Southeast Asia People Land And Economy:

Southeast Asia Ronald Hill, 2002 Based upon 40 years of research of Southeast Asian geography and culture and 40 years of residence in the region Professor Ron Hill has provided a comprehensive contemporary overview of the region's geography particularly emphasising its substantial economic transformation over the last several decades The author's standpoint is that geographical patterns cannot be understood without an understanding of the social and economic processes that produce those patterns At the same time he points to many aspects of the region have changed rather little and not only in terms of physical attributes Continuity and change are major themes of the book Since change has proceeded at varying rates in different parts of the region the result has been and continues to be a major increase in the diversity of an already colourful region in landscapes language religion politics and a host of other cultural characteristics The book will be accessible to the reader who knows little of the geography of Southeast Asia but remains informative and satisfyingly comprehensive to those with prior knowledge

Law of the Sea in South East Asia Donald R Rothwell, David Letts, 2019-07-19 The United Nations Convention on the Law of the Sea LOSC represents one of the most successful examples of multilateral treaty making in the modern era The convention has 168 States parties and most non signatory States recognise nearly all of its key provisions as binding under customary international law including the United States Nevertheless there remain significant differences in interpretation and implementation of the LOSC among States as well as calls on occasion for its amendment This book analyses the impact influence and ongoing role of the LOSC in South East Asia one of the most dynamic maritime regions in the world Maritime security is a critical issue within the region and it is separately assessed in light of the LOSC and contemporary challenges such as environmental security and climate change Likewise navigational rights and freedoms are a major issue and they are evaluated through the LOSC and regional state practice especially in the South China Sea Special attention is given to the role of navies and non state actors Furthermore the book looks at regional resource disputes which have a long history These disputes have the potential to increase into the future as economic interests and concerns over food security intensify Effective LNG and fisheries resource management is therefore a critical issue for the region and unless resolved could become the focal point for significant maritime disputes These dynamics within the region all require extensive exploration in order to gauge the effectiveness of LOSC dispute resolution mechanisms The Law of the Sea in South East Asia fills a gap in the existing literature by bringing together a holistic picture of contemporary maritime issues affecting the region in a single volume It will appeal to academic libraries government officials think tanks and scholars from law strategic studies and international relations disciplines

Southeast Asian Ecocriticism John Charles Ryan, 2017-11-08 Southeast Asian Ecocriticism presents a timely exploration of the rapidly expanding field of ecocriticism through its devotion to the writers creators theorists traditions concerns and landscapes of Southeast Asian countries While ecocritics have begun to turn their attention to East and South

Asian contexts and particularly to Chinese and Indian cultural productions less emphasis has been placed on the diverse environmental traditions of Southeast Asia Building on recent scholarship in Asian ecocriticism the book gives prominence to the range of theoretical models and practical approaches employed by scholars based within and located outside of the Southeast region Consisting of twelve chapters Southeast Asian Ecocriticism includes contributions on the ecological prose poetry cinema and music of Indonesia Malaysia Myanmar the Philippines Thailand and Vietnam The authors emphasize the transnational exchanges of materials technologies texts motifs and ideas between Southeast Asian countries and Australia England Taiwan Formosa and the United States From environmental hermeneutics postcolonial studies indigenous studies and ecofeminism to critical plant studies ecopoetics and ecopedagogy the edited collection embodies the dynamic breadth of interdisciplinary environmental scholarship today Southeast Asian Ecocriticism foregrounds the theories practices and prospects of ecocriticism in the region The volume opens up new directions and reveals fresh possibilities not only for ecocritical scholarship in Southeast Asia but for a comparative environmental criticism that transcends political boundaries and national canons The volume highlights the important role of literature in heightening awareness of ecological issues at local regional and global scales

Biodiversity Conservation in Southeast Asia Serge Morand, Claire Lajaunie, Rojchai Satrawaha, 2017-07-28 Southeast Asia is highly diversified in terms of socio ecosystems and biodiversity but is undergoing dramatic environmental and social changes These changes characterize the recent period and can be illustrated by the effects of the Green Revolution in the late 1960s and 1970s to the globalization of trade and increasing agronomic intensification over the past decade Biodiversity Conservation in Southeast Asia provides theoretical overviews and challenges for applied research in living resource management conservation ecology health ecology and conservation planning in Southeast Asia Five key themes are addressed origin and evolution of Southeast Asian biodiversity challenges in conservation biology ecosystem services and biodiversity managing biodiversity and living resources policy economics and governance of biodiversity Detailed case studies are included from Thailand and the Lower Mekong Basin while other chapters address cross cutting themes applicable to the whole Southeast Asia region This is a valuable resource for academics and students in the areas of ecology conservation environmental policy and management Southeast Asian studies and sustainable development

