Leadership as Friendship Chloe Lynch, 2019-03-01 When it comes to talking about the activity of directing the church the language of leadership and leaders is increasingly popular Yet what is leadership and how might theological narratives better resource the discourse and practice of leadership in ecclesial contexts In identifying and critiquing managerialism as a dominant narrative of leadership in the Western church this book calls for an alternative approach founded on the concept of friendship Engaging with the wider field of leadership studies the book establishes an understanding of leadership activity and brings it into conversation with an incarnational ecclesiology The result is a prophetic reimagining of ecclesial leadership in terms of a relational kenotic praxis This praxis of mutuality and love is framed here in the rich language of Christian friendship The book also wrestles deeply with the embodiment of such a praxis making explicit the power behaviours typical of friendship leadership and offering constructive guidance for practitioners in the task of implementation within a complex and fractured world This book offers a new vision of the centrality of friendship to leadership of a healthy church community As such it will be of great use to scholars of practical theology ecclesiology and leadership as well as practitioners in church ministry Missionshift David J. THE SECRET SERVICE CHURCH: FAITH SEEKING RELATEDNESS George Gammack, 2015-08-13 We all know what church is Likewise we are provided with a supply of set notions for God Christ and the Bible which make up the stock in trade equipment for both believer and non believer This study asks fundamental questions about all these from a relational perspective attempting to illumine the faith quest by way of clues from the common realities of human interaction In this it is the appropriate provisions of relationships rather than the assent to doctrines that forms the spiritual basis of community Such a theology of relatedness is urgently needed We must come out of our creedal closets to be part of a new diaspora This demands a secret discipline of servant relationship at work in that no man's land where there is space for all manner of
