South Eastern Europe The Main Problem Of:

Transport Issues and Problems in Southeastern Europe Caralampo Focas, 2017-11-22 The collapse of previous command economic structures in Eastern Europe has led to an often chaotic reorganization of transport operations Southeastern Europe in particular not only lags behind the western EU countries in terms of transport infrastructure but also in terms of management and policy However despite this or perhaps even because there are no long standing established patterns this region is a fertile territory for innovation Based on the first major international conference dealing with transport issues in Southeastern Europe this edited volume brings together key researchers and policy makers to discuss and critically analyse these innovations Focusing on issues related to privatization and harmonization of national legislation the contributors also address the countries struggle with inadequate management structures and the challenges posed in running shipping ports and railways in a region fragmented into numerous nations and states It not only provides an up to date overview of transport operations and planning in Southeastern Europe but also provides more general insights into recent and current developments in a region that has undergone widespread upheavals in the past two decades and is now experiencing renewed growth

South-Eastern Europe, the Main Problem of the Present World Struggle... Saviâc R, 2013-12 Unlike some other reproductions of classic texts 1 We have not used OCR Optical Character Recognition as this leads to bad quality books with introduced typos 2 In books where there are images such as portraits maps sketches etc We have endeavoured to keep the quality of these images so they represent accurately the original artefact Although occasionally there may be certain imperfections with these old texts we feel they deserve to be made available for future generations to enjoy
