Tortuous Evolution Of South Asian Regional Cooperation, The: Bangladesh's Travails For Sub-regional Cooperation Ambassador Tariq Karim, 2024-08-16 The dramatic shift of the Indian subcontinent once highly integrated for a millennium until its Partition in 1947 into one of the world s least integrated regions raises questions about this swift transformation The formation of the South Asian Association for Regional Cooperation SAARC by the newly partitioned states

aimed at fostering collaboration. However, initial efforts proved futile, prompting a comparison with the successful dynamics of the European Union (EU) and the Association of Southeast Asian Nations (ASEAN). Drawing on his experience in the Bangladesh foreign ministry and as a World Bank consultant, Ambassador Tariq Karim's book provides insights into South Asian regional cooperation. It traverses history, analyses cooperation models, examines various dimensions of collaboration, and envisions extending sub-regional cooperation to the broader Bay of Bengal region. Ambassador Karim's narrative highlights contrasts between SAARC's challenges and the achievements of the EU and ASEAN, emphasising key factors that differentiate successful regional initiatives. This book not only serves as a documentation of historical shifts but also envisages a future where the Indian subcontinent and its neighbouring regions embrace enhanced collaboration for mutual benefit. India, Europe and Asia Rajendra K. Jain, 2021-04-01. This book examines the economic, political, and security interests of India, Europe, and the European Union towards Asia. It analyses their participation in major Asian multilateral organizations, responses to connectivity, and Brussels' differential engagement of China and India. It evaluates Indian and European EU policy towards West Asia, the Iran imbroglio, the Indo-Pacific, and South Asia, Afghanistan, Myanmar, and Kashmir. It highlights the elements of convergence, divergence, and assesses the challenges and prospects of India-European cooperation in the context of a more assertive China and growing European engagement with Asia. 21st Century Cooperation Antoni Estevadeordal, Louis W. Goodman, 2017-05-18. This edited volume explains the importance of regional public goods (RPGs) for sustainable development and shows why they are particularly important in the context of 21st-century international relations. By presenting a new and original data set and by presenting original essays by renowned scholars, this book lays the foundation for what will become an increasingly important focus for both economic development and international relations, as well as for their intersection. The volume contains four parts. The first introduces the core issues and concepts that are explored throughout the book, as well as a new and original data set on RPGs. The second part further develops specific concepts important for understanding 21st-century RPGs: regional leadership, alliances, networks, and outcomes. The third examines how cooperation takes place worldwide for a range of important RPGs. Finally, the fourth part discusses how public goods are produced in specific regions, stressing that each region has a distinct context and that these contexts overlap in a decentered, multiplex manner. Global economic cooperation will be different in the 21st century, and this volume will be of interest to students and scholars of global governance, economic development, international political economy, sustainable development, and comparative regionalism. Regional Trade Integration and Conflict Resolution Shaheen Rafi Khan, 2009. Explores the linkage between trade, peace, and conflict in South America, Southern Africa, South Asia, and South East Asia. Highlights the significance of regional trade agreements for peace building between the countries. Handbook of Asian States: Part 1 LIT Verlag, 2022-11-08. This handbook presents precise yet accessible up-to-date information about the geography, history, culture, politics, and economy of 49 Asian states, ranging from Afghanistan, Bangladesh, and China to India.

Russia and Yemen The targeted readership consists primarily of scholars students teachers journalists and other mediators of political education as well as anyone interested in politics It is a basic work that contributes to comparative assessments of this hugely important and diverse region Markus Porsche Ludwig Political Scientist and Jurist is a Professor in the Department of Public Administration and in the Asia Pacific Regional Studies Ph D Program at the National Dong Hwa University Taiwan R O C Ying Yu Chen majored in International Business from her Ph D program is an Associate Professor in the Bachelor Program of Management Science and Finance at the National Dong Hwa University Taiwan R O C

Energy and Non-Traditional Security (NTS) in Asia Mely Caballero-Anthony, Youngho Chang, Nur Azha Putra, 2012-06-07

