Anatomies of the Gospels and Beyond, 2019-01-28 Anatomies of the Gospels and Beyond is an edited volume structured around essays that focus on one of the four canonical Gospels and Acts and or theoretical issues involved in literary readings of New Testament narrative The volume is intended to honor the legacy of R Alan Culpepper Emeritus Professor and Former Dean at Mercer University s McAfee School of Theology The title of the volume which alludes to the title of Culpepper s ground breaking monograph Anatomy of the Fourth Gospel and the breadth of the essays are apt reflections of his research interests over his academic career of over forty years The twenty five contributors are internationally recognized experts in New Testament studies thus the essays represent a snapshot of current research

Creation Stories in Dialogue: The Bible, Science, and Folk Traditions Jan G. van der Watt, R. Alan Culpepper, 2015-11-02 This book is about creation stories in dialogue not only between different religious views but also between current day scientific perspectives International specialists like Alan Culpepper David Christian John Haught Randall Zachman Ellen van Wolde from various disciplines are reflecting on the interface between science and religion relating questions of creation and origin This multi disciplinary discussion by some of the leading exponents in this field makes the book unique not only in its depth of discussion but also in its wide ranging interdisciplinary discussion The point of departure of all the contributions is the prestige lecture by Alan Culpepper where he argues for bringing Biblical material into discussion with modern scientific insights relating to creation and origin

Decentring and Diversifying Southeast Asian Studies Goh Beng Lan, 2011 This admirable book contains fascinating autobiographical accounts by some of Southeast Asia s most eminent scholars concerning their struggle to find their own voices in interpreting the region to which they belong The book should be indispensable to anyone interested in thinking about knowledge production and its politics in a postcolonial world In the views of these scholarly Southeast Asians we are made to see in very personal terms the link between the global crisis in the social sciences and the need to find remedies for it that are neither Eurocentric nor parochially anti Western Professor Alexander Woodside Professor of Chinese and Southeast Asian History University of British Columbia Vancouver Canada This book marks the shift of the centre of Southeast Asian Studies from the West to Southeast Asia The insights provided by the authors are not simply explanations of colonial and postcolonial experiences of major Southeast Asian scholars Rather the book provides a unique set of intellectual genealogies that show that distinctions between humanities and social sciences are less important than the development of distinctive local and regional traditions and practices of scholarship Goh Beng Lans introduction frames the collection through her subtle deconstruction of international discourses on Southeast Asia This introduction then allows the reader to view the different generations of Southeast Asian scholars in their social political and academic contexts The end result is a combined view of the state of the art of Southeast Asian Studies a view that is greater than the sum of its national parts Professor Adrian Vickers Chair of Southeast Asian Studies University of Sydney and Director Australian Centre for Asian Art and Archaeology The collection represents a coming of age of scholars from Southeast Asia What we hear is not bluster that comes from a wounded pride or doctrinal certainties but a quiet confidence that acknowledges the multiple currents in which their scholarship has been formed and a willingness to engage the perspective of the other both within and without The reflexivity in this volume sets the stage for scholars from the region to develop perspectives and concepts to address the challenges of the new configuration of the Asia being ushered in by ASEAN Professor Prasenjit Duara Raffles Professor of Humanities and Director of Research Humanities and Social Sciences National University of Singapore

Southeastern Studies Southeastern Baptist Theological Seminary Staff,1981 China Studies In South And Southeast Asia: Between Pro-china And Objectivism Chih-yu Shih,Prapin Manomaivibool,Reena Marwah,2018-08-13 The rise of China has reconstituted the regional identity in Asia as well as the lens through which understanding of China and self understanding are no longer separate processes intellectually China scholarship in South and Southeast Asia necessarily highlights meanings of encountering China that Western social sciences fail to reflect because academics in many places being migrants navigate and combine more than one civilization forces With China in itself undergoing transformation it is unlikely that one can simply speak of China without multiple qualifications of what one actually refers to The book gathers authors who come from different scholarly traditions to reflect upon how the presentation of China in academic writings as well as think tank analyses can engender different identity possibilities The book therefore complicates the category China to enable mutual empathy between everything that in one way or another relies on Chineseness as object or subject in accordance with the identity strategies of the China experts Critical Reflections on Cities in Southeast Asia Tim Bunnell,Lisa Barbara Welch Drummond,Ho Kong Chong,2002 Critical Reflections draws together the multi disciplinary research of scholars working in on cities across Southeast Asia The fourteen essays collected in the volume are organised into three thematic sections re conceptualisation competition and intervention Collectively these reflections contribute to and interrogate the expanding urban and regional studies literature The volume constitutes a critical corrective to the existing literature which all too often seeks to diagnose contemporary urban trends everywhere from a small number of mostly Western paradigmatic cases Yet while acknowledging the increasing interconnectedness and shared global orientation of most cities in Southeast Asia the volume is wary of positing an equally generalising regional model Individually these essays attend to the diversity of contemporary urban experiences in Southeast Asia A History of Research Into Ancient Egyptian Culture in Southeast Europe Mladen Tomorad,2015-02-26 This book will try to give a review of the history of the studies of Ancient Egypt done in Southeast Europe and present some of the latest research The book comprises a selection of papers in which scholars from various institutions of the region reviewed the different aspects of past studies along with recent research in the field Agriculture and Industry in South-Eastern Roman Britain David Bird,2016-12-31 The ancient counties surrounding the Weald in the SE corner of England have a strongly marked character of their own that has survived remarkably well in the face of ever increasing population pressure The area is however comparatively neglected in discussion of Roman Britain where it is often subsumed into a generalised treatment of the civilian part of Britannia that is based largely on other parts of the country This book aims to redress the balance The focus is particularly on Kent Surrey and Sussex account is taken of information from neighboring counties particularly when the difficult subsoils affect the availability of evidence An overview of the environment and a consideration of themes relevant to the South East as a whole accompany 14 papers covering the topics of rural settlement in each county crops querns and millstones animal exploitation salt production leatherworking the working of bone and similar materials the production of iron and iron objects non ferrous metalworking pottery production and the supply of tile to Roman London Agriculture and industry provides an up to date assessment of our knowledge of the southern hinterland of Roman London and an area that was particularly open to influences from the Continent

Civil Society in Southeast Asia Lee Hock Guan, 2003-08-01 What is the relevance of civil society to people empowerment effective governance and deepening democracy This book addresses this question by examining the activities and public participation of non governmental organizations NGOs in the areas of religion ethnicity gender and the environment Examples are taken from Indonesia Malaysia the Philippines Singapore Thailand and Vietnam State regimes attempts to co opt the concept or reject it as alien to e Asian values have apparently not turned out as expected This is evident from the fact that many Southeast Asian citizens are inspired by the civil society concept and now engage in public discourse and participation The experience of civil society in Southeast Asia shows that its impact or lack of impact on democratization and democracy depends on a variety of factors not only within civil society itself but also within the state