The Emergence Of Modern Southeast Asia Norman G. Owen, 2005-01-01 The modern states of Indonesia Vietnam Thailand the Philippines Myanmar Malaysia Singapore Cambodia Laos Brunei and East Timor were once a tapestry of kingdoms colonies and smaller polities linked by sporadic trade and occasional war By the end of the nineteenth century however the United States and several European powers had come to control almost the entire region only to depart dramatically in the decades following World War II perspective on this complex region Although it does not neglect nation building the central theme of its popular and long lived predecessor In Search of Southeast Asia the present work focuses on economic and social history gender and ecology It describes the long term impact of global forces on the region and traces the spread and interplay of capitalism nationalism and socialism It acknowledges that modernization has produced substantial gains in such areas as life expectancy and education but has also spread dislocation and misery Organizationally the book shifts between thematic chapters that describe social economic and cultural change and country chapters emphasizing developments within specific areas will establish a new standard for the history of this dynamic and radically transformed region of the world

The Emergence of Modern Southeast Asia

David P. Chandler, Norman G. Owen, William R. Roff, David Joel Steinberg, Jean Gelman Taylor, Robert H. Taylor, Alexander Woodside, David K.

Wyatt, 2004-11-30 A History of Early Modern Southeast Asia, 1400-1830 Barbara Watson Andaya, Leonard Y.

Andaya, 2015-02-19 Written by two experienced teachers with a long history of research this textbook provides students with a detailed overview of developments in early modern Southeast Asia when the region became tightly integrated into the world economy because of international demand for its unique forest and sea products Proceeding chronologically each chapter covers a specific time frame in which Southeast Asia is located in a global context A discussion of general features that distinguish the period under discussion is followed by a detailed account of the various sub regions Students will be shown the ways in which local societies adapted to new religious and political ideas and responded to far reaching economic changes Particular attention is given to lesser known societies that inhabited the seas the forests and the uplands and to the role of the geographical environment in shaping the region s history The authoritative yet accessible narrative features maps illustrations and timelines to support student learning A major contribution to the field this text is essential reading for students and specialists in Asian studies and early modern world history

India-ASEAN Relations

Dr. Tripti Sharma, 2021-09-11 The changes in the global environment such as the demise of the socialist system initiation of globalization the declining position of international organizations and reduction in the importance of forums like NAM have made it imperative for India to review its old foreign policy nuances For long India hardly regarded the countries of Southeast Asia and South Pacific as priority areas despite the latter s cultural political economic and strategic significance The long spell of mutual alienation understandably gave way to mutual distrust and suspicion This dark period in India s relations with the countries of Southeast Asia and South Pacific was however brought to an end following the reshaping and reorientation of India s foreign policy manifest in the vigorous pursuit of Look East policy it was Prime Minister Narasimha Rao who concentrated on forging links and enhancing cultural economic political and strategic cooperation with Southeast Asia and transformed this important urge into India s foreign policy initiative that culminated in Look East policy India s engagement with the Association of Southeast Asian Nations ASEAN started with its Look East Policy in the year 1991 ASEAN has a membership of 10 countries namely Brunei Darussalam Cambodia Indonesia Laos PDR Malaysia Myanmar Philippines Singapore Thailand and Vietnam India became a sectoral dialogue partner of ASEAN in 1992 and full dialogue partner in 1996 In November 2001 the ASEAN India relationship was upgraded to the summit level Consequently the latter had already registered impressive progress in the field of economy strategy and cultural relations between India and ASEAN

The Private Sector's Role in Poverty Reduction in Asia Scott Hipsher, 2013-01-07 The private sector has an important role in poverty reduction in Asia The Private Sector's Role in Poverty Reduction in Asia argues that the best way to create sustainable projects is to create win win situations where both private companies and individuals working their way out of poverty can benefit The book provides a practical guide for managers and individuals working in the private sector in the least developed areas of Asia to help make a difference to the lives of others The book's opening chapter considers the private sector's role in poverty reduction in Asia and following chapters discuss the variable nature of development developing economy environments in Asia and business practices and strategies in these economies A number of Asian economies are considered in turn including China Vietnam Thailand Cambodia Laos PDR Southeast Asian countries South Asian countries Central Asian countries and the Himalayas The final chapter looks at creating sustainable win win situations Focuses on practical advice for acting managers Uses primary research carried out in developing economies with interviews and ideas from local managers and business owners Covers a variety of academic theories empirical evidence and personal experiences of individuals working in the region Contract Farming and the State Sukhpal Singh, 2006 The book examines the contract farming systems in Thailand and India with focus on the role of the State in these two countries The study is based on case studies of four agri Business firms and their farmers in Northern Thailand in potato and sweet corn crops This study also attempts to look out the larger impacts of contracting on the local economy in these two countries The book will be highly useful for stake holders in contract farming policy makers academics agri business firms etc Asian Christian

