Teach At Your Own Risk:

The Investigator, 1843 Nonmonogamy and Teaching Ashley Speed, 2023-07-28 Educators are often overworked underpaid and at the crosshairs of every cultural debate Teachers dedicate themselves to creating safe nurturing environments for students but are themselves subjected to levels of personal scrutiny practically unseen in other professions In some careers keeping a picture of your loved ones on your desk isn't worth a second thought For teachers with nontraditional families it can come with the risk of becoming a political football Informed by her firsthand experience as a nonmonogamous educator Ashley Speed examines the typical objections raised about nonmonogamous people teaching children how to refute them and how to navigate some of the difficulties of being a nonmonogamous teacher in today's stormy political waters It also offers practical advice for administrators and parents who want to support nonmonogamous teachers and tips for teachers on how to make their classrooms friendly for kids from nonmonogamous families The Massachusetts Teacher, 1872 Teaching Diversity Relationally Grace S. Kim, Roxanne A. Donovan, Karen L. Suyemoto, 2022-06-27 Teaching Diversity Relationally Engaging Emotions and Embracing Possibilities offers process oriented guidance for negotiating the psychological and relational challenges inherent in teaching about race privilege and oppression Grounded in the philosophy of Transformative Education and incorporating psychological theories the authors present concrete strategies for effectively teaching diversity and social justice courses The authors develop an intersectional social justice framework for Transformative Education that emphasizes five emotional relational pillars of successful teaching for diversity cultivating reflexivity and exploration of positionality engaging emotions fostering perspective taking and empathy promoting community and relational learning and encouraging agency and responsibility They provide guidance on how to prepare for social justice education that fosters the growth of learners and educators by addressing intersecting levels of engagement intrapsychic within individual students and educators relational between students between faculty and students and group dynamic Teaching Diversity Relationally follows the developmental arc of a diversity course across a semester exploring how students respond as the course moves into deeper content material and more intense discussions The authors describe the psychology behind these responses and offer best practices for different points in the semester to facilitate learning manage class dynamics build connections among students and prevent faculty burnout Teaching Diversity Relationally addresses the teaching process in diversity courses The authors companion text Unraveling Assumptions A Primer for Understanding Oppression and Privilege provides the foundational content for university courses that can be expanded upon with a range of disciplines Unraveling Assumptions offers an introductory exploration of power privilege and oppression as foundations of systems of inequality and examines complexities within meanings and lived experiences of race ethnicity gender sexuality disability and social class Teaching Asian America in Elementary Classrooms Noreen Naseem Rodríguez, Sohyun An, Esther June Kim, 2023-12-01 Asian American voices and experiences are largely absent from elementary curricula Asian Americans are an extraordinarily diverse group of people yet are often viewed through stereotypical lenses as Chinese or Japanese only as recent immigrants who do not speak English as exotic foreigners or as a model minority who do well in school This fundamental misperception of who Asian Americans are begins with young learners often from what they learn or do not learn in school This book sets out to amend the superficial treatment of Asian American histories in U S textbooks and curriculum by providing elementary teachers with a more nuanced thematically driven account In chapters focusing on the complexity of Asian American identity major moments in Asian immigration war and displacement issues of citizenship and Asian American activism the authors include suggestions across content areas for guided class discussions ideas for broader units and recommendations for children s literature as well as primary sources

Learning to Teach in the Primary School Teresa Cremin, James Arthur, 2014-02-24 Flexible effective and creative primary school teachers require subject knowledge an understanding of their pupils and how they learn a range of strategies for managing behaviour and organising environments for learning and the ability to respond to dynamic classroom situations This third edition of Learning to Teach in the Primary School is fully updated with reference to the new National Curriculum and has been revised to provide even more practical advice and guidance to trainee primary teachers Twenty two new authors have been involved and connections are now made to Northern Irish Welsh and Scottish policies In addition five new units have been included on making the most of your placement play and exploration in learning behaviour management special educational needs phonics With Masters level reflective tasks and suggestions for research based further reading the book provides valuable support to trainee teachers engaged in learning through school based experience and through reading discussion and reflections as part of a teacher education course It provides an accessible and engaging introduction to knowledge about teaching and learning that every student teacher needs to acquire in order to gain qualified teacher status QTS This comprehensive textbook is essential reading for all students training to be primary school teachers including those on undergraduate teacher training courses BEd BA with QTS BSc with QTS postgraduate teacher training courses PGCE SCITT and employment based teacher training courses Schools Direct Teach First plus those studying Education Studies This textbook is supported by a free companion website with additional resources for instructors and students and can be accessed at www.routledge.com/cw/Cremin
