Soviet Education James Bowen,1962 Soviet Education. Anton Makarenko and the Years of Experiment James Bowen,1962 Russian and Soviet Education 1731-1989 John T. Zepper,William W. Brickman,2014-02-04 Volume 9 in the series of Reference Books in International Education This bibliography is intended to provide a reference aid to mature Russian Soviet scholars to those beginning a life long study of this field and to students in Russian Soviet Studies and allied fields This title provides a resource to scholars students and professionals seeking to understand the role played by education in various societies or regions of the world Soviet Education Nellie Mary Apanasewicz,1964 A History of Western Education (Volumes 1, 2 and 3) James Bowen,2020-05-25 This set reprints volumes 1 2 and 3 of James Bowen s A History of Western Education originally published by Methuen in the 1970s Volume One The Ancient World Orient and Mediterranean 2000B C A D 1054The volume traces the development of education in the ancient world from the first scribal cultures of Mesopotamia and Egypt to learning in the early Christian church A detailed account is given of the achievements of Greece in literacy learning philosophy and training for public life achievements which were further developed in the Hellenistic Orient and incorporated by the Romans into their own highly organized educational system This leads to the emergence of a specifically Christian ideal of education the decline of secular learning in the West and the preservation of learning both in Byzantium and in Western monasticism Volume Two Civilization of Europe Sixth to Sixteenth Century Volume Two follows the growth and process of learning in Europe from its foundations in the Carolingian era through its evolution in medieval Europe especially Italy France Germany and England to its expansion and refinement in the sixteenth century Particular attention is paid to The role of medieval institutions of the cathedral and grammar schools and the university The contribution of notable scholars of the age such as Abelard Thomas Aquinas Erasmus and Luther Volume Three The Modern West Europe and the New World The final volume covers the period of educational dissent which became conspicuous in the early seventeenth century and reached crisis proportions in the late twentieth when the dominant ideologies of progress and equality generated at the beginning of the nineteenth century were questioned for the first time on a widespread popular scale Soviet State and Society Between Revolutions, 1918-1929 Lewis H. Siegelbaum,1992-08-20 The evolution of the ruling Communist Party and its New Economic Policy is explored in the first book to analyze the relationship between the Soviet state and society from 1917 through the early 1930s through the changing fortunes of its peoples Russia and Eastern Europe, 1789-1985 Raymond Pearson,1989 Education in the Soviet Union Mervyn Matthews,2012 This book provides a comprehensive survey of the successes and failures of education and training in the Khrushchev and Brezhnev years The author gives an objective assessment of the accessibility of the main types of institution of the contents of courses and of Soviet attempts to marry the functioning of their education system to their perceived economic and social needs In addition the book has many useful and original features For ease of analysis it summarises in diagram form complex statistics which are not usually brought together for so long a time period It provides a systematic account of educational legislation Matthews comparison of series of official decrees will allow subtle shifts in government policy to be accurately charted Particular attention is also paid to a number of issues that are often neglected the employment problems of school and college graduates the role and professional status of teachers political control and militarisation in schools the close detail of higher education curricula and the rate of student failure Of special value is the chapter on those educational institutions which are often omitted from Western studies and which are hardly recognised as such in most official Soviet sources Soviet Law After Stalin Donald D. Barry, George Gingsburgs, Peter B. Maggs, 1979 Federal Probation , 1968 Stalin's Last Generation Juliane Fürst, 2010-09-30 Stalin s last generation was the last generation to come of age under Stalin yet it was also the first generation to be socialized in the post war period Its young members grew up in a world that still carried many of the hallmarks of the Soviet Union s revolutionary period yet their surroundings already showed the first signs of decay stagnation and disintegration Stalin s last generation still knew how to speak Bolshevik still believed in the power of Soviet heroes and still wished to construct socialism yet they also liked to dance and dress in Western styles they knew how to evade boring lectures and lessons in Marxism Leninism and they were keen to forge identities that were more individual than those offered by the state In this book Juliane F rst creates a detailed picture of late Stalinist youth and youth culture looking at young people from a variety of perspectives as children of the war as recipients and creators of propaganda as perpetrators of crime as representatives of fledgling subcultures as believers as critics and as drop outs In the process she illuminates not only the complex relationship between the Soviet state and its youth but also provides a new interpretative framework for understanding late Stalinism the impact of which on Soviet society s subsequent development has hitherto been underestimated including its role in the ultimate demise of the USSR

Preparing For Power Peter W Cookson Jr, Caroline Hodges Persell, 2008-08-04 Why do private boarding schools produce such a disproportionate number of leaders in business government and the arts In the most comprehensive study of its kind to date two sociologists describe the complex ways in which elite schools prepare students for success and power and they also provide a lively behind the scenes look at prep school life and underlife Ministries of Compassion among Russian Evangelicals, 1905-1929 Mary Raber, 2016-05-13 The present study fills a gap in the study of the evangelical movement in Russia by presenting a comprehensive picture of their compassionate ministry during their longest stretch of relative freedom before the 1980s Better known for their energetic preaching and literature work Russian evangelicals also gave attention to compassionate ministry although it was never extensive because of their marginal status They established assistance funds organized charitable institutions practiced urban rescue ministry participated in the Russian temperance movement and established economic communities Each area is distinct yet all were supported by the same set of theological convictions The Russian evangelicals were convinced that their witness should consist of good works as well as words and that the gospel had the power to undo human suffering While intentionally cultivating an attitude of concern for the needs of others they taught that compassion was the concern of all members of the community regardless of economic status or age In their publications evangelicals devoted a good deal of teaching to the proper Christian attitude toward money and giving They drew on Western models but also their indigenous sectarian roots

The Art and Science of Making the New Man in Early 20th-Century Russia Yvonne Howell,Nikolai Kremmentsov,2021-12-02 The idea that morally mentally and physically superior new men might replace the currently existing mankind has periodically seized the imagination of intellectuals leaders and reformers throughout history This volume offers a multidisciplinary investigation into how the new man was made in Russia and the early Soviet Union in the first third of the 20th century The traditional narrative of the Soviet new man as a creature forged by propaganda is challenged by the strikingly new and varied case studies presented here The book focuses on the interplay between the rapidly developing experimental life sciences such as biology medicine and psychology and countless cultural products ranging from film and fiction dolls and museum exhibits to pedagogical projects sculptures and exemplary agricultural fairs With contributions from scholars based in the United States Canada the UK Germany and Russia the picture that emerges is emphatically more complex contradictory and suggestive of strong parallels with other new man visions in Europe and elsewhere In contrast to previous interpretations that focused largely on the apparent disconnect between utopian new man rhetoric and the harsh realities of everyday life in the Soviet Union this volume brings to light the surprising historical trajectories of new man visions their often obscure origins acclaimed and forgotten champions unexpected and complicated results and mutual interrelations In short the volume is a timely examination of a recurring theme in modern history when dramatic advancements in science and technology conjoin with anxieties about the future to fuel dreams of a new and improved mankind
