Living with Koryak Traditions Alexander D. King,2011 An examination of the globalization of culture and the invention of tradition and what it means to modern Koryak people living in post Soviet Siberia Burning Down The House Rosemary Marangoly George,2019-04-09 This book views domesticity through multiple frames and surveys the rhetoric and practices of domestication in contemporary cultures It also examines the consequences and costs of homemaking in various geographic and textual locations The Refinement of America Richard Lyman Bushman,2011-09-21 This lively and authoritative volume makes clear that the quest for taste and manners in America has been essential to the serious pursuit of a democratic culture Spanning the material world from mansions and silverware to etiquette books city planning and sentimental novels Richard L Bushman shows how a set of values originating in aristocratic court culture gradually permeated almost every stratum of American society and served to prevent the hardening of class consciousness A work of immense and richly nuanced learning The Refinement of America newly illuminates every facet of both our artifacts and our values The

Traditions of Islam Alfred Guillaume,1924 African Discourse in Islam, Oral Traditions, and Performance

Abdul-Rasheed Na'Allah,2010-09-13 Through an engaged analysis of writers such as Wole Soyinka Ola Rotimi Niyi Osundare and Tanure Ojaide and of African traditional oral poets like Omoekee Amao Ilorin and Mamman Shata Katsina Abdul Rasheed Na Allah develops an African indigenous discourse paradigm for interpreting and understanding literary and cultural materials Na Allah argues for the need for cultural diversity in critical theorizing in the twenty first century He highlights the critical issues facing scholars and students involved in criticism and translation of marginalized texts By returning the African knowledge system back to its roots and placing it side by side with Western paradigms Na Allah has produced a text that will be required reading for scholars and students of African culture and literature It is an important contribution to scholarship in the domain of mobility of African oral tradition and on African literary cultural and performance discourse

Consumer Culture Douglas Goodman, Mirelle Cohen, 2003-11-17 An engrossing review of the development of global consumerism and its impact on sociological issues The phrase shop till you drop has become as American as apple pie and the trend does not appear to be slowing Consumer Culture begins with the history of the consumer culture which reveals that our fascination with consuming shows not only the hidden significance of everyday items such as sugar and fashionable clothing but also reveals the uniqueness of our way of life Consumer Culture also presents the views of economists and sociologists who see consumption as an expression of freedom The book covers the social impact of consumption examining such dubious milestones as physical attacks upon McDonald's and Starbucks and best sellers that are critical of consumption There is coverage of important research such as whether consumers are making rational or impulsive choices and the effect of advertising on children San Antonio Susanna Nawrocki, Gerald Lair, 1992

European Film and Media Culture Lennard Højbjerg, Henrik Søndergaard, 2006 Brings into focus central aspects of developments in European film and media culture Through studies of both film and television the question of national identity European integration and globalisation is analysed in a both Eastern and Western European context This volume also offers several case studies Embodiment and

Experience Thomas J. Csordas, 1994-11-17 Students of culture have been increasingly concerned with the ways in which cultural values are inscribed on the body These essays go beyond this passive construal of the body to a position in which embodiment is understood as the existential condition of cultural life From this standpoint embodiment is reducible neither to representations of the body to the body as an objectification of power to the body as a physical entity or biological organism nor to the body as an inalienable centre of individual consciousness This more sensate and dynamic view is applied by the contributors to a variety of topics including the expression of emotion the experience of pain ritual healing dietary customs and political violence Their purpose is to contribute to a phenomenological theory of culture and self an anthropology that is not merely about the body but from the body
