Southern Africa Civilizations In Turmoil:

Southern Africa Richard W. Hull,1981-01-01      Southern Africa Jonathan Farley,2008-02-19 This major addition to The Making of the Contemporary World series surveys the contemporary history of the whole Southern Africa region encompassing economic social political security foreign policy health environmental and gender issues in one succinct volume

Southern Africa Frances Fleming,1969      Regional Hegemons David J Myers,2019-06-04 The bitter U S experience in Vietnam and the pain inflicted on the Soviet Union by its Afghanistan adventure have caused Washington and Moscow to rethink the costs and benefits of unilateral military intervention on behalf of threatened clients especially in the third world Also as the Cold War winds down the crusading spirit that has driven superpower competition since the end of World War II appears increasingly anachronistic Expenditures by the superpowers in pursuit of military superiority or even to ensure parity are now criticized for the security they do not provide or for detracting from economic growth The latter criticism has grown in importance as the U S economy has confronted new challenges from Japan and Germany and as the Soviet economy struggles to avoid collapse Thus when Saddam Hussein s August 1990 invasion of Kuwait challenged the political and economic status quo in the oil rich Middle East neither the United States nor the Soviet Union responded unilaterally Cooperatively they crafted an international consensus to confront the challenge

A Selected Bibliography--Sub-Saharan Africa ,1991      Great Warrior Leaders/thinkers ,1989      Southern Africa Sheikh Rustum Ali,1987-05-21 In its persistence at maintaining racial inequality Southern Africa is leaving the door open to widespread racial conflict Although the world east and west communist and capitalist is generally united in condemning apartheid in such a dispute it is not unlikely that the two superpowers would become involved Southern Africa An American Enigma examines the currents of American involvement with Southern African politics since 1948 to the present Reagan administration

Africa Air University (U.S.). Library,1982      Lord Methuen and the British Army Stephen M. Miller,2012-11-12 This study analyzes the readiness of the British military establishment for war in 1899 and its performance in the South African War 1899 1902 It focuses on the career of Field Marshal Paul Sanford 3rd Baron Methuen whose traditional military training used so effectively in Queen Victoria s small wars was put to the test by the modern challenges of the South African War A subsidiary aim of this work is to correct and refine the historical consensus that Methuen s campaigning in the South African War was plagued by practical errors and poor judgement The South African War was a crucial transitional episode in the history of the British army Unlike Great Britain s other expeditions it required the concentrated resources of the entire empire It was a modern war in the sense that it employed the technology the weaponry the communications and the transportation of the second industrial revolution

Southern Africa ,1981      African Military History and Politics Y. Alex-Assensoh,2002-01-11 Africa s former colonial masters including Great Britain France Portugal and Spain trained members and leaders of the various colonial Armed Forces to be politically non partisan Yet the modern day Armed Forces on the continent made up of the Army Police Air Force and Navy have become so politicized that many countries in Africa are today ruled or have already been ruled by military dictators through coups d'etat occasionally for good reasons as the book points out This book traces the historical cum political evolution of these events and what bodes for Africa where the unending military incursions into partisan politics are concerned

Western Civilization in Southern Africa Isaac Schapera, 2013-11-05 The book is structured as follows An introduction of old Bantu culture An account of modern Bantu life Discussion of the influence exerted by Christianity and Education upon communal life of the Bantu Examination of special aspects of Bantu culture as they have been modified by Western civilization language and music The economic political and legal positions of the native tribes in South Africa are also covered First published in 1934

