Talking Cure A Descriptive Guide To Psychoanalysis:

The Talking Cure Joseph D. Lichtenberg, 2013-04-15 Among the many elementary expositions of psychoanalysis The Talking Cure is unique in focusing on the actual analytic experience Lichtenberg's approach is humanistic demonstrating empathic understanding of the fears and hopes of the person seeking help He provides a feel for what happens during the analytic voyage of self discovery

The Freudians Edith Kurzweil, 2018-04-27 Every country unconsciously creates the psychoanalysis it needs says Edith Kurzweil Freudians everywhere even the most orthodox are influenced by national traditions interests beliefs and institutions In this original and stimulating book Kurzweil traces the ways in which psychoanalysis has evolved in Austria England France Germany and the United States The author explains how psychoanalysis took root in each country outlines the history of various psychoanalytic institutes and describes how Freudian doctrine has been transmuted by aesthetic values behavioral mores and political traditions of different cultures The Germans for example took Austrian humanism and made it scientific The British developed object relations French psychoanalysts emphasized linguistics and structuralism and developed an abiding fascination with text language subtext and plot structures In her new introduction Kurzweil reexamines her argument that countries develop their own psychoanalysis according to their needs She describes evidence supporting her theories and why they continue to hold true today She also discusses what led her to write this book initially The Freudians is a major work in confirming the importance of psychoanalytic thought across national and cultural boundaries

Craft and Spirit Joseph D. Lichtenberg, 2013-09-05 In Craft and Spirit Joseph Lichtenberg writes of the craft of exploratory psychotherapy by which he means the creative skill even artistry that mobilizes the spirit of inquiry in therapist and patient and sustains it over the course of psychotherapy He expatiates on this craft as it pertains to patients of our time patients who typically bring to therapy backgrounds of insecure attachment and serious concerns about safety and retraumatization In each of ten chapters Lichtenberg formulates a different guideline for technique keyed to the broad domain of exploratory psychotherapies and are accompanied by numerous clinical illustrations These guidelines seek to foster greater therapist involvement without compromising an openness to psychological exploration They seek to sensitize therapists to the two interlacing tracks of communication that unfold in treatment those of verbal exchange and of enactive messages And they help guide therapist attention among interpenetrating domains of the patient's subjectivity the therapist's subjectivity and the intersubjective realm that emerges from their collaborative experience Fusing the humanist tradition of therapeutic inquiry with knowledge gained from recent infancy and child research Lichtenberg develops guidelines suitable to exploratory therapy with patients who communicate not only verbally but also through diverse affect states and altered cognitions Consistently illuminating on the parallels and disjunctions between caregiver child and therapist patient relationships Lichtenberg is clear about the adult to adult dimension of exploratory work in which provision is necessarily subordinate to inquiry Craft and Spirit is aimed equally at prospective patients therapists and analysts all of whom will be edified by this masterful demonstration of the ways in which a spirit of inquiry imbues the craft of psychotherapy in Lichtenberg's words with its liveliness of sustained purpose

Introspection in Biography Samuel H Baron, Carl Pletsch, 2019-09-30 Most of the essays offered here are revised versions of papers first prepared for an invitational conference on The Psychology of Biography held in Chapel Hill November 12-14 1981 The conference which was funded by the National Endowment for the Humanities brought together twelve biographers including historians literary scholars political scientists and psychoanalysts each of whom had composed an introspective essay describing his experience of the biographical process Each participant was invited to proceed in whatever manner seemed appropriate to him but all were encouraged as well to address a number of questions that we regard as central to this inquiry Why did I decide to write a biography and how did I select a subject How did I achieve insight into the internal life of my protagonist In what ways did I put my personal stamp on the portrait I produced As a result of protracted involvement with the subject did the latter influence my life and if so how The contributors have responded to these questions in varying degrees but they provide evidence enough to permit for the first time some systematic treatment of these and subsidiary questions On the other hand

each paper is marked by an individual approach and style Taken as a whole these uncommonly intimate and self revealing essays illuminate many aspects of the biographical enterprise The collaborative character of the symposium deserves emphasis It began with the request that the contributors to be all address a number of specific questions It continued with the cooperation of a majority of the contributors with a psychoanalyst or clinical psychologist as an aspect of the preparation of their papers More on this in a moment It went a step further at the conference itself which served as a forum for an exchange of views so stimulating that it prompted the participants to undertake to revise their papers Moreover the conferees were so impressed by the frequent flashes of illumination most often touched off by Dr George Moraitis that they asked him to compose an additional essay an afterword for this volume to bring to a wider public the workings pitfalls and potentialities of the collaborative method National Library of Medicine Current Catalog National Library of Medicine (U.S.), Current Catalog National Library of Medicine (U.S.), First multi year cumulation covers six years 1965 70

What do Patients Want? Christine A. S. Hill, 2018-04-17 This book allows patients to speak for themselves about their psychoanalytic experiences It challenges the preconceived perception that the analytic practitioner knows best when it comes to treatment and responds to the growing sophistication of those seeking the treatment Living Authentically: Daoist Contributions to Modern Psychology Livia Kohn, 2011 Living Authentically brings together classical scholars of Daoism professors of psychology practicing psychologists medical doctors and alternative practitioners to explore different Daoist concepts of the mind and its transformations in relation to various schools of modern psychology The book explores how Daoism can help us live in the world sustaining relationships and educating children in a stress free truly authentic way
