Through use of private and public archives, images produced by African itinerant photographers, white settlers, and colonial state institutions, this book explores the relationship between photography and history in colonial Southern Africa. Late nineteenth-century Cape Colonial prison albums, police photographs from German Southwest Africa, African studio portraits, identity documents, travel permits, and passports from the 1920s and 1930s, visual studies of whiteness and blackness authored by settler photographers, South African domestic photographs from the 1950s and 1960s, and aerial photography from the Eastern Cape in the mid-twentieth century are examined to highlight the ways in which photographic images cut across conventional institutional boundaries and complicate rigid distinctions between the private and the public, the political and the aesthetic, the colonial and the vernacular, or the subject and the object. Photography and History in Colonial Southern Africa argues that rather than understanding photographs as a means of preserving and recreating the past in the present, we can value them for how they evoke at once the need for and the limits of historical reconstruction. This book will be of interest to students and scholars of colonial history, photographic history, visual media, and African studies. Handbook of Algal Biofuels Mostafa El-Sheekh, Abd El-Fatah Abomohra, 2021-12-02 Handbook of Algal Biofuels Aspects of Cultivation, Conversion, and Biorefinery comprehensively covers the cultivation, harvesting,
