The Dynamics of International Criminal Justice Hirad Abtahi, Gideon Boas, Richard May (LL. B.), 2006 This book is dedicated to the memory of Sir Richard May who passed away on 1 July 2004 and to the rich legacy he has left behind in the area of international criminal law It contains in depth analyses of a range of issues critical to the development and understanding of international criminal law written by contributors who worked in some way with Sir Richard during his tenure at the ICTY particularly during his last years as Presiding Judge of the Milosević Trial It contains a Foreword by the President of the ICTY Theodor Meron and substantive work in three main parts one chapter concerning the development and understanding of human rights five chapters addressing international criminal law issues in the context of ICTY proceedings and two chapters focusing on substantive aspects of international criminal law All the chapters analyse international criminal law as applied by the ICTY as well as the ICC ICTR and other international or hybrid criminal tribunals and are all authored by persons in a position to give great insight into the subject matter discussed International Criminal Law

Developments in the Case Law of the ICTY Gideon Boas, William Schabas, 2003-12-01 At the dawn of the International Criminal Court the rich experience of the ad hoc International Criminal Tribunal for the former Yugoslavia ICTY will prove to be the primary source of legal authorities for many years The creation of the ICTY in 1993 heralded a new found willingness of the international community to bring to book perpetrators of war crimes and gross or systematic violations of human rights Written by academics and practitioners and notably many insiders at the ICTY this volume focuses particularly on the international and criminal law developments that have taken place in the practice and procedure of the Tribunal Throughout are threads concerning the development and application of international criminal law not only by the ICTY but also by the ad hoc International Criminal Tribunal for Rwanda and the new International Criminal Court

Nile into Tiber: Egypt in the Roman World Laurent Bricault, Miguel John Versluys, Paul G.P. Meyboom, 2006-12-01 Interest in all kinds of interactions between Egypt and Rome has grown considerably over the last decade This debate has not only altered our views on the impact of Rome on Alexandria and Egypt but also strongly put to the fore the reverse direction of this cultural interaction Egyptian influences on the Roman world It is this topic Egypt in the Roman World that was central to the IIIrd International Conference of Isis Studies held in Leiden in May 2005 This book a selection of the papers delivered at the conference gives a clear overview of the debate as it has developed in recent years In two parts I Interpretations of the meaning of Aegyptiaca Romana and II Understanding the cults of Isis in their local context preceded by a general introduction it offers a broad perspective on the various aspects of cultural interaction between Egypt and Rome also by bringing together different research traditions in this field

Crime, Victims and Justice Marijke Malsch, 2017-03-02 Victims of crime are still marginalized in criminal law practice even though an increasingly large number of legislatures have introduced reforms on their behalf This collection of papers from some of the leading experts in the field sets out to provide a better understanding of the problems associated with restorative justice with the aim of improving criminal law in the area Questions asked include whether retribution may be plausibly reinterpreted as restoration by offenders on behalf of victims the relationship between criminal law and tort law and issues relating to the rights of victims
