Sources Of All Evil African Proverbs And Sayings On Women:

Source of All Evil Mineke Schipper,1991 Completely unique and fascinating here are hundreds of proverbs and sayings about women from almost eighty African languages The great and varied chorus seems at times alien but more often strangely familiar

Source of All Evil ,1992 A Christian and African Ethic of Women's Political Participation Léocadie W. Lushombo,2022-11-30 This book surveys a broad panorama of Christian and African traditions to discover and assess the components that will illuminate and motivate a Christian and African ethic of women s political participation The author s primary lens for diagnosing the problems faced by women in Africa is Engelbert Mveng s concept of anthropological poverty that results from slavery and colonialism It affects women in unique ways and is exacerbated by the religious and cultural histories of women s oppression The author advocates an interplay between the sacredness of every individual s life a salient principle of Christian ethics and the collective consciousness of solidarity distinctive to African cultures This interplay can in turn foster a more enlightened approach to African masculinity Using a sophiological hermeneutic this in depth study undertakes a moral imagination through narrative criticism It argues that the existential reality of African women must be addressed as an essential element in the development of Christian socio political ethic The righteous solidaristic and resistant anger of women can transform patriarchy and inform Catholic social teaching The author draws on The Circle of concerned African women theologians postcolonial theorists inculturation theology African males and Jon Sobrino s liberation theology to present an innovative Christian ethic that will radically affect the lives of African women and inform feminist theology

Marriage Seen through Proverbs and Anti-Proverbs Anna T. Litovkina,Wolfgang Mieder,2019-11-04 This book explores various aspects of marriage and the ways it is viewed and conceptualized in the body of Anglo American anti proverbs or proverb transformations It also depicts those who contribute to the institution of marriage that is husbands and wives and analyses their nature qualities attributes and behaviours as revealed through such anti proverbs In addition the text investigates those who remain single and do not belong to the institution of marriage but contribute to the institution of marriage It will appeal to a wide range of readers from the casually interested general reader to the paremiologist paremiographer lexicographer and anthropologist

Towards an African Narrative Theology Joseph Healey,1996 Reflects what traditional proverbs used in Christian catechetical liturgical and ritual contexts reveal about Tanzanian appropriations of and interpretations of Christianity

An African Feminist Philosophy of Language Olayinka Oyeleye,2024-08-14 This book calls for the institution of an African feminist philosophy of language challenging existing debates and encouraging a move away from the Western gaze The book begins with an analysis of the philosophical context of African feminism and a call for the decolonization of epistemological discourse Oyeleye then goes on to consider how indigenous patriarchies play out in the cultural reality of the Yor b in particular ontologically unpacking the nature of woman as expressed in language especially in myths and proverbs Challenging the derogatory language found in proverbs which entrench patriarchal oppression the author advocates for feminist postproverbials new proverbs which draw on old traditions but reconstruct the space of woman in a new egalitarian rhetorical tradition The author concludes by outlining the conditions necessary for African feminist philosophers to consider language as a decolonizing space which can help to push through the agenda of social change This book will be an important resource for researchers from across the fields of gender and women studies feminist philosophy philosophy of language cultural studies and African studies Never Marry a Woman with Big Feet Mineke Schipper, Wilhelmina Janneke Josepha Schipper, 2003-01-01

In this study the author analyses similarities differences and contradictions in the cultural norms about gender expressed in proverbs she has found in oral and written sources from over 150 countries Grouping the proverbs into categories as the female body love sex childbirth and the female power the author examines shared patterns in ideas about women and how men see them Poverty in the Book of

Proverbs Lechion Peter Kimilike, 2008 The growth of the Christian church in sub Saharan Africa is reflected in a wide range of attempts at contextualizing Christian theology and biblical interpretation in Africa Theologians and biblical scholars relate the historical traditions and sources of Christianity to the socio and religio cultural context of Africa This series aims at making African theology and biblical interpretation its subject as well as object as the concerns of African theologians and biblical interpreters will be analyzed LANGUAGE AND LITERATURE Dainess Maganda, 2006-01-15

s the world continues to interconnect in this modern age the need for people to understand one another is magnified Whether for business purposes entertainment tourism or any other reason the more people learn about the world and the cultures that define them the more they are able to make this world a better place The languages people speak reflect the lives lived Understanding people s cultures therefore necessitates the use of language This book underscores the importance of using language and literature to enhance cultural understanding It also discusses the ways in which the teaching of African languages and literature can be used as vehicles for developing people s understanding of African cultures The Swahili

Novels of Tanzanian Women Izabela Romańczuk, 2024-09-11 This book provides a rich and full analysis of female Swahili novelists from a feminist perspective highlighting their important contributions to the living Swahili literary and intellectual tradition Compared to the diverse and centuries old oral literature or religious philosophical poetry tradition developing since at least the 17th century the novel is a relatively young phenomenon in the rich body of Swahili literary output emerging only in the last hundred years Since then academia has focused primarily on male novelists largely disregarding important female writers such as Ndyanao Balisidya Zainab Burhani Martha Mvungi Mlangala Zainab Mwanga Lucy Nyasulu and Zainab Alwi Baharoon This book traces the evolution of women s writing in Tanzania highlighting emancipatory and feminist discourses as well as intersectional themes of class education and urbanisation The author demonstrates how concepts such as utu the essence of humanity aibu shame disgrace and heshima honor social respectability are used in the novels to articulate the value systems and social norms in Swahili communities including the gendered perceptions of women that they create Grounded throughout in the historical and socio political contexts of the authors it discusses this book will be an important read for researchers of African literature and women s studies