Theology Timoteo D. Gener, Stephen T. Pardue, 2019-07-31 Asian Christian Theology provides a survey of contextually reflective robustly evangelical theology for students to engage with the core doctrines of Christianity and their outworking in different cultures across Asia The contributors of the chapters come from all corners of Asia to systematically examine traditional doctrinal themes and contemporary concerns for the Asian church Ideal for use as a companion textbook in Asian seminaries and institutions this book will also provide excellent further reading for those outside of Asia seeking global theological perspectives and for those in contexts of significant Asian diaspora Many excellent books surveying theology exist but this book is a major step forward for students and scholars seeking to understand the dynamic environment of evangelical theology in Asia Continuity and Change in Asia Kraus, Filip, Westlake, Renata, Šamajová, Kateřina, a kolektiv, T highly complex problem Asia is considered as one of the most dynamically changing parts of the world. The quick economic, political and socio-cultural changes are generating interesting topics in those scholarly fields such as anthropology, ethnography, linguistics and literary studies or in other fields of social, political and economic science. Especially after the years of anti-Covid 19 measures, it is important to understand what remains stable or what had been changed and may be lost forever.

Political Booms: Local Money And Power In Taiwan, East China, Thailand, And The Philippines Lynn T. White, 2009-06-10. Why have Taiwan, rich parts of China and Thailand boomed famously while the Philippines has long remained stagnant both economically and politically? Do booms abet democracy? Does the rise of middle classes promise future liberalization? Why has Philippine democracy brought no boom and barely served the Filipino people? This book, unlike most previous studies, shows that both the roots and results of growth are largely political rather than economic. Specifically, it pays attention to local, not just national, power networks that caused or prevented growth in the four places under consideration. Violence has been common in these polities along with money. Elections have contributed to socio-political problems that are also obvious in Leninist or junta regimes because elections are surprisingly easy to buy with corrupt money from government contracts. Liberals should pay more serious theoretical attention to the effects of money on justice and Western political science should focus more clearly on the ways non-state local power affects elections. By considering the effects on fair justice of local money and power largely from small and medium-sized firms that emerge after agrarian reforms, this book asks democrats to face squarely the extent to which electoral procedures fail to help ordinary citizens. Students and scholars of Asia will all need this book as will students of the West whose methods have become parochial.

Globalization, Culture and Society in Laos Boike Rehbein, 2007-08-13. The book explores current tendencies of globalization in Laos and offers a theoretical framework for their interpretation.

Continent, Coast, Ocean Ooi Kee Beng, Ding Choo Ming, 2007-05-22. Examines the dynamics of regionalism in Eastern Asia. Japan's diplomatic history as well as the heritage of its conquest of Eastern Asia is examined alongside China's cultural geography, paradigmatic dynamics and intra-regional economics. Ties between East Asia and Southeast Asia as well as the influence of American military power and European integration are also considered.

Hope for the World Roland Chia, 2012-08-14. Hope is essential to human life. Without hope, humanity plunges into despair and life can lose all purpose and meaning. Hope energizes people and communities and also produces forbearance and patience. In this clear and accessible survey which incorporates Asian perspectives, Roland Chia shows how Christian hope presses beyond the limits of both secular and religious world views and confronts the reality of pain, suffering and death in the light of the crucifixion and resurrection of Jesus Christ. It is hope for God and in God.

Philippine Politics Lynn T. White III, 2014-12-17. Philippine political history, especially in the twentieth century, challenges the image of democratic evolution as serving the people and does so in ways that reveal inadequately explored aspects of many democracies. In the first decades of the twenty-first century, the Philippines has nonetheless shown gradual socioeconomic progress This book provides an interpretive overview of Philippine politics and takes full account of the importance of patriotic Philippine factors in making decisions about future political policies It analyses whether regional and local politics have more importance than national politics in the Philippines Discussing cultural traditions of patronism it also examines how clan feuds localize the state and create strong local policies These conflicts in turn make regional and family run polities collectively stronger than the central state institution The book goes on to explore elections in the Philippines and in particular the ways in which politicians win democratic elections the institutionalized role of public money in this process and the role that media plays Offering a new interpretive overview of Philippine progress over many decades the author notes recent economic and political changes during the current century while also trying to advance ideas that might prove useful to Filipinos Presenting an in depth analysis of the problems and possibilities of politics and society in the Philippines the book will be of interest to those researching Southeast Asian Politics Political History and Asian Society and Culture

Agriculture in the Malaysian Region R.D. Hill, 2013-04-30 Malaysia s transition from a country dependent on agriculture and mining to an industrialized society is readily apparent but the process of change remains poorly understood When R D Hill began studying agriculture in Malaysia Singapore and Brunei in the 1960s he found swiddening market gardening semi commercial wet rice cultivation and large scale plantations Today Malaysian agriculture has become highly capital intensive and increasingly specialized and many forms of production have all but disappeared Once dependent on the export of primary products such as tin rubber and palm oil Malaysia is now an industrialized middle income country Singapore has nearly abandoned its primary sector This completely revised edition of Hill s 1982 study with two lengthy new chapters explains the evolution of agriculture in Malaysia Brunei and Singapore over the last forty years with particular attention to the agro ecosystems of the major crops
