Empire and Jihad Neil Faulkner, 2021-08-24 A panoramic provocative account of the clash between British imperialism and Arab jihadism in Africa between 1870 and 1920 The Ottoman Sultan called for a Great Jihad against the Entente powers at the start of the First World War He was building on half a century of conflict between British colonialism and the people of the Middle East and North Africa Resistance to Western violence increasingly took the form of radical Islamic insurgency Ranging from the forests of Central Africa to the deserts of Egypt Sudan and Somaliland Neil Faulkner explores a fatal collision between two forms of oppression one rooted in the ancient slave trade the other in modern coolie capitalism He reveals the complex interactions between anti slavery humanitarianism British hostility to embryonic Arab nationalism war on terror moral panics and Islamist revolt Far from being an enduring remnant of the medieval past or an essential expression of Muslim identity Faulkner argues that Holy War was a reactionary response to the violence of modern imperialism

African Exploits Roy D. MacLaren, 1998-03-18 Born and raised in Halifax Nova Scotia Stairs 1863 1892 attended the Royal Military College in Kingston before being commissioned in the British army Wearied of peacetime soldiering he volunteered in 1887 to participate in Sir Henry M Stanley's final trans African expedition to rescue Emin Pasha the last of Chinese Gordon's lieutenants in the Sudan The expedition emerged almost three years later in Zanzibar a reluctant Pasha in tow having left a trail of havoc and suffering behind it Stairs promptly volunteered for a second expedition in Africa to secure Katanga for King Leopold II of the Belgians as part of the controversial Congo Free State Stairs was a cruel leader condoning decapitation and mutilation to attain colonial ends The expedition succeeded but at the price of suffering destruction and his own life Stairs died of malaria at the end of the expedition at the age of twenty eight Few diaries of the period convey better than Stairs s the nature and course of imperialist expeditions in Africa in the nineteenth century and the psychological and moral corruption caused by absolute power Stairs s diaries of the Emin Pasha Relief Expedition present a candid personal account of the long and arduous venture including a very unflattering assessment of Stanley whom Stairs described as cruel secretive and selfish The Katanga diaries written as an official company account of the expedition were intended partly to provide information useful to those intent upon exploiting the African hinterland African Exploits is the most complete published collection of Stairs s diaries with a new translation of the Katanga diaries which no longer exist in the original English Roy MacLaren s introduction and conclusion set Stairs s adventures in the colonial context of the era and analyse the psychological effects of his experiences

Colonial Geography Matthew Unangst, 2022-06-29 Colonial Geography charts changes in conceptions of the relationship between people and landscapes in mainland Tanzania during the German colonial period In German minds colonial development would depend on the relationship between East Africans and the landscape Colonial Geography argues that the most important element in German imperialism was not its violence but its attempts to apply racial thinking to the mastery and control of space Utilizing approaches drawn from critical geography the book argues that the development of a representational space of empire had serious consequences for German colonialism and the population of East Africa Colonial Geography shows how spatial thinking shaped ideas about race and empire in the period of New Imperialism