Elements of African Bioethics in a Western Frame B. Tangwa, 2010-11-01 For millennia Africans have lived on the African continent in close contact with the diversities of nature floral faunal and human and in so doing they have developed cultures values attitudes and perspectives to the problems ethical and otherwise that have arisen from the existential pressures of their situation The problem however is that such values and perspectives do not necessarily form coherent ethical theories Theory making is a second order activity requiring a certain amount of leisure and comfort which the existential conditions of life on the African continent have not easily permitted in the retrospect able past The elements of African bioethics are to be found in its cultural values traditions customs and practices These are research able highlight able and usable by those who would The bioethical problems of our current global existential situation are such that all possible solutions no matter their provenance ought to be tried Western culture has far too loud a voice combined with deaf ears in contemporary ethical discourse But it should never be forgotten that other cultures have their own word to say and that alternative values ways of thinking and practices exist and attempt should always be made to bring these out and to highlight them if they could possibly contribute to the satisfactory solution of a global problem This book brings together various papers on bioethical issues and problems written at different times some previously published each of which attempts to bring out some African elements perspective or concern The African narrative style predominates through these essays but their framing conforms more or less to the Western paradigm for presenting academic issues

The African Palimpsest Chantal J. Zabus, 2007 Uniting a sense of the political dimensions of language appropriation with a serious yet accessible linguistic terminology The African Palimpsest examines the strategies of indigenization whereby West African writers have made their literary English or French distinctively African Through the apt metaphor of the palimpsest a surface that has been written on written over partially erased and written over again the book examines such well known West African writers as Achebe Armah Ekwensi Kourouma Okara Saro Wiwa Soyinka and Tutuola as well as lesser known writers from francophone and anglophone Africa Providing a great variety of case studies in Nigerian Pidgin Akan Igbo Maninka Yoruba Wolof and other African languages the book also clarifies the vital interface between Europhone African writing and the new outlets for African artistic expression in auto translation broadcast television radio and film Hailed as a classic in the 1990s The African Palimpsest is here reprinted in a completely revised edition with a new Introduction updated data and bibliography and with due consideration of more recent theoretical approaches A very valuable book a detailed exploration in its concern with language change as demonstrated in post colonial African literatures Bill Ashcroft University of New South Wales Apart from its great documentary value The African Palimpsest provides many theoretical concepts that will be useful to scholars of African literatures linguists in general as well as comparatists who want to gain fresh insights into the processes by which Vulgar Latin once gave birth to the Romance languages Ahmed Sheikh Bangura University of California Santa Barbara As Zabus book suggests it is the area where the various languages of a community meet and cross over that is likely to provide the most productive site for the generation of a new literature that is true to the real linguistic situation that pertains in so much of contemporary urban Africa Stewart Brown University of Birmingham Bulletin of Selected Books, 1991 The African Philosophy Reader P.H. Coetzee, A.P.J. Roux, 2004-03 Divided into eight sections each with introductory essays the selections offer rich and detailed insights into a diverse multinational philosophical landscape Revealed in this pathbreaking work is the way in which traditional philosophical issues related to ethics metaphysics and epistemology for instance take on specific forms in Africa's postcolonial struggles Much of its moral political and social philosophy is concerned with the turbulent processes of embracing modern identities while protecting ancient cultures Communication and Women's Friendships Janet Doubler Ward, JoAnna Stephens Mink, 1993 Eleven contributed essays discuss a variety of literary texts against a background of the historical and cultural aspects of women's friendships The listings of works cited and primary works discussed do not adequately substitute for an index Paper edition unseen 15 95 Annotation copyright by Book News Inc Portland OR

Fortress Commentary on the Bible set Gale A. Yee, Cynthia Briggs Kittredge, David A. Sanchez, Hugh R. Page Jr., Margaret Aymer, Matthew J. M. Coomber, 2015-06-02 The Fortress Commentary on the Bible The Old Testament and Apocrypha and Fortress Commentary on the Bible The New Testament present a balanced synthesis of current scholarship on the Bible enabling readers to interpret scripture for a complex and pluralistic world Introductory articles in each volume discuss the dramatic challenges that have shaped contemporary interpretation of the Bible Commentary articles set each book of the Old and New Testaments and the Apocrypha in its historical and cultural context discuss the themes in each book that have proven most important for the Christian interpretive tradition and introduce the most pressing questions facing the responsible use of the Bible today The writers are renowned authorities in the historical interpretation of the Old and New Testaments sensitive to theological and cultural issues arising in our encounter with the text richly diverse in social locations and vantage points representing a broad array of theological commitment Protestants Catholics Jews and others and alive to the ethical consequences of interpretation today A team of six scholar editors and seventy contributors provides clear and concise commentary on key sense units in each book of the Old Testament Apocrypha and New Testament Each unit is explored through the lenses of three levels of commentary based on these critical questions The result is a commentary that is comprehensive and useful for gaining insights on the texts for preaching teaching and research In addition to the commentary essays on each book the volumes also contain major essays that introduce each section of Scripture and explore critical questions as well as up to date and comprehensive bibliographies for each book and essay Reconstructing Womanhood, Reconstructing Feminism Delia Jarrett-Macauley, 2005-08-04 Reconstructing Womanhood Reconstructing Feminism is the first British feminist anthology to examine concepts of womanhood and feminism within the context of race and ethnicity Challenging contemporary feminist theory the book highlights ways in which constructions of womanhood have traditionally excluded black women s experience and proposes a reconsideration of terms such as feminist The research subjects and methods of many of the contributors have been shaped by the specifics of the Black British experience and context The collection brings together various ideas about difference and identity It covers a wide range of social and cultural issues including the position of black women in the church lesbian identity in film contemporary African feminism and British immigration law ALA Bulletin African Literature Association,1992 African Literatures in English