Traditional notions of security are premised on the primacy of state security In relation to energy security traditional policy thinking has focused on ensuring supply without much emphasis on socioeconomic and environmental impacts Non traditional security NTS scholars argue that threats to human security have become increasingly prominent since the end of the Cold War and that it is thus critical to adopt a holistic and multidisciplinary approach in addressing rising energy needs This volume represents the perspectives of scholars from across Asia looking at diverse aspects of energy security through a non traditional security lens The issues covered include environmental and socioeconomic impacts the role of the market the role of civil society energy sustainability and policy trends in the ASEAN region

India's Foreign Policy and Regional Multilateralism Arndt Michael, 2013-02-07 The book provides a novel analytical perspective on regional multilateralism in South Asia and its neighbouring regions and covers the genesis evolution and status quo of the four major regional organizations

The Political Economy of Asian Regionalism Giovanni Capannelli, Masahiro Kawai, 2014-01-23 This book contributes to the theoretical and empirical literature on Asian regionalism with a focus on the innovations needed to reform the current institutional architecture in Asia After reviewing the key issues and challenges related to the political economy of Asia s economic cooperation and integration the book discusses various aspects of regionalism from political and economic perspectives It looks at the rationale for regional collective action and reviews the trend of economic integration with a focus on the implications of the global financial crisis In addition to reviewing the key issues related to the development of regional institutions for integration the book analyzes issues such as trade and finance and deals with the implications of regionalism in terms of the introduction of domestic reforms in Asian countries before discussing the possible formation of a region wide economic community The eight chapters of the book are based on respective papers initially prepared for the Asian Development Bank Institute Conference 2010

Global Politics of Regionalism Mary Farrell, Björn Hettne, Luk Van Langenhove, 2005-08-20 This book explores the phenomenon of regionalism In a seeming contradiction to globalization there is a growing tendency for countries to enter into regional arrangements as a response to the pressures of operating in a global marketplace But regionalism is also emerging as a phenomenon in its own right serving distinct purposes and taking different forms in different areas The contributors explore how these patterns impact on wider issues such as global governance democracy and trade The book reviews the major theoretical approaches to regional cooperation including perspectives from international relations political economy economics and sociology It is divided into three main sections theoretical approaches to regionalism issues of regional cooperation such as security monetary issues identity and integration and an exploration of specific case studies including the Middle East Africa the Americas China Europe Asia and the Pacific With an international range of contributors including Bjorn Hettne Louise Fawcett and Andrew Hurrell this in depth and multi disciplinary guide will be of interest to students across the social sciences and to the wider policy community

China's Belt and Road Initiative Pradumna B. Rana,Xianbai Ji,2020-07-30 The Belt and Road Initiative BRI officially unveiled in 2013 is Chinese President Xi Jinping s signature foreign and economic policy initiative to achieve improved connectivity regional cooperation and economic development on a trans continental scale This book reviews the evolving BRI vision and offers a benefit risk assessment of the BRI s economic and geopolitical implications from the perspective of Asian stakeholder countries using both qualitative and quantitative research methods Among the value added of the book is first an online perception survey of opinion leaders from Asian participating countries on various aspects of the initiative To our best knowledge the survey is the first of its kind Second the book presents the simulation results of a computable general equilibrium model of the world economy to estimate the potential macroeconomic impacts of the BRI as a whole and those of its constituent overland and maritime economic corridors Third the book makes ten key evidence based policy recommendations on how to enhance the prospect of a successful and mutually beneficial BRI 2 0 to both China and stakeholder countries

Re-imagining Border Studies in South Asia Dhananjay Tripathi,2020-12-24 This book presents a radical rethinking of Border Studies Framing the discipline beyond conventional topics of spatiality and territoriality it presents a distinctly South Asian perspective a post colonial and post partition region where most borders were drawn with political motives ignoring the socio cultural realities of the region and economic necessities of the people The authors argue that while securing borders is an essential function of the state in this interconnected world crossing borders and border cooperation is also necessary The book examines contemporaneous and topical themes like disputes of identity and nationhood the impact of social media on Border Studies trans border cooperation water sharing between countries and resolution of border problems in the age of liberalisation and globalisation It also suggests ways of enhancing cross border economic cooperation and connectivity and reviews security issues from a new perspective Well supplemented with case studies the book will serve as an indispensable text for scholars and researchers of Border Studies military and strategic studies international relations geopolitics and South Asian studies It will also be of great interest to think tanks and government agencies especially those dealing with foreign relations

