Sites Unseen European Projects:

Searching for Sebald Lise Patt, Christel Dillbohner, 2007 W G Sebald's books are sui generis hybrids of fiction travelogue autobiography and historical expos in which a narrator both Sebald and not Sebald comments on the quick blossoming of natural wonders and the long deaths that come of human atrocities All his narratives are punctuated with images murky photographs architectural plans engravings paintings newspaper clippings inserted into the prose without captions and often without obvious connection to the words that surround them This important volume includes a rare 1993 interview called But the written word is not a true document A Conversation with W G Sebald about Photography and Literature in which Sebald talks exclusively about his use of photographs It contains some of Sebald's most illuminating and poetic remarks about the topic yet In it he discusses Barthes the photograph's appeal the childhood image of Kafka family photographs and even images he never used in his writings In addition Searching for Sebald positions Sebald within an art historical tradition that begins with the Surrealists continues through Joseph Beuys and blossoms in the recent work of Christian Boltanski and Gerhard Richter and tracks his continuing inspiration to artists such as Tacita Dean and Helen Mirra An international roster of artists and scholars unpacks the intricacies of his unique method Seventeen theoretical essays approach Sebald through the multiple filters of art history Krauss film studies Kluge cultural theory Benjamin psychoanalysis Freud and especially photographic history and theory Barthes Kracauer and 17 modern and contemporary art projects are read through a Sebaldian filter If Sebald's artistic output acts as a touchstone for new critical theory being written on post medium photographic practices Searching for Sebald suggests a model for new investigations in the burgeoning field of visual studies

Impossible Images Shelley Hornstein, Laura Levitt, Laurence J. Silberstein, 2003-10 Impossible Images brings together a distinguished group of contributors including artists photographers cultural critics and historians to analyze the ways in which the Holocaust has been represented in and through paintings architecture photographs museums and monuments Exploring frequently neglected aspects of contemporary art after the Holocaust the volume demonstrates how visual culture informs Jewish memory and makes clear that art matters in contemporary Jewish studies Accepting that knowledge is culturally constructed Impossible Images makes explicit the ways in which context matters It shows how the places where an artist works shape what is produced in what ways the space in which a work of art is exhibited and how it is named influences what is seen or not seen and how calling attention to certain details in a visual work such as a gesture a color or an icon can change the meaning assigned to the work as a whole Written accessibly for a general readership and those interested in art and art history the volume also includes 20 color plates from leading artists Alice Lok Cahana Judy Chicago Debbie Teicholz and Mindy Weisel

Holocaust Images and Picturing Catastrophe Angi Buettner, 2016-12-05 Holocaust Images and Picturing Catastrophe explores the phenomenon of Holocaust transfer analysing the widespread practice of using the Holocaust and its imagery for the representation and recording of other historical events in various media sites It investigates the use of Holocaust imagery in political and legal discourses in critical thinking and philosophy as well as in popular culture to provide a fresh theorisation of the manner in which the Holocaust comes loose from its historical context and is applied to events and campaigns in the contemporary public sphere Richly illustrated with concrete examples including prominent international animal rights activism the Israeli Palestinian conflict and the genocide in Rwanda this book traces the visual rhetoric of Holocaust imagery and its application to events other than the genocide of Jewish people With its discussion of the wide range of issues arising with this form of Holocaust transfer the generalization of the Holocaust as a metaphor in representations of catastrophe as well as in other cultural locations Holocaust Images and Picturing Catastrophe will appeal to those working in the fields of holocaust studies cultural and visual culture studies sociology and media studies

Art and Death Chris Townsend, 2008-07-29 This highly sensitive and beautifully written book looks closely at the way contemporary Western artists negotiate death both as personal experience and in the wider community Townsend discusses but moves beyond the spectacle of death in work by artists such as Damien Hirst to see how mortality in particular the experience of other people's death brings us face to face with profound ethical and even political issues He looks at personal responses to death in the work of artists as varied as Francis Bacon Tracey Emin and Derek Jarman whose film Blue is discussed here in depth Exploring the last body of work by the the Kentucky based photographer Ralph Eugene Meatyard and Jewish American installation artist Shimon Attie's powerful memorial work for the community of Aberfan Townsend considers death in light of the injunction to love thy neighbour

At Memory's Edge James Edward Young, 2000-01-01 How should Germany commemorate the mass murder of Jews once committed in its name In 1997 James E Young was invited to join a German commission appointed to find an appropriate design for a national memorial in Berlin to the European Jews killed in World War II As the only foreigner and only Jew on the panel Young gained a unique perspective on Germany's fraught efforts to memorialize the Holocaust In this book he tells for the first time the inside story of Germany's national Holocaust memorial and his own role in it In exploring Germany's memorial crisis Young also asks the more general question of how a generation of contemporary artists can remember an event like the Holocaust which it never knew directly Young examines the works of a number of vanguard artists in America and Europe including Art Spiegelman Shimon Attie David Levinthal and Rachel Whiteread all born after the Holocaust but indelibly shaped by its memory as passed down through memoirs film photographs and museums In the context of the moral and aesthetic questions raised by these avant garde projects Young offers fascinating insights into the controversy surrounding Berlin's newly opened Jewish museum designed by Daniel Libeskind as well as Germany's soon to be built national Holocaust memorial designed by Peter Eisenman Illustrated with striking images in color and black and white At Memory's Edge is the first book in any language to chronicle these projects and to show how we remember the Holocaust in the after images of its history
