Southeast Asian Art A New Spirit:

South East Asian Art ,1997-01-01 Southeast Asia Christoph Antweiler,2004 Art and AsiaPacific ,2003

What's the Use of Art? Jan Mrazek,Morgan Pitelka,2007-12-03 Post Enlightenment notions of culture which have been naturalized in the West for centuries require that art be autonomously beautiful universal and devoid of any practical purpose The authors of this multidisciplinary volume seek to complicate this understanding of art by examining art objects from across Asia with attention to their functional ritual and everyday contexts From tea bowls used in the Japanese tea ceremony to television broadcasts of Javanese puppet theater from Indian wedding chamber paintings to art looted by the British army from the Chinese emperor's palace from the adventures of a Balinese magical dagger to the political functions of classical Khmer images the authors challenge prevailing notions of artistic value by introducing new ways of thinking about culture The chapters consider art objects as they are involved in the world how they operate and are experienced in specific sites collections rituals performances political and religious events and imagination and in individual peoples lives how they move from one context to another and change meaning and value in the process for example when they are collected traded and looted or when their images appear in art history textbooks how their memories and pasts are or are not part of their meaning and experience Rather than lead to a single universalizing definition of art the essays offer multiple divergent and case specific answers to the question What is the use of art and argue for the need to study art as it is used and experienced Contributors Cynthia J Bogel Louise Cort Richard H Davis Robert DeCaroli James L Hevia Janet Hoskins Kaja McGowan Jan Mr zek Lene Pedersen Morgan Pitelka Ashley Thompson IMELDA CAJIPE ENDAYA Stitching Paint into Collage , The John M. Piyadasa T. K. Sabapathy,2001 Engaging the Spirit World Kirsten W. Endres,Andrea Lauser,2012-03-01 In many parts of the contemporary world spirit beliefs and practices have taken on a pivotal role in addressing the discontinuities and uncertainties of modern life The myriad ways in which devotees engage the spirit world show the tremendous creative potential of these practices and their innate adaptability to changing times and circumstances Through in depth anthropological case studies from Indonesia Malaysia Thailand Myanmar Laos and Vietnam the contributors to this book investigate the role and impact of different social political and economic dynamics in the reconfiguration of local spirit worlds in modern Southeast Asia Their findings contribute to the re enchantment debate by revealing that the spirited modernities that have emerged in the process not only embody a distinct feature of the contemporary moment but also invite a critical rethinking of the concept of modernity itself BiblioAsia ,2011-04 Agnes Martin - Transcultural Translations Mona Schieren,2025-02-27 The work of Agnes Martin has frequently been associated with East Asian philosophies Particularly highlighting the oeuvre of this US artist Mona Schieren presents comprehensive research on the influence of Asianist aesthetics in post 1945 American art More than just historical analysis her study opens an entirely new perspective on Martin s appropriation of Asianisms by focusing on transcultural translation and redefining Martin s work beyond Abstract Expressionism and Minimalism This offers new viewpoints on the aesthetic philosophical and visual relationships in American postwar art and takes a nuanced approach that moves beyond generalized notions of Zen in the US art world Schieren s exploration of the intentional and specific uses of Asianist aesthetics profoundly contributes to insights in international art histories and cultural translations A Companion to Asian Art and Architecture Rebecca M.