The Belt and Road Initiative and the Politics of Connectivity Bhumitra Chakma,Xiudian Dai,2022-09-03 This volume analyses New Delhi s reaction to China s Belt and Road Initiative BRI and the rise of politics of connectivity and infrastructure building which has heightened Sino Indian rivalry in South Asia and the Indian Ocean Region IOR It can be evidenced that the BRI has transformed the Sino Indian dynamics from a managed rivalry to an intense geo political competition It is contended that competition is inevitable when two powers rise in the same neighbourhood The Indian government has opposed the BRI since its inception noting that the BRI violates India s sovereignty and territorial integrity because one of the flagship BRI projects the China Pakistan Economic Corridor CPEC runs through Pakistan controlled Kashmir which India claims to be its own territory It has consistently maintained that China s connectivity initiatives must be based on universally recognized international norms good governance rule of law openness transparency and equality and must be pursued in a manner that respects sovereignty and territorial integrity of other states Beyond those stated reservations New Delhi is concerned about the BRI infrastructure and connectivity projects in the smaller South Asian countries and the Indian Ocean littoral states India has traditionally viewed South Asia and the IOR as its backyard over which it has historically maintained a position of influence It is apprehensive that the BRI projects will enhance Beijing s stature and undermine India s influence in the region In eleven chapters including Introduction and Conclusion this book explores the dimensions of the rivalry and analyses the causes dynamics and implications of an accelerated Sino Indian competition Regionalism and Regional Security in South Asia Zahid Shahab Ahmed,2016-04-08 Zahid Shahab Ahmed evaluates the progress of the South Asian Association for Regional Cooperation SAARC This study goes beyond economic integration to present a detailed appraisal of cooperation under the overarching themes of economic cooperation environmental security human welfare and cooperation in security matters According to the author SAARC is making progress in addressing the myriad of issues on its agenda The transition from agreements to actions and frequent interactions among the member states has boosted confidence The progress of SAARC is more evident in the less controversial areas of human security such as poverty alleviation health and safety human resources development and higher education Notwithstanding enthusiastic commitments reflected in agreements and action plans there is a gulf between rhetoric and implementation most notably in sensitive areas relating to traditional security In the light of the findings of this study the author proposes that greater cooperation in common human security areas has a potential to pave the way for a cooperation on issues of a contentious nature particularly terrorism The Challenge of Confidence-building Measures in South Asia Moonis Ahmar,2001 This Book Is A Most Timely And Welcome Addition To The Growing Body Of Literature On Cbms In South Asia It Provides Reasons For Hope As There Are Many Reasons To Be Dispirited About The Absence Of Proper Confidence Building Measures In South Asia Managing Regional Energy Vulnerabilities in East Asia Daojiong Zha,2013-08-29 This book examines East Asia s inter state collaborative energy projects to address energy vulnerability It focuses on projects that have demonstrated effectiveness in addressing vulnerabilities faced by the ten states of the Association of Southeast Asian Nations and China Japan and South Korea in Northeast Asia Including case studies on uncertainties in external sources of oil and gas supply maritime piracy continuation of energy poverty and geographical barriers to cross border electricity interconnection expert contributors highlight how collaborative energy projects have been more successful than the traditional state rivalry in energy related issues The book develops the framework of energy vulnerability avoiding usual securitization approaches instead examining non traditional security conceptualizations in studying energy policies to examine how issue specific cooperation efforts between states arise and develop Using East Asia as a starting point contributors introduce a framework that advances the study of international energy cooperation Managing Regional Energy Vulnerabilities in East Asia will be of interest to students and scholars of Asian studies sociology development studies and international political economy particularly the political economy of East Asia energy and development studies regional and global governance of energy and the environmental economics
