to adversity Firewalking and Religious Healing Loring M. Danforth, 2016-09-29 If the Saint calls you if you have an open road then you don't feel the fire as if it were your enemy says one of the participants in the Anastenaria This compelling work evokes and contrasts two forms of firewalking and religious healing first the Anastenaria a northern Greek ritual in which people who are possessed by Saint Constantine dance dramatically over red hot coals and second American firewalking one of the more spectacular activities of New Age psychology Loring Danforth not only analyzes these rituals in light of the most recent work in medical and symbolic anthropology but also describes in detail the lives of individual firewalkers involving the reader personally in their experiences he views ritual therapy as a process of transformation and empowerment through which people are metaphorically moved from a state of illness to a state of health Danforth shows that the Anastenaria and the songs accompanying it allow people to express and resolve conflict laden family relationships that may lead to certain kinds of illnesses He also demonstrates how women use the ritual to gain a sense of power and control over their lives without actually challenging the ideology of male dominance that pervades Greek culture Comparing the Anastenaria with American firewalking Danforth includes a gripping account of his own participation in a firewalk in rural Maine Finally he examines the place of anthropology in a postmodern world in which the boundaries between cultures are becoming increasingly blurred Arguing Sainthood Katherine Pratt Ewing, 1997 Ewing examines the competing forces behind the formation of a modern western subjectivity in the context of Sufi religious meanings and practices in Pakistan Where Humans and Spirits Meet Kjersti Larsen, 2008-06-01 Zanzibar an island off the East African coast with its Muslim and Swahili population offers rich material for this study of identity religion and multiculturalism This book focuses on the phenomenon of spirit possession in Zanzibar Town and the relationships created between humans and spirits it provides a way to apprehend how society is constituted and conceived and thus discusses Zanzibari understandings of what it means to be human Defining Islam Andrew Rippin, 2016-04-08 Ever since a group of people came into existence who called themselves Muslims and followed Islam questions of what it means to be a member of this group who is to be included excluded and what the requirements for membership are have proven to be both divisive and defining For scholars and critics the issue of what constitutes or defines Islam whether examining the history of the religion its specific traditions sectarian politics or acts of terrorist is central to any understanding of issues cultures and ideas Defining Islam brings together key classic and contemporary writings on the nature of Islam to provide student readers with the ideal collection of both primary and critical sources
