

AP® ENGLISH LITERATURE AND COMPOSITION FREE-RESPONSE QUESTIONS

Question 1

(Suggested time—40 minutes. This question counts as one-third of the total essay section score.)

In the following poem by Robert Hayden (1913-1980), the speaker looks back on the strained relationship he had with his father during childhood. Read the poem carefully and in a well-organized essay discuss how Hayden contrasts the speaker's attitude towards his father as a child with how he now sees him as an adult. Consider how Hayden uses different literary techniques and poetic devices to convey his theme when formulating your response.

These Winter Sundays

Sundays too my father got up early
and put his clothes on in the blueblack cold,
then with cracked hands that ached
from labor in the weekday weather made Line 5 banked fires blaze. No one ever thanked him.

I'd wake and hear the cold splintering, breaking.
When the rooms were warm, he'd call,
and slowly I would rise and dress,
fearing the chronic angers of that house,

10 Speaking indifferently to him,
who had driven out the cold
and polished my good shoes as well.
What did I know, what did I know of love's austere and lonely offices?
