The Industrialisation of Soviet Russia 2: Soviet Collective Farm, 1929-1930 R. W. Davies, 1989-05-05 During the events described in The Socialist Offensive the collective farms achieved a commanding position in the Soviet countryside They were planned as giant fully socialist enterprises modelled on the state owned factories and employing wage labour By the summer of 1930 the collective farm compromise had been introduced Collective farmers were permitted to retain a personal household plot and their own animals and a free market continued side by side with state planning This system continued throughout the Stalin period important features of it remain in the Soviet Union today The emergence of the collective farm in 1929 30 discussed in detail in the present volume was thus a crucial stage in the formation of the Soviet system

The Industrialisation Of Soviet Russia: Volume 2: The Soviet Collective Farm, 1929-1930 R W Davies, 1980-07-31 During the events described in The Socialist Offensive the collective farms achieved a commanding position in the Soviet countryside The emergence of the collective farm in 1929 30 discussed in the present volume was a crucial stage in the formation of the Soviet system

The Soviet Collective Farm, 1929-1930 Robert William Davies, 1989 Rural History of Soviet Central Asia: Land Reform and Agricultural Change in Early Soviet Uzbekistan Beatrice Penati, 2024-12-02 In the mid 1920s Uzbekistan s countryside experienced a land reform which aimed at solving rural poverty and satisfying radical fringes among peasants and Party while sustaining agricultural output especially for cotton This book analyses the decision making process underpinning the reform its implementation and economic and social effects The reform must be understood against the background of the wreckage caused by war and revolution and linked to subsequent policies of land organisation and regime sponsored class struggle Overall this is the first comprehensive account of early Soviet policy in Central Asia s agricultural heartland encompassing land rights irrigation credit resettlement and the co operative system

A Researcher's Guide to Sources on Soviet Social History in the 1930s Sheila Fitzpatrick, Lynne Viola, 2016-07-22 The Stalin era has been less accessible to researchers than either the preceding decade or the postwar era The basic problem is that during the Stalin years censorship restricted the collection and dissemination of information and introduced bias and distortion into the statistics that were published while in the post Stalin years access to archives and libraries remained tightly controlled Thus it is not surprising that one of the main manifestations of glasnost has been the effort to open up records of the 1930s In this volume Western and Soviet specialists detail the untapped potential of sources on this period of Soviet social history and also the hidden traps that abound The full range of sources is covered from memoirs to official documents from city directories to computerized data bases

The Collective and the Individual in Russia Oleg Kharkhordin, 2023-04-28 Oleg Kharkhordin has constructed a compelling subtle and complex genealogy of the Soviet individual that is as much about Michel Foucault as it is about Russia Examining the period from the Russian Revolution to the fall of Gorbachev Kharkhordin demonstrates that Party rituals which forced each Communist to reflect intensely and repeatedly on his or her self an entirely novel experience for many of them had their antecedents in the Orthodox Christian practices of doing penance in the public gaze Individualization in Soviet Russia occurred through the intensification of these public penitential practices rather than the private confessional practices that are characteristic of Western Christianity He also finds that objectification of the individual in Russia relied on practices of mutual surveillance among peers rather than on the hierarchical surveillance of subordinates by superiors that characterized the West The implications of this book expand well beyond its brilliant analysis of the connection between Bolshevism and Eastern Orthodoxy to shed light on many questions about the nature of Russian society and culture Oleg Kharkhordin has constructed a compelling subtle and complex genealogy of the Soviet individual that is as much about Michel Foucault as it is about Russia Examining the period from the Russian Revolution to the fall of Gorbachev Kharkhordin demon     Socialist Agriculture In Transition Joseph C Brada,Karl-Eugen Wadekin,2019-07-11 Because of altered investment priorities policymakers in socialist countries can no longer increase the resources devoted to agriculture as they have in the past Instead they must seek alternative means of improving agricultural performance One approach has been to change the structure of socialist agriculture and to foster organizational changes within agricultural units The contributors to this volume evaluate such reforms and weigh their implications for agricultural output and trade They examine the normless links being introduced in the USSR and compare Soviet experiences with the successes of Chinese and Hungarian reorganizations describe and analyze the changes being implemented in the German Democratic Republic Yugoslavia and Vietnam and pay particular attention to the role of Polish agriculture in the production crisis and to agriculture s potential for improving Poland s overall economic performance The contributors also address issues of infrastructure development the incentives being developed to foster more efficient allocation of resources within the agricultural sector and the likely growth of East West and intra socialist agricultural trade     The Development of the Soviet Economic System Alexander Baykov,1947 Study of the development of the collective economy system in the USSR with particular reference to economic planning experience during the period from 1917 to 1939 covers economic policy economic development extensive industrialization rural cooperative and state farms labour force problems the marketing of consumer goods reconstruction of the trade network changes in the economic structure national budgeting etc Bibliography pp 480 to 495 and statistical tables     The Industrialisation of Soviet Russia 1: Socialist Offensive R. W. Davies,1980-07-31 By the summer of 1929 Soviet industrialisation was well under way but agriculture was in a profound crisis in 1928 and 1929 grain to feed the towns was wrested from the peasants by force and the twenty five million individual peasant households lost the stimulus to extend or even to maintain their production In the autumn of 1929 the Soviet Politburo led by Stalin launched its desperate effort to win the battle for agriculture by forcible collectivisation and by large scale mechanisation Simultaneously hundreds of thousands of kulaks richer peasants and recalcitrant peasants were expelled from their villages This book tells the story of these events as momentous in their impact on Russian history at the Bolshevik Revolution of October 1917 and of the temporary retreat from collectivisation in the spring of 1930 in the face of peasant resistance The crisis in the Communist Party which resulted from this upheaval in the months preceding the XVI party congress in June 1930 is described in detail for the first time

