British Books in Print, 1978 Islam, Christianity and Tradition Ian Richard Netton, 2006-12-22 Offers a unique comparative exploration of the role of tradition in Islam and Christianity The idea of tradition has enjoyed a variety of senses and definitions in Islam and Christianity but both have cleaved at certain times to a supposedly golden age of tradition from the past The author suggests there has been a chain of thinkers from classical Islam to the twentieth century who share a common interest in ijtihad or independent thinking Drawing on past and present evidence and using Christian tradition as a focus for contrast and comparison the author highlights the seemingly paradoxical harmony between tradition and ijtihad in Islam The author draws on a variety of primary and secondary sources including contemporary newspaper and journal Encyclopaedia Britannica ,1929 Ancient Near Eastern Art Dominique Collon,1995-01-01 Based on the unrivaled collections of the British Museum this extensively illustrated book is a superb introduction to the art of the ancient Near East from the eighth millennium B C to Alexander the Great Often described as the cradle of civilization the ancient Near East was the birthplace of writing monumental sculpture and wheel made pottery Dominique Collon provides a unique view into this ancient world from village settlements to grand palaces to burial sites Collon situates the Museum s most beautiful and interesting artifacts against their historical and cultural background Among the works featured are painted pottery figurines cylinder seals and stone amulets from the earliest village cultures before 3000 B C Also here are magnificent finds from graves at Alaca Huyuk in Turkey and the Royal Cemetery at Ur including jewelry musical instruments and the famous Royal Standard Sculpted reliefs from Assyrian palaces and Sasanian metalwork round out the collection In her final chapter Collon shows how art from the ancient Near East resonates in our own world today A welcome addition is a Mesopotamian chronology summarizing recent astronomical and textual data compiled by C B F Walker especially for this book Based on the unrivaled collections of the British Museum this extensively illustrated book is a superb introduction to the art of the ancient Near East from the eighth millennium B C to Alexander the Great Often described as the cradle of civilization the ancient Near East was the birthplace of writing monumental sculpture and wheel made pottery Dominique Collon provides a unique view into this ancient world from village settlements to grand palaces to burial sites Collon situates the Museum s most beautiful and interesting artifacts against their historical and cultural background Among the works featured are painted pottery figurines cylinder seals and stone amulets from the earliest village cultures before 3000 B C Also here are magnificent finds from graves at Alaca Huyuk in Turkey and the Royal Cemetery at Ur including jewelry musical instruments and the famous Royal Standard Sculpted reliefs from Assyrian palaces and Sasanian metalwork round out the collection In her final chapter Collon shows how art from the ancient Near East resonates in our own world today A welcome addition is a Mesopotamian chronology summarizing recent astronomical and textual data compiled by C B F Walker especially for this book Rock Art Studies: News of the World VI Paul Bahn,Natalie Franklin,Matthias Strecker,2021-09-16 Like previous series entries this volume covers rock art research and management all over the world over a 5 year period in this case 2015 19 Contributions once again show the wide variety of approaches that have been taken in different parts of the world and reflect the expansion and diversification of perspectives and research questions Underground Aqueducts Handbook Andreas N. ANTIQUITY ,1929 A Cultural History of Dress and Fashion in Antiquity Mary Harlow,2018-11-01 Whilst seemingly simple garments such as the tunic remained staples of the classical wardrobe sources from the period reveal a rich variety of changing styles and attitudes to clothing across the ancient world Covering the period 500 BCE to 800 CE and drawing on sources ranging from extant garments and architectural iconography to official edicts and literature this volume reveals Antiquity's preoccupation with dress which was matched by an appreciation of the processes of production rarely seen in later periods From a courtesan's sheer faux silk garb to the sumptuous purple dyes of an emperor's finery clothing was as much a marker of status and personal expression as it was a site of social control and anxiety Contemporary commentators expressed alarm in equal measure at the over dressed the excessively ascetic or at barbarian silhouettes Richly illustrated with 100 images A Cultural History of Dress and Fashion in Antiquity presents an overview of the period with essays on textiles production and distribution the body belief gender and sexuality status ethnicity visual representations and literary representations The Arabs in Antiquity Jan Retso,2013-07-04 The history of the Arabs in antiquity from their earliest appearance around 853 BC until the first century of Islam is described in this book It traces the mention of people called Arabs in all relevant ancient sources and suggests a new interpretation of their history It is suggested that the ancient Arabs were more a religious community than an ethnic group which would explain why the designation Arab could be easily adopted by the early Muslim tribes The Arabs of antiquity thus resemble the early Islamic Arabs more than is usually assumed both being united by common bonds of religious ideology and law Encyclopaedia of the History of Science, Technology, and Medicine in Non-Western Cultures Helaine Selin,2008-03-12 Here at last is
