lows of sudden death breakdowns and ultimately of hope This is a personal account of three years spent in the middle of this staggering transitional experiment It was Security Sector Reform and Disarmament Demobilisation and Reintegration DDR before such processes were coined by the United Nations and arguably it was considerably more successful than any such venture attempted by the United Nations It is a book that demonstrates how success and failure can occur simultaneously

Reformed Churches in South Africa and the Struggle for Justice Marry-Anne Plaatjies-Van Huffel, Robert Vosloo, 2013-11-01 The various contributions in this informative and exciting volume explore the ambivalent and complex history of Reformed faith during the years 1960 to 1990 in apartheid South Africa In the process light is shed on the role of Reformed churches in the struggle for justice freedom and dignity Parameters are simultaneously provided for defining the public role of Reformed faith in contemporary South Africa in the context of Africanisation and globalisation Prof Nico Koopman Dean of the Faculty of Theology Stellenbosch University

The Black Consciousness Reader Baldwin Ndaba, Therese Owen, Masego Panyane, Rabbie Sermula, Janet Smith, 2019-04-25 There is a current revival of Black Consciousness as political and student movements around the world as well as academics and campaigners working in decolonization reconfigure the continued struggle for socio economic revolution Yet the roots of Black Consciousness and its relation to other movements such as Black Lives Matter have only begun to be explored Black Consciousness has deep connections to the struggle against apartheid The Black Consciousness Reader is an essential collection of history culture philosophy and meaning of Black Consciousness by some of the thinkers artists and activists who developed it in order to finally bring revolution to South Africa A contribution to the world s Black cultural archive it examines how the proper acknowledgement of Blackness brings a greater love a broader sweep of heroes and a wider understanding of intellectual and political influences Although the legendary murdered activist Steve Biko is a strong figure within this history the book documents many other significant international Black Consciousness personalities and focuses a predominantly African eye on Black Consciousness in politics land women power art music and religion
