Popular Music and the New Auteur Arved Ashby, 2013-10-30 MTV utterly changed the movies Since music television arrived some 30 years ago music videos have introduced filmmakers to a new creative vocabulary speeds of events changed and performance and mood came to dominate over traditional narrative storytelling Popular Music and the New Auteur charts the impact of music videos on seven visionary directors Martin Scorsese Sofia Coppola David Lynch Wong Kar Wai the Coen brothers Quentin Tarantino and Wes Anderson These filmmakers demonstrate a fresh kind of cinematic musicality by writing against pop songs rather than against script and allowing popular music a determining role in narrative imagery and style Featuring important new theoretical work by some of the most provocative writers in the area today Popular Music and the New Auteur will be required reading for all who study film music and sound It will be particularly relevant for readers in popular music studies and its intervention in the ongoing debate on auteurism will make it necessary reading in film studies

Identifying and Interpreting Incongruent Film Music David Ireland, 2018-11-04 This book explores the concept of incongruent film music challenging the idea that this label only describes music that is inappropriate or misfitting for a film's images and narrative Defining incongruence as a lack of shared properties in the audiovisual relationship this study examines various types of incongruence between a film and its music and considers the active role that it can play in the construction of a film's meaning and influencing audience response Synthesising findings from research in the psychology of music in multimedia as well as from ideas sourced in semiotics film music and poststructuralist theory this interdisciplinary book provides a holistic perspective that reflects the complexity of moments of film music incongruence With case studies including well known films such as Gladiator and The Shawshank Redemption this book combines scene analysis and empirical audience reception tests to emphasise the subjectivity context dependency and multi dimensionality inherent in identifying and interpreting incongruent film music
