The Hero Manager Learning From New Zealands Top Chief Executives:

The Hero Manager Brad Jackson, Ken W. Parry, 2001 An analysis of the hero manager in New Zealand business who they are why they've succeeded and what we can learn from them Leadership, Discourse, and Ethnicity Janet Holmes, Meredith Marra, Bernadette Vine, 2011 This is the first book in the field of workplace discourse to examine the relationships among leadership ethnicity and language use Taking a social constructionist approach to the ways in which leadership is enacted through discourse Leadership Discourse and Ethnicity problematizes the concept of ethnicity and demonstrates the importance of context particularly the community of practice in determining what counts as relevant in the analysis of ethnicity The authors analyse everyday workplace interactions supplemented by interview data to examine the ways in which workplace leaders use language to achieve their transactional and relational goals in contrasting ethnicized contexts two of which are Maori and two European Pakeha Their analysis pays special attention to the roles of ethnic values beliefs and orientations in talk A Very Short Fairly Interesting and Reasonably Cheap Book About Studying Leadership Brad Jackson, Ken Parry, 2011-05-25 The first edition of this popular and acclaimed book quickly became a favourite among students for the engaging way in which it guided them through the cacophony of competing perspectives and models of leadership This new edition includes an expanded discussion of hot topics like followership gender ethics authenticity and leadership and the arts set against the backdrop of the global financial crisis In teaching you how to critically appraise and work with leadership theories rather than faithfully accept them this book will not merely make you a better student of leadership it could make you a better leader too How Managers Have Learnt to Lead S. Kempster, 2009-02-25 An insight into the black box of leadership learning that acts as a companion to guide leadership development It has been written to enable the reader to reflect on their own experience and critique this against four case profiles of leadership learning the public and private sectors women managers and owner managers Research Handbook on Entrepreneurship and Leadership Richard T. Harrison, Claire M. Leitch, 2019 This Research Handbook argues that the study of entrepreneurs as leaders is a gap in both the leadership and the entrepreneurship literatures With conceptual and empirical chapters from a wide range of cultures and entrepreneurship and leadership ecosystems the Research Handbook for the first time produces a systematic overview of the entrepreneurial leadership field providing a state of the art perspective and highlighting unanswered questions and opportunities for further research It consolidates existing theory development stimulates new conceptual thinking and includes path breaking empirical explorations Challenging Leadership Stereotypes Through Discourse Cornelia Ilie, Stephanie Schnurr, 2017-08-31 This multidisciplinary volume brings together wide ranging empirical research that goes behind the scenes of diverse organizations dealing with business politics law media education and sports to unravel stereotypes of discursive leadership practices as they unfold in situ It includes contributions that explore how leadership discourse is impacted by increasing pressures of globalization the need to communicate across cultures and languages mediatization leaving ubiquitous digital traces standardization with quality management programmes negotiating organizational procedures mobility endless fast paced long distance synchronization and acceleration permanent co adaption and change The discussion of purposefully chosen case studies moves beyond questions of who is a leader and what leaders do to how leadership stereotypes are being challenged in various communities of practice and thereby making change possible Cross cultural and interdisciplinary approaches are used to get deeper insights into the competing multi voiced controversial and complex identities and relationships enacted in leadership discourse practices

Blake: Leader Mark Orams, 2010-05-01 How to lead winning teams an insider's insight into the leadership of yachting legend Sir Peter Blake New Zealand lost one of its favourite sons when Sir Peter Blake was shot and killed in the Amazon in late 2001 Blake had become a icon after leading New Zealand to victory in the 1995 and 2000 America's Cups following earlier successes in the Whitbread Round the World Race and Jules Verne Challenge His accomplishments demonstrate his skill at assembling managing and leading winning teams Blake Leader is written by sailor and marine scientist Dr Mark Orams who sailed around the world with Blake and worked with him at Team New Zealand and Blakexpeditions In this book he looks at Blake's successful style of leadership from a personal viewpoint It mixes reminiscences and anecdotes from Orams and other sporting and business figures who worked closely with Blake with practical observations of how he chose and led teams Break out boxes and chapter summaries highlight key points and techniques that can be used by leaders and team members in a wide range of sports and business situations Chapters include building a great team being a great leader encouraging a great work ethic and having a winning attitude It also examines the unique New Zealand style of leadership demonstrated by other great Kiwi leaders and how Blake's legacy can be taken into the future
