Listen Africans! a Revolution Is Coming Emma Samuel Etuk, 2011-01-20 Etuk has been indefatigable in his profound determination for African revolution as admonished not only in this piece but also in his other works Adams O Adah Founder of Impart Africa author of Service As Africa begins her journey into the twenty first century the citizens ask how can we survive In Listen Africans A Revolution is Coming author Emma Samuel Etuk addresses the question of revolutionary fundamental change to the basic fabric of society and its historical manifestations Through thorough research Etuk presents strong arguments about the need for change in the social political economic and religious life of Africans He contends that an array of issues has brought the continent to this point including broken promises by administrators and governments poverty and widespread hunger angry youth and unemployment official corruption insensitivity and kleptocracy tyranny despotism and dictatorships state sponsored terrorism infrastructural decay and environmental pollution As Etuk uses these examples and makes a call for a revolution he provides a backdrop by discussing the following Origin of revolutions Necessity for an African revolution Theological basis for a revolution Five kinds of revolutions Lessons learned from the six major revolutions of the past Preparation for a revolution Etuk maintains that change is necessary in life and that it is up to the Africans to decide what kind of revolution they should adopt in order to affect change on their continent

The Pitfalls of Liberal Democracy and Late Nationalism in South Africa M. Muiu, 2008-12-08 This book compares African and Afrikaner nationalisms to demonstrate that the transition from apartheid to liberal democracy in South Africa was a neo colonial settlement that left the economy and the military and security sectors under the control of the white minority while increasing wide socioeconomic disparities between rich and poor

The 4IR and the Humanities in South Africa Bhaso Ndzendze, Asheel Singh, Suzall Timm, 2024-05-28 The world is at a crossroads because of industrial change compounded by a global pandemic Humanities and social science education is grappling with the meaning of this change to the effect that there have been some anxieties and misguided perceptions about the irrelevance of the humanities in this emerging new world With the emergence of new technologies this book highlights the indispensable centrality of humanity and the humanities going forward The book will provide a reference point for new and innovative approaches to the humanities in the 4IR in South Africa and Africa Its diverse content means that it will be useful across the humanities and social science spectrum

Contemporary Social Issues in Africa Mokong Simon Mapadimeng, Sultan Khan, 2010 This volume comprises of incisive and perceptive essays that analyse social issues in contemporary post colonial and post apartheid Africa using cases in three African cities Durban in South Africa Gaborone in Botswana and Kampala in Uganda It is an outcome of collaboration by colleagues from Universities of Kwazulu Natal Makerere Botswana and Dar es Salaam to establish a structured collaborative scholarly partnership programme The partnership is called Rethinking Africa Programme which is consistent with the 21st century ideals of Africa's renewal Its key objective is to re think Africa through academic and research initiatives sensitive to our own experiences as Africans as well as through a critical revisiting of western based social sciences in order to build new analytical models and concepts that capture processes and dynamics that derive from African experiences It thus has as its related aim to counter the proliferation of texts by western scholars on African social issues which dominate lecture rooms and libraries as teaching and learning resources in African universities It is hoped that this volume will encourage future partnerships on research and teaching of contemporary African social issues amongst African scholars within the continent Further it should serve as a teaching and training resource for academic programmes with strong focus on social issues in Africa today

Revolution, Counterrevolution and Assassination After World War II Robert C. Cottrell, 2024-12-13 In response to the upheavals engendered by World War II revolutions broke out or loomed throughout the world Nationalist aspirations proved global in nature ironically empowered by the Cold War In Asia the Middle East Latin America and Africa revolutions and counterrevolutions proliferated and similar disruptions threatened to unfold in Europe and North America Social upheavals began to occur in Vietnam Mandatory Palestine China Algeria Ghana and Cuba Conservative and reactionary forces frequently pushed back quashing hopeful developments like the Guatemalan Spring the Hungarian Revolution and the Prague Spring while also readily resorting to the murder of leading progressive figures from Gandhi to Navalny The second volume of this detailed history explores the rippling effects of World War II across the globe including countries experiencing colonial or neocolonial relationships This book examines the interplay between modern revolutionary movements and campaigns seeking to prevent such movements or to reestablish a history and time that never really existed It also traces the deadly resort to politically motivated killings which cut short the lives of so many distinguished sometimes beloved figures whose loss is still felt decades later

South Africa Pushed to the Limit Hein Marais, 2013-07-04 Since 1994 the democratic government in South Africa has worked hard at improving the lives of the black majority yet close to half the population lives in poverty jobs are scarce and the country is more unequal than ever For millions the colour of people's skin still decides their destiny In his wide ranging incisive and provocative analysis Hein Marais shows that although the legacies of apartheid and colonialism weigh heavy many of the strategic choices made since the early 1990s have compounded those handicaps Marais explains

why those choices were made where they went awry and why South Africa's vaunted formations of the left old and new have failed to prevent or alter them From the real reasons behind President Jacob Zuma's rise and the purging of his predecessor Thabo Mbeki to a devastating critique of the country's continuing AIDS crisis its economic path and its approach to the rights and entitlements of citizens South Africa Pushed to the Limit presents a riveting benchmark analysis of the incomplete journey beyond apartheid

The Agrarian Question in South Africa Henry Bernstein, 2014-01-21 This is the first collection of its kind It presents a critical political economy of the agrarian question in post apartheid South Africa informed by the results of research undertaken since the transition from apartheid started in 1990 The articles by well known South African British and American scholars cover a variety of topical theoretical empirical and policy issues firmly rooted in an historical perspective

Civil Resistance and Conflict Transformation Véronique Dudouet, 2014-09-15 Investigates the decision making process rationale and determining factors which underlie strategic shifts from armed to nonviolent strategies of resistance Draws on a wide range of case studies from Western Sahara Egypt Palestine Nepal West Papua South Africa Mexico Chiapas and Colombia Will be of much interest to students of non violence peace and conflict studies political sociology security studies and IR in general

People Power in an Era of Global Crisis Barry K. Gills, Kevin Gray, 2013-10-31 A quarter of a century has now passed since the historic popular uprising that led to the overthrow of the Ferdinand Marcos dictatorship in the Philippines The mass movement known as the People Power Revolution was not only pivotal to the democratic transition within the Philippines but it also became an inspiration for subsequent mass movements leading to further democratic transitions throughout the Third World and in the former Communist bloc in Eastern Europe and the Soviet Union However the neoliberal economic policies subsequently pursued by newly democratic governments throughout the Third World led all but the most celebratory observers to note the constrained and limited nature of these formal political transitions This volume poses the question of the extent to which people power has been able to play an active role resisting neoliberalism and deepen substantive democracy and social justice Through a series of case studies of the regions and individual countries of Asia Africa Latin America and Eastern Europe the contributions in the volume provide a new set of original and in depth critical assessments of the nature of the longer term impact of the democratic transitions commencing in the 1980s and continuing until the present and questioning their impact and potential influence on human dignity freedom justice and self determination and thus opening new avenues of enquiry into the future of democracy This book was originally published as a special issue of Third World Quarterly

Proceedings of the Institution of Electrical Engineers Institution of Electrical Engineers, 1928 Vols for 1970-79 include an annual special issue called IEE reviews