Stalin Stephen Kotkin, 2018-11-20 Monumental The New York Times Book Review Pulitzer Prize finalist Stephen Kotkin has written the definitive biography of Joseph Stalin from collectivization and the Great Terror to the conflict with Hitler's Germany that is the signal event of modern world history In 1929 Joseph Stalin having already achieved dictatorial power over the vast Soviet Empire formally ordered the systematic conversion of the world's largest peasant economy into socialist modernity otherwise known as collectivization regardless of the cost What it cost and what Stalin ruthlessly enacted transformed the country and its ruler in profound and enduring ways Building and running a dictatorship with life and death power over hundreds of millions made Stalin into the uncanny figure he became Stephen Kotkin's Stalin Waiting for Hitler 1929 1941 is the story of how a political system forged an unparalleled personality and vice versa The wholesale collectivization of some 120 million peasants necessitated levels of coercion that were extreme even for Russia and the resulting mass starvation elicited criticism inside the party even from those Communists committed to the eradication of capitalism But Stalin did not flinch By 1934 when the Soviet Union had stabilized and socialism had been implanted in the countryside praise for his stunning anti capitalist success came from all quarters Stalin however never forgave and never forgot with shocking consequences as he strove to consolidate the state with a brand new elite of young strivers like himself Stalin's obsessions drove him to execute nearly a million people including the military leadership diplomatic and intelligence officials and innumerable leading lights in culture While Stalin revived a great power building a formidable industrialized military the Soviet Union was effectively alone and surrounded by perceived enemies The quest for security would bring Soviet Communism to a shocking and improbable pact with Nazi Germany But that bargain would not unfold as envisioned The lives of Stalin and Hitler and the fates of their respective dictatorships drew ever closer to collision as the world hung in the balance Stalin Waiting for Hitler 1929 1941 is a history of the world during the build up to its most fateful hour from the vantage point of Stalin's seat of power It is a landmark achievement in the annals of historical scholarship and in the art of biography

Red Famine Anne Applebaum, 2017-10-10 NEW YORK TIMES BESTSELLER A revelatory history of one of Stalin's greatest crimes the consequences of which still resonate today as Russia has placed Ukrainian independence in its sights once more from the author of the Pulitzer Prize winning Gulag and the National Book Award finalist Iron Curtain With searing clarity Red Famine demonstrates the horrific consequences of a campaign to eradicate backwardness when undertaken by a regime in a state of war with its own people The Economist In 1929 Stalin launched his policy of agricultural collectivization in effect a second Russian revolution which forced millions of peasants off their land and onto collective farms The result was a catastrophic famine the most lethal in European history At least five million people died between 1931 and

1933 in the USSR But instead of sending relief the Soviet state made use of the catastrophe to rid itself of a political problem In Red Famine Anne Applebaum argues that more than three million of those dead were Ukrainians who perished not because they were accidental victims of a bad policy but because the state deliberately set out to kill them Devastating and definitive Red Famine captures the horror of ordinary people struggling to survive extraordinary evil Applebaum's compulsively readable narrative recalls one of the worst crimes of the twentieth century and shows how it may foreshadow a new threat to the political order in the twenty first Large Scale and Corporation Farming United States. Bureau of Agricultural Economics. Library, 1937 The Making of the Georgian Nation, Second Edition Ronald Grigor Suny, 1994-10-22 the best study in English to date for an understanding of Georgian nationalism Religious Studies Review the standard account of Georgian history in English American Historical Review tour de force research fascinating reading American Political Science Review Like the other republics floating free after the demise of the Soviet empire the independent republic of Georgia is reinventing its past recovering what had been forgotten or distorted during the long years of Russian and Soviet rule Whether Georgia can successfully be transformed from a society rent by conflict into a pluralistic democratic nation will depend on Georgians rethinking their history This is the first comprehensive treatment of Georgian history from the ethnogenesis of the Georgians in the first millennium B C through the period of Russian and Soviet rule in the nineteenth and twentieth centuries to the emergence of an independent republic in 1991 the ethnic and civil warfare that has ensued and perspectives for Georgia's future Miscellaneous Publication, 1938 British Books in Print, 1979

International Reference Service, 1941 Stalin Stefan Creuzberger, 2009-03-12 Stalin is more relevant than ever He symbolises the Soviet Union's rise to a global superpower a position that the current government in Moscow wishes to restore This is demonstrated by the violent conflicts in the northern Caucasus which have some roots in the period of Stalin This is additionally illustrated by the renaissance of the late Russian dictator who is being stylised as moderniser without referring to the brutality and victims of his great industrialisation project In this book based on current research the author offers a biographical perspective on Stalin's life In contrast to many other biographical works the Soviet dictator is equally presented as domestic as well as foreign politician and the history and ideology of Stalinism is laid out Agricultural Economics
