South Wales Collieries:

Collieries of South Wales John Cornwell, 2003-11-06 This volume portrays bygone collieries with photographs on the surface and underground of an industry now virtually non-existent and just a memory Coalfields & Collieries of Australia Frederick Danvers Power, 1912 International mining and metallurgical manual, 1925 The Colliery Manager's Handbook Caleb Pamely, 1891 Miners' Lung Arthur McIvor, Ronald Johnston, 2007 Arthur McIvor and Ronald Johnston explore the experience of coal miners lung diseases and the attempts at voluntary and legal control of dusty conditions in British mining from the late nineteenth century to the present. In this way the book addresses the important issues of occupational health and safety within the mining industry issues that have been severely neglected in studies of health and safety in general. The authors examine the prevalent diseases notably pneumoconiosis emphysema and bronchitis and evaluate the roles of key players such as the doctors management and employers the state and the trade unions. Throughout the book the integration of oral testimony helps to elucidate the attitudes of workers and victims of disease their machismo work culture and socialisation to very high levels of risk on the job as well as how and why ideas and health mentalities changed over time. This research taken together with extensive archive material provides a unique perspective on the nature of work industrial relations the meaning of masculinity in the workplace and the wider social impact of industrial disease disability and death. The effects of contracting dust disease are shown to result invariably in seriously prescribed lifestyles and encroaching isolation. The book will appeal to those working on the history of medicine industrial relations social history and business history as well as labour history Report on Cooperation in American Export Trade: Exhibits United States. Federal Trade Commission, 1916 Report on Cooperation in American Export Trade United States. Federal Trade Commission, 1916 Parliamentary Debates; Official Report[s] Great Britain. Parliament. House of Commons, 1920 The Politics of Contested Narratives Ilse Lazaroms, Emily Gioielli, 2016-03-17 The twentieth century in Europe was characterized by great moments of rupture such as two world wars ideological conflict and political polarization. In these processes as well as in the historical writing that followed in its wake the individual as an historical entity often appeared crushed. In line with contemporary theories about the precariousness of historical writing and the self this volume seeks to understand the important developments in modern Europe from the perspective of the single sometimes isolated but always original viewpoint of individuals inhabiting the space at the other side of the traditional grand narratives. Including theoretical chapters as well as detailed case studies this volume takes a biographical approach to dystopian events the Holocaust Fascism Communism and collectivization by starting with the voices of unknown historical actors and relating their experiences to larger processes in modern European history such as the emergence of the national collective memory and state formation as well as changes in the understanding of modern identities and the re-formulation of the self. This book was originally published as a special issue of the European Review of History First and Final Report[s] of the Royal
