South Africa And The Demands For Change:

South Africa and the Demands for Change Cas De Villiers,1977 The U.S. and South Africa Chester A. Crocker,1985 The Geopolitics Of Southern Africa Kent H Butts,Paul R Thomas,2019-07-09 South Africa is the dominant force in an area that is of increasing strategic importance to the West yet few studies address the geopolitical pressures that dictate the course of events there Analyzing South Africa s base of power the authors argue that because South Africa s relationships with other states in Southern Africa are asymmetrical in nature the country has substantial economic and political leverage in the region Control of Southern Africa s transport infrastructure and the ability to project a conventional or surrogate military presence throughout the region for example gives South Africa the power to affect the economic and political stability of virtually all regional states Asymmetry also characterizes relationships at the global level Because the West depends upon South Africa for access to the region s strategic minerals for the security of the Cape oil route and for the country s ability to counterbalance the Soviet presence in Southern Africa South Africa exercises considerable influence over the African foreign policies of the superpowers Focusing on the major geopolitical variables affecting South Africa s ability to sustain power the authors analyze the economic and geographic factors that contribute to asymmetrical relationships and examine the pluralism that divides South African society Pretoria s successful foreign policy which has created a security corridor of new buffer states is given particular emphasis In addition the authors provide a detailed analysis of South Africa s minerals based economy and discuss the implications for regional stability of economic sanctions against South Africa Finally they outline a policy framework that takes regional economic political and geographic realities into account South Africa's Future A. Ginsberg,1998-11-25 Unemployment is growing Crime is on the increase The currency has fallen The initial euphoria following South Africa s transition to democracy is waning as people become disillusioned with the state of the economy and government s lack of delivery on policies and promises Where does South Africa go from here It is not all doom and gloom and there is hope for the future Anthony Ginsberg offers solutions to the fundamental problem of rising unemployment crime homelessness and poverty all exacerbated by high taxes draconian tariffs and stagnant foreign investment He encourages us to become informed and aware before we criticise This book is aimed at everyone interested in contributing to South Africa s future as a prosperous nation in the benefit of all her citizens

Esser,2015-08-20 Climate change and global warming are highly affecting the cultivation conditions worldwide This bachelor thesis analyses the global warming related changes on the global green coffee market especially for C arabica to derivate approaches for German coffee producers to adapt their procurement strategies In this context this thesis forecasts the worldwide supply and demand for C arabica for the year 2050 which shows a large gap between C arabica supply and demand in 2050 and presents a limited number of approaches for German coffee producers to reduce the impacts of the climate change and to secure the C arabica supply This thesis shows that German coffee producers need to act and proposes how this could be realised This bachelor thesis was submitted at Osnabr ck University of Applied Sciences in 2015 under the title Analysis of the climate change related changes on the global green coffee market for the derivation of procurement strategy alternatives of German coffee producers Human Rights, State Compliance, and Social Change Ryan

Goodman,Thomas Pegram,2011-11-14 National Human Rights Institutions NHRIs human rights commissions and ombudsmen have gained recognition as a possible missing link in the transmission and implementation of international human rights norms at the domestic level They are also increasingly accepted as important participants in global and regional forums where international norms are produced By collecting innovative work from experts spanning international law political science sociology and human rights practice this book critically examines the significance of this relatively new class of organizations It focuses in particular on the prospects of these institutions to effectuate state compliance and social change Consideration is given to the role of NHRIs in delegitimizing though sometimes legitimizing governments poor human rights records and in mobilizing though sometimes demobilizing civil society actors The volume underscores the broader implications of such cross cutting research for scholarship and practice in the fields of human rights and global affairs in general Educational Reform and the Transformation of Southern Africa Dickson Mungazi,L. K. Walker,1997-06-18

The political social and economic problems of southern Africa cannot be resolved until nations of this critical region effect educational reform But this process requires more than change in the educational system it involves the thrust for social transformation in national institutions This unique study addresses key issues relative to both educational reform and social change in southern Africa Topics discussed include the need for educational reform approaches to educational reform and the results of such reform on the individual and society A bibliography and an index complete the text SADC Gender Protocol 2013 Barometer ,2013-09-25 In August 2008 Heads of State of the Southern African Development Community adopted the ground breaking SADC Protocol on Gender and Development This followed a concerted campaign by NGOs under the umbrella of the Southern Africa Gender Protocol Alliance By the 2013 Heads of State summit 13 countries had signed and 12 countries had ratified the SADC Gender Protocol The Protocol is now in force With two years to go time is ticking to 2015 when governments need to have achieved 28 targets for the attainment of gender equality In keeping with the Alliance slogan Yes we must this 2013 Barometer provides a wealth of updated data against which progress will be measured by all those who cherish democracy in the region The SADC Gender and Development Index SGDI introduced in 2011 complements the Citizen Score Card CSC that has been running for five years to benchmark progress

Multiple Modernities and Postsecular Societies Kristina Stoeckl, 2016-04-15 Engaging with the idea that the world reveals not one but many routes to modernity this volume explores the role of religion in the emergence of multiple forms of modernity which evolve according to specific cultural conditions and interpretations of the modern project It draws upon case study material from Africa The Middle East Russia and South America to examine the question of whether modernity democracy and secularism are universalistic concepts or are on the contrary unique to Western civilization whilst considering the relationship of postsecularism to the varied paths of modern development Drawing together work from leading social theorists this critical theoretical contribution to current debates will appeal to sociologists social theorists and political scientists with interests in religion secularization and postsecularization theory and transitions to modernity in the contemporary globalized world
