Southland Poems Of The South:

Southland and Other Poems of the South Harold A. Lawrence, 1992 Lyrics of the Southland Emory Elrage Scott, 1913 Songs from the Southland Various, 2019-12-18 Songs from the Southland is a rich anthology that captures the diverse voices and narratives emerging from the Southern United States This collection weaves together poetry short stories and essays reflecting the complexities of Southern identity heritage and social issues The literary style is deeply rooted in regionalism employing vivid imagery and colloquial language that evoke the landscape and culture of the South The anthology showcases both established and emerging writers providing a multi faceted exploration of the South s historical and contemporary realities making it a significant contribution to American literature The various authors featured in this anthology hail from varying backgrounds each bringing unique perspectives shaped by personal experiences of life in the South Their collective backgrounds encompass a tapestry of race class and gender reflecting the cultural and societal shifts that have occurred over generations The motivation behind this compilation stems from a desire to amplify Southern voices that have often been marginalized creating a platform where their stories and songs can resonate with broader audiences Songs from the Southland is essential reading for anyone seeking to understand the multifarious nature of Southern culture and literature It invites readers to engage with the complexities of identity belonging and resistance embedded in each piece This anthology is an invaluable resource for scholars students and general readers alike offering a deeper appreciation of the South as an integral part of the American narrative Southern Lyrics Robert Paine Hudson, 1907 War Poetry of the South William Gilmore Simms, 1866 Southern Identity and Southern Estrangement in Medieval Chinese Poetry Ping Wang, Nicholas Morrow Williams, 2015-01-01 From ancient times China s remote and exotic South a shifting and expanding region beyond the Yangtze River has been an enduring theme in Chinese literature For poets and scholar officials in medieval China the South was a barbaric frontier region of alienation and disease But it was also a place of richness and fascination and for some a site of cultural triumph over exile The eight essays in this collection explore how tensions between pride in southern culture and anxiety over the alien qualities of the southern frontier were behind many of the distinctive features of medieval Chinese literature They examine how prominent writers from this period depicted themselves and the South in poetic form through attitudes that included patriotic attachment and bitter exile By the Tang dynasty poetic symbols and clich s about the exotic South had become well established though many writers were still able to use these in innovative ways Southern Identity and Southern Estrangement in Medieval Chinese Poetry is the first work in English to examine the cultural south in classical Chinese poetry The book incorporates original research on key poets such as Lu Ji Jiang Yan Wang Bo and Li Bai It also offers a broad survey of cultural and historical trends during the medieval period as depicted in poetry The book will be of interest to students of Chinese literature and cultural history Ping Wang is assistant professor of Chinese at University of Washington Seattle Nicholas Morrow Williams is research assistant professor at the Mr Simon Suen and Mrs

Mary Suen Sino Humanitas Institute Hong Kong Baptist University A long overdue appreciation of the South as a center for the production of medieval Chinese literature as well as a focal point of Chinese cultural and intellectual reflection and identity this collection of essays by a stellar roster of leading scholars offers an immensely rich contribution to the study of classical Chinese poetry Martin Kern Greg 84 and Joanna P13 Zeluck Professor in Asian Studies Princeton University This book presents a systematic study of how the symbol of the southland was reinvented in medieval Chinese literature taking readers on a cultural and geographic journey to survey the continuous rewriting of the South and its identity Yu Yu Cheng Distinguished Professor of Chinese Literature National Taiwan University Southern Lyrics Robert Paine any mere chronicle of facts The mere facts in a history do not always or often indicate the true animus of the action But in poetry and song the emotional nature is apt to declare itself without reserve speaking out with a passion which disdains subterfuge and through media of imagination and fancy which are not only without reserve but which are too coercive in their own nature too arbitrary in their influence to acknowledge any restraints upon that expression which glows or weeps with emotions that gush freely and freshly from the heart With this persuasion we can also forgive the muse who in her fervor is sometimes forgetful of her art And yet it is believed that the numerous pieces of this volume will be found creditable to the genius and culture of the Southern people and honorable as in accordance with their convictions They are derived from all the States of the late Southern Confederacy and will be found truthfully to exhibit the sentiment and opinion prevailing more or less generally throughout the whole The editor has had special advantages in making the compilation Having a large correspondence in most of the Southern States he has found no difficulty in procuring his material Contributions have poured in upon him from all portions of the South the original publications having been in a large number of cases subjected to the careful revision of the several authors It is a matter of great regret with him that the limits of the present volume have not suffered him to do justice to and find a place for many of the pieces which fully deserve to be put on record Some of the poems were quite too long for his purpose a large number delayed by the mails and other causes were received too late for publication Several collections from Louisiana North Carolina and Texas especially are omitted for this reason Many of these pieces are distinguished by fire force passion and a free play of fancy Briefly his material would enable him to prepare another volume similar to the present which would not be unworthy of its companionship He is authorized by his publisher to say that in the event of the popular success of the present volume he will cheerfully follow up its publication by a second of like style character and dimensions
