Teaching English as a Foreign or Second Language Second Edition is designed for those new to ESL/EFL teaching and for self-motivated teachers who seek to maximize their potential and enhance the learning of their students. This guide provides basic information that ESL/EFL teachers should know before they start teaching and many ideas on how to guide students in the skills of listening, speaking, reading, and writing. It stresses the multifaceted nature of teaching the English language to non-native speakers and is based on the real experiences of teachers. The second edition of Teaching English as a Foreign or Second Language includes a wider range of examples to coincide with a variety of teaching contexts from K-12 schools to university intensive language programs and refugee programs. It is also updated with discussions of technology throughout and it considers ways in which technology can be used in teaching language skills. The book collects 15 case studies falling into two parts: Curriculum Development and Teaching Practice and Skills Based Research. The collected studies deploy qualitative, quantitative, or mixed methods to explore patterns, features, developments, and causes and effects of a variety of issues in the sphere of ESL/EFL teaching and learning.
