AIDS/HIV Infection: 1992-1993, 1994 Women, Activism and Apartheid South Africa Bev Orton, 2018-10-05 This book investigates women's political activism and conflict in the struggle against apartheid in South Africa using play texts alongside interviews with female playwrights and women who worked within the theatre to examine issues around domestic violence racial abuse and women in detention without trial AIDS Ronald Nicolson, 1995 ThirdWay, 1996-05 Monthly current affairs magazine from a Christian perspective with a focus on politics society economics and culture South African Journal of Science, 1925 Human Rights Theories and Practices Lalaine A. Sadiwa, 1997 Southern Africa: Prospects for Peace and Security International Peace Academy, 2024-10-28 Women, Politics and Performance in South African Theatre Today Lizbeth Goodman, 2012-10-02 First published in 1999 Women Politics and Performance in South African Theatre Today is an important contribution to Performance African Studies Abstracts, 1996 Afrocentric Approaches to Community Development in the 21st Century Ndwakhulu Tshishonga, Eve D. Mafema, 2025-06-22 This collection of chapters takes a departure from western prescripts to community development It sheds light on adopting tested and tried Afrocentric methods to community development The book draws lessons from African methods of communal unity for the common good It gives details of African models of community development and how they were used before modernisation The book also provides an overview of how these models are essential for governments to incorporate them into their development models The importance of this book thus lies in the fact that it focuses on traditional African models of community development to enhance government led models Afrocentric theories models are applied in the hope that policymakers academics and practitioners will find arguments and conclusions of the book useful for better policy formulation to reduce poverty and unemployment The Right to Equality in European Human Rights Law Charilaos Nikolaidis, 2014-07-25 A right to equality and non discrimination is widely seen as fundamental in democratic legal systems But failure to identify the human interest that equality aims to uphold reinforces the argument of those who attack it as morally empty or unsubstantiated and weakens its status as a fundamental human right This book argues that an understanding of the human interest which equality aims to uphold is feasible within the jurisprudence of the European Court of Human Rights ECtHR and the European Court of Justice ECJ In comparing the evolution of the prohibition of discrimination in the case law of both Courts Charilaos Nikolaidis demonstrates that conceptual convergence within the European Convention on Human Rights ECHR and the EU on the issue of equality is not as far as it might appear initially While the two bodies of equality law are extremely divergent as to the requirements they impose their interpretation by the international judiciary might be properly analysed under a common light to emphasise the substantive dimension of equality in European Human Rights law The book will be of great use and interest to scholars and students of human rights discrimination law and European politics Journal National Cancer Institute (U.S.), 1960 Perspectives on Human