Book Review Digest, 1982

Afro-Optimism Ebere Onwudiwe, Minabere Ibelema, 2002-12-30 The view that Africa regressed the moment that colonial governments left its shores is widespread This volume is a counterpoint to the orthodoxy Here 13 scholars with specializations ranging from literature and history to philosophy and economics argue that Africa has advanced since colonialism and is poised to march forward in spite of setbacks and disappointments The contributors to the book contend that development is about human beings so they do not rely exclusively on statistical estimates and projections Afro Optimism is a book with a simple thesis Africa is marching forward even if at times haltingly and at a different pace from the rest of the world A common view among journalists and academics alike is that African conditions declined the moment colonial governments left its shores The chapters in this book cover Africa's progress in health agriculture transportation cultural innovation and economic advancement The contributors to the book contend that development is about human beings so they do not rely exclusively on statistical estimates and projections The essays in this book discuss the advances African states have made in spite of and at times because of their experiences of European colonial rule The contributors argue that in all facets of development Africans had to overcome colonial obstacles or had to build on meager colonial foundations Although the authors acknowledge Africa's disappointing performance in various respects they stress throughout that exclusive concentration on African failures creates new and reinforces existing negative perceptions of contemporary Africa

A Crisis of Whiteness in the Heart of Darkness Felix Lösing, 2021-01-12 The British and American Congo Reform Movement ca 1890-1913 has been praised extensively for its heroic confrontation of colonial atrocities in the Congo Free State Its commitment to white supremacy and colonial domination however continues to be overlooked denied or trivialised This historical sociological study argues that racism was the ideological cornerstone and formed the main agenda of this first major human rights campaign of the 20th century Through a thorough analysis of contemporary sources Felix Lösing unmasks the colonial and racist formation of the modern human rights discourse and investigates the historical work of racism at a crossroads between imperial power and white crisis

Cold War in Southern Africa Sue Onslow, 2009-09-10 This edited volume examines the complexities of the Cold War in Southern Africa and uses a range of archives to develop a more detailed understanding of the impact of the Cold War environment upon the processes of political change In the aftermath of European decolonization the struggle between white minority governments and black liberation movements encouraged both sides to appeal for external support from the two superpower blocs Cold War in Southern Africa highlights the importance of the global ideological environment on the perceptions and consequent behaviour of the white minority regimes the Black Nationalist movements and the newly independent African nationalist governments Together they underline the variety of archival sources on the history of Southern Africa in the Cold War and its growing importance in Cold War Studies This volume brings together a series of essays by leading scholars based on a wide range of sources in the United States Russia Cuba Britain Zambia and South Africa By focussing on a range of independent actors these essays highlight the complexity of the conflict in Southern Africa a battle of power blocs of systems and ideas which intersected with notions and practices of race and class This book will appeal to students of cold war studies US foreign policy African politics and International History Sue Onslow has taught at the London School of Economics since 1994 She is currently a Cold War Studies Fellow in the Cold War Studies Centre IDEAS Colour, Confusion and Concessions Melanie Yap, 1996-01-01 For more than 300 years Chinese have been part of the fascinating mix of people who make up the inhabitants of the southern tip of Africa One of the smallest and most identifiable minority groups in arguably the most race conscious country in the world they have not up to now been the focus of serious historical attention This detailed and descriptive chronological account aims to fill a gap in available histories by providing a comprehensive record of the Chinese in South Africa from the earliest times to the mid 1990s Subject Guide to Books in Print, 1997 Briton and Boer in South Africa Murat Halstead, 1900

Introduction to the History of African Civilization: Precolonial Africa C. Magbaily Fyle, 1999 Introduction to the History of African Civilization explores the major issues dominating African Civilization from the earliest recorded period to the eve of colonial conquest of the continent C Magbaily Fyle begins with a discussion of the myths and prejudices underlying most analyses of African issues and moves into a discussion of the origin of humanity the similarities between the classical Nile valley civilizations of Egypt Nubia Kush and Axum and the spread of Islam through African societies He portrays the systems of precolonial government and society including the role of women in governance as well as traditional trade and agricultural patterns Fyle provides a new perspective on the Islamic Jihads shifting focus from Sokoto and Macina to the Senegambia and the Upper Guinea region and a revised interpretation of the Atlantic slave trade which includes the importance of African objectors to this process He also discusses important cultural features such as the traditional African food architecture and typical structures of towns food architecture and typical structures of towns food architecture and typical structures of towns food architecture and typical structures of towns
