Southern Country Cooking From The Loveless Cafe:

Southern Country Cooking from the Loveless Cafe Michael Stern, Jane Stern, 2005-04-02 Beginning as a party house in the forties the then private home had one of the largest hardwood living room floors around perfect for dancing the night away In the fifties it was known as the Harpeth Valley Tea Room owned by Lon and Annie Loveless In 1951 it became the Loveless Cafe and in the seventies and eighties the modest roadside eatery that once had been Nashville's secret went national Discovered by food writers the Loveless found itself recognized as a precious cultural institution As fast food gained popularity travelers were looking for old fashioned country cooking The Loveless Cafe is like stepping back in time where the biscuits and jams are made from scratch and the pork is cooked until the meat falls off the bone It's an institution in Nashville and a favorite destination of celebrities and locals alike The Loveless offers an authentic experience that reminds people of their childhood and of great southern traditions One of the five Best Places in America for Breakfast CBS This Morning If you want to taste the best country cooking anywhere you just need to go to my favorite restaurant The Loveless Cafe Everything they serve is great I guarantee it Do yourself a favor and pay them a visit George Jones Loveless Restaurant the real McCoy of Southern cooking USA Today
