The Truth about Crime Jean Comaroff, John L. Comaroff, 2016-12-05 This new book by the well known anthropologists Jean and John L Comaroff explores the global preoccupation with criminality in the early twenty first century a preoccupation strikingly disproportionate in most places and for most people to the risks posed by lawlessness to the conduct of everyday life Ours in an epoch in which law making law breaking and law enforcement are ever more critical registers in which societies construct contest and confront truths about themselves an epoch in which criminology broadly defined has displaced sociology as the privileged means by which the social world knows itself They also argue that as the result of a tectonic shift in the triangulation of capital the state and governance the meanings attached to crime and with it the nature of policing have undergone significant change also that there has been a palpable muddying of the lines between legality and illegality between corruption and conventional business even between crime and policing which exist nowadays in ever greater hyphenated complicity Thinking through Crime and Policing is therefore an excursion into the contemporary Order of Things or rather into the metaphysic of disorder that saturates the late modern world indeed has become its leitmotif It is also a meditation on sovereignty and citizenship on civility class and race on the law and its transgression on the political economy of representation making the existing structures work and ensuring compliance with the norms already accepted by African societies Access to the relevant material constitutes a necessary precondition for any other gains in this field The aim of this reference work is therefore to make African human rights law accessible to all those involved in or interested in human rights law on the continent in order to strengthen its impact Primary documents are introduced and reproduced and presented in a coherent framework The main institutions public and private dealing with human rights in Africa are identified and discussed Comprehensive overviews of the international human rights legal regimes applicable to Africa as well as country reports are provided Access to this body of law will enable judges practicing lawyers academics and other researchers as well as law reformers NGOs activists and students to both ascertain and assert these rights It will also serve to ensure the development of a stronger indigenous African human rights jurisprudence rooted in local experience history culture and practices This book consequently tries to contribute towards documenting systemising and anchoring the African human rights system This publication replaces and updates the earlier Human Rights Law in Africa Series which appeared on an annual basis from 1996 to 1999 In order to make the publication accessible in Africa the Centre for Human Rights and the Raoul Wallenberg Institute in Sweden have undertaken a targeted distribution campaign on the continent The print edition is available as a set of two volumes 9789004138810
