Engaging Deconstructive Theology Ronald T. Michener, 2016-04-29 Engaging Deconstructive Theology presents an evangelical approach for theological conversation with postmodern thinkers Themes are considered from Derrida Foucault Mark C Taylor Rorty and Cupitt developing dialogue from an open minded evangelical perspective Ron Michener draws upon insights from radical postmodern thought and seeks to advance an apologetic approach to the Christian faith that acknowledges a mosaic of human sources including experience literature and the imagination

Anthropology and the Human Subject Brian Morris, 2014-04-07 The German philosopher Immanuel Kant famously defined anthropology as the study of what it means to be a human being Following in his footsteps Anthropology and the Human Subject provides a critical comprehensive and wide ranging investigation of conceptions of the human subject within the Western intellectual tradition focusing specifically on the secular trends of the twentieth century Encyclopaedic in scope lucidly and engagingly written the book covers the man and varied currents of thought within this tradition Each chapter deals with a specific intellectual paradigm ranging from Marxs historical materialism and Darwins evolutionary naturalism and their various off shoots through to those currents of thought that were prominent in the late twentieth century such as for example existentialism hermeneutics phenomenology and poststructuralism With respect to each current of thought a focus is placed on their main exemplars outlining their biographical context their mode of social analysis and the ontology of the subject that emerges from their key texts The book will appeal not only to anthropologists but to students and scholars within the human sciences and philosophy as well as to any person interested in the question What does it mean to be human Ambitions in scope and encyclopaedic in execution his style is always lucid He makes difficult work accessible His prose conveys the unmistakable impression of a superb and meticulous lecturer at work Anthony P Cohen Journal Royal Anthropological Institute There is a very little I can add to the outstanding criticism Brian Morris levels at deep ecology Insightful as well as incisive I have found his writings an educational experience Murray Bookchin Institute of Social Ecology

Postmodern Music, Postmodern Listening Jonathan D. Kramer, 2016-08-11 Kramer was one of the most visionary musical thinkers of the second half of the 20th century In his The Time of Music he approached the idea of the many different ways that time itself is articulated musically This book has become influential among composers theorists and aestheticians Now in his almost completed text written before his untimely death in 2004 he examines the concept of postmodernism in music Kramer created a series of markers by which we can identify postmodern works He suggests that the postmodern project actually creates a radically different relationship between the composer and listener Written with wit precision and at times playfully subverting traditional tropes to make a very serious point about this difference Postmodern Music Postmodern Listening leads us to a strongly grounded intellectual basis for stylistic description and an intuitive sensibility of what postmodernism in music entails Postmodern Music Postmodern Listening is an examination of how musical postmodernism is not just a style or movement but a fundamental shift in the relationship between composer and listener The result is a multifaceted and provocative look at a critical turning point in music history one whose implications we are only just beginning to understand

Processes and Process-Oriented in Foreign Language Teaching and Learning Wai Meng Chan, Kwee Nyet Chin, Masanori Nagami, Titima Suthiwan, 2011-10-27 There can be no products without processes Though this statement may seem to be no more than an overused generalization it encapsulates the undoubted importance of processes and process oriented approaches in language teaching and learning In foreign language education in recent decades researchers and practitioners alike are increasingly focusing their attention on 1 the learner as the active subject of learning and the internal processes that constitute his/her learning leading to the development of communicative competence 2 teaching approaches curricula and materials that reflect this view of language learning and 3 other factors such as the sociocultural context social interactions and discourse and individual learner characteristics and differences The theme of this book reflects this paradigm shift and the papers included here from the disciplines of foreign language education and second language acquisition provide vital insights into processes in curriculum planning teaching methodology teacher education and professional development language acquisition language discourse classroom instruction and interactions the development of language skills and learning strategies and language learning motivation

Understanding the Culture

Jeff Myers,2017-03-01 Addressing issues such as gender identity abortion technology and poverty Dr Myers challenges readers to ask How can an authentic Christian worldview provide a compassionate effective witness in culture today Dr Myers first shows readers what they can learn from Christian history and why today s issues might not be as new as they seem Then he takes them through the significant topics that affect them every day offering biblical ideas for conversing with others in an increasingly hostile culture This capstone book to a groundbreaking worldview trilogy equips readers to apply a bold Christian witness to their relationships with loved ones neighbors and colleagues     Secrets on Display Mark Stout,Sarah-Jane Corke,2025-06-24 Secrets on Display takes readers on a tour of the thrilling real life history of intelligence and espionage from around the world With tales of spies codebreakers moles terrorist hunters spy chiefs propagandists and secret agents these new histories uncover a world that many of us only see in the movies Bringing together stories and artifacts from the International Spy Museum in Washington DC this book makes the world s largest museum devoted to intelligence history accessible to everyone Secrets on Display brings this hidden history to life with over 200 photographs including over 100 color images of artifacts among them James Bond s Aston Martin DB5 the axe used to assassinate Leon Trotsky a portion of the secret MI6 and CIA tunnel beneath East Berlin and a precursor to the Predator drone as well as concealment devices secret cameras disguise kits cipher machines and a host of other rare objects seldom seen by the public These stories told by historians intelligence officers and museum professionals will fascinate scholars intrigue practitioners and entice those interested in a world of secrecy that most of us can scarcely imagine     The Marketing Book Michael Baker,2012-05-04 This fifth edition of the best selling Marketing Book has been extensively updated to reflect changes and trends in current marketing thinking and practice Taking into account the emergence of new subjects and new authorities Michael Baker has overhauled the contents and contributor lists of the previous edition to ensure this volume addresses all the necessary themes for the modern marketer In particular the Marketing Book now broaches the following new topics Channel management management of the supply chain Customer Relationship Management Direct marketing E marketing Integrated marketing communications measurement of marketing effectiveness Postmodern and retro marketing Relationship marketing Retailing Like its predecessors the Marketing Book 5th edition is bursting with salient articles from some of the best known academics in the field It amounts to an all embracing one volume companion to modern marketing thought ideal for all students of marketing     Romancing the Market Stephen Brown,Bill Clarke,Anne Marie Doherty,2003-09-02 Romancing the Market is a radical rethinking of marketing understanding Marketing and consumer research are dominated by the neo classical ideals of the Enlightenment such as rigour dispassion and the search for scientific truth In a series of provocative essays the contributors challenge these assumptions with reference to the individuality innovation and imagination of the Romantic movement The book contains essays by an international selection of the most creative contemporary marketing scholars including Elizabeth Hirschman Russell Belk Craig Thompson and Robin

Wensley Illuminating controversial and cutting edge this is an essential work for all those interested in new directions in marketing and consumer research Marketing Michael John Baker,2001 The Community of the Weak Hans-Peter Geiser,2013-03-28 Social postmodernism and systematic theology can be considered the new pair in some of the most creative discussions on the future of theological method on a global scale Both in the academy and in the public square as well as in the manifold local and pastoral moments of ministry and community social activism the social the postmodern and the theological intermingle in engaging and border crossing ways The Community of the Weak presents a new kind of jazzy fundamental theology with a postmodern touch using jazz as a metaphor writing ethnographically messy texts out of the personal windows of lived experiences combining fragments of autobiography with theological reconstruction A comparative perspective on North American and European developments in contemporary systematic theology serves as a hermeneutical horizon to juxtapose two continents in their very different contexts The author proposes a systematic and fundamental theology that is more jazzy global and narrative deeply embedded in pastoral ministry to tell its postmodern story
