Sounding The Depths Theology Through The Arts:

Sounding the Depths Jeremy Begbie, 2002 Theologians and artists reflect here in a series of essays on how theology and the arts can be mutually enriching and beneficial The contributors argue that it is part of theology's calling to engage with culture particularly the arts and that it is not in fact true theology unless it does so The essays cover such topics as drama cathedral art poetry and music the contributors include Tom Wright Rowan Williams and David Ford Music as Theology Maeve Louise Heaney, 2012-09-01 The conversation between music and theology dormant for too long in recent years is at last gathering pace And rightly so There will always be theologians who will regard music as a somewhat peripheral concern too trivial to trouble the serious scholar and in any case almost impossible to engage because of its notorious resistance to words and concepts But an increasing number are discovering again what many of our forbears realized centuries ago that the kinship between this pervasive feature of human life and the search for a Christian intelligence of faith is intimate and ineradicable Maeve Heaney's ambitious wide ranging and energetic book pushes the conversation further forward still Her approach is unapologetically theological grounded in the passions and concerns of mainstream doctrinal theology And yet she is insisting that music must be given its due place in the ecology of theology Although convinced that music should not be set up as a rival to linguistic or conceptual articulation let alone swallow up traditional modes of theological language and thought she is equally convinced that music is an irreducible means of coming to terms with the world a unique vehicle of world disclosure and as such can generate a particular form of understanding there are things which God may only be saying through music If this is so it is incumbent on the theologian to listen Jeremy Begbie from the Foreword Theology and the Arts Ruth Illman, W. Alan Smith, 2013-06-07 This book brings the emerging fields of practical theology and theology of the arts into a dialogue beyond the bias of modern systematic and constructive theology The authors draw upon postmodern post secular feminist liberation and dialogical dialectical philosophy and theology and their critiques of the narrow modern emphases on reason and the scientific method as the model for all knowledge Such a practical theology of the arts focuses the work of theology on the actual practices that engage the arts in their various forms as the means of interpreting and understanding the nature of the communities and their members as well as the mechanisms through which these communities engage in transformative work to make persons and neighborhoods whole This book presents its theological claims through the careful analysis of several stories of communities around the world that have engaged in transformational practices through a specific art form investigating communities from Europe the Middle East South America and the U S The case studies explored include Jewish Christian Muslim Druze indigenous and sometimes agnostic subjects involved in visual art music dance theatre documentary film and literature Theology and the Arts demonstrates that the challenges of a postmodern and post secular context require a fundamental rethinking of theology that focuses on discrete practices of faithful communities rather than one dimensional theories about religion T&T Clark Handbook of Theology and the Arts

Stephen M. Garrett, Imogen Adkins, 2025-04-24 This volume presents the theology arts conversation from a distinctly Christian perspective as a witness of the Gospel of Christ to the world A widespread interest in the historical socio cultural and political embeddedness of theology and the arts permeates it This theme of embeddedness tracks through several overarching and interlocking concerns the relationship between form and content in both art and theology the intensification of the metaphysical and the theological contra materialist and positivist reductionisms the expansion of the epistemological possibilities of the theology art conversation and a robust understanding of the world as the theatre of God s glory Several chapters have been co written by theologians and artists as part of demonstrating the kind of conversation that this book commends A thorough going commitment to Scripture is also woven into the many different habits of thought represented in this volume Part I surveys different approaches to the theology arts conversation Part II focuses on how particular art forms bring theological issues to the surface and how theological and denominational traditions shape the making and receiving of the arts Part III delves into key topics in the current theology arts scene and asks how artistic and theological performance can both speak to theological and artistic knowing and help to celebrate and interrogate embodied lived reality Music:

Its Theologies and Spiritualities Edward Foley, 2020-11-25 This volume is an exploration of the varied and sometimes unrecognized ways in which music especially in ritual contexts can serve as both a spiritual conduit as well as a theological source With topics ranging from a Congolese choir in Ireland to the Orthodox chant in Georgia from postmodern reflections on new Passion compositions to reflections on the sacramentality of Black gospel music this volume offers a rich plumbing of very diverse yet well researched musical traditions case studies from around the globe for their spiritual and theological contributions

The Problem with The Dot Bruce D. Long, 2021-03-02 The Problem with the Dot is rooted in the idea that culture is a garden to be tended Gen 2 15 rather than a war to be won and uses the analogy of an ecosystem to expand the details of the individual components of the theatrical ecosystem to 1 Help those with minimal exposure to theater understand the indivisible construct of the theatrical ecosystem 2 Identify areas of Christian neglect within each component and 3 Emphasize strategic corrections that will result in the holistic restoration of a healthy global culture Each chapter strengthens the case for a long term holistic approach to the care and cultivation of global culture through the theatrical ecosystem culminating in a call to action that is magnified by the unique opportunity presented by the 2020 global pandemic that forced a hiatus on all theatrical productions The market will reset and artists will revive theaters It is my prayer that when this grand reopening occurs around the globe Christians are an integral part of the new beginning Resounding Truth ()

Freedom and Flourishing Robert Leigh, 2017-11-09 Freedom is vital both to Karl Barth's theology and to modern religion politics and culture Leigh describes how Barth's lifelong fascination by freedom culminated in a fresh daring engagement with it in his last completed book volume IV 3 of the massive Church Dogmatics which is probably the most important work of Christian theology in the twentieth century That volume builds on Barth's earlier work but also goes beyond it in ways that have not yet been appreciated Leigh shows how this mature theology of Barth not only responds profoundly to key questions about freedom both in philosophy and theology but also opens up a rich habitable understanding of Jesus Christ and of life in relationship with him that is prophetic for the twenty first century This involves a dynamic integration of knowing with being being with action truth with witness individual with community and divine initiative with human flourishing At the heart of this life with God is participation in the asymmetrical yet utterly reciprocal interaction between human beings and the God who loves them in freedom Leigh succeeds both in describing this participation convincingly and in demonstrating its provocative attractiveness
