knowledge base in the science of learning and development the book examines teacher preparation programs at Alverno College Bank Street College of Education High Tech High s Intern Program Montclair State University San Francisco Teacher Residency Trinity University and University of Colorado Denver These seven programs share a common understanding of how people learn that shape similar innovative practices With vivid examples of teaching for deeper learning in coursework and classrooms interviews with faculty school partners and novice teachers surveys of teacher candidates and graduates and analyses of curriculum and practices Preparing Teachers for Deeper Learning depicts transformative forms of teaching and teacher preparation that honor and expand all students abilities knowledges and experiences and reaffirm the promise of educating for a better world Educational Assessment in a Changing World Isabel Nisbet, Stuart Shaw, 2024-10-21 This timely book takes stock of the wide range of developments in society education and assessment and offers conclusions and strategies that are necessary for the future of educational assessment Drawing on examples from the UK Europe and USA the book will dissect cultural political psychological and ideological ideas on society education and assessment and foreground pressing issues relating to artificial intelligence social justice and climate change Acknowledging its predominantly Western perspective and providing context on the evolution of educational assessment the book will bridge the gap between theory and practice to progress debate and discourse on creating a culture of assessment fit for the future and rethinking strategies for the path ahead Ultimately the book will provide insights and key takeaways for the field of educational assessment along with an evidence based agenda that will be relevant for education professionals the assessment industry and policymakers interested in higher education international and comparative education and testing

Teaching the World's Teachers Lauren Lefty, James W. Fraser, 2020-07-07 Examining teacher education in an international context this book captures the diversity of the world s educators Many countries confront surprisingly similar challenges in preparing K 12 educators for success while national contexts also make for surprising differences In Teaching the World s Teachers education historians Lauren Lefty and James W Fraser and their contributors make a convincing case for approaching these shared challenges from a more global and historically minded perspective Written by education scholars from eleven different countries Argentina Brazil Catalonia Spain China England Finland Ghana Israel Singapore South Africa and the United States this book provides histories of teacher education reforms between roughly 1980 and 2020 The authors show how international trends that emerged during this period collided with national and regional contexts to produce unique teacher education systems in different nations While in some countries the embrace of markets and competition led to a deregulation of the teacher preparation field in others teaching became a highly regulated and centralized affair At the same time ideas and structural models cross borders and education leaders borrow from each other while reshaping plans in each place Opening with a broad historical overview of global teacher education models beginning in the late eighteenth century Teaching the World s Teachers argues that the field has long been characterized by cross border connections but shaped by geopolitical hierarchies of power In an era when teacher quality is widely recognized as one of the most important factors in a child's education this volume encourages dialogue among teacher educators and policymakers around the world By understanding the context and contingency of where we have been the authors hope that readers will walk away with a more empowered sense of where we are headed in the all important task of teaching the world's teachers Contributors Kwame Akyeampong Richard Andrews Azeem Badroodien Maria In's G F Marcondes de Souza Gustavo E Fischman James W Fraser Guangwei Hu Arie Kizel Jari Lavonen Lauren Lefty Wei Liao Jason Loh Silvana Mesquita Hannele Niemi Lily Orland Barak Paula Razquin Carol Anne Spreen Eduard Vallory Yisu Zhou Teachers' Worlds and

Work Christopher Day, 2017-07-14 Understanding what influences the quality of teachers' work across a career is key to building and sustaining their ongoing commitment and effectiveness Teachers' Worlds and Work provides a new research informed consideration of key elements which independently and together influence teachers' work and lives policy and workplace conditions teacher professionalism identity emotions commitment and resilience types of professional learning and development and the importance of the contribution to these made by high quality leadership In bringing these elements together the book provides new detailed and holistic understandings of their influence and suggests ways of building and sustaining teachers' abilities and willingness to teach to their best and well over their careers This groundbreaking text will be essential reading for teacher educators teachers head teachers and academics Singapore's Approach to

Developing Teachers Woon Chia Liu, 2021-09-28 Singapore's education system has come to international attention due to its commendable performance on the Worldwide Educating for the Future Index produced by The Economist Intelligence Unit EIU as well as the students' continual sterling performance in internationally benchmarked tests such as Trends in International Math and Science Survey TIMSS and Programme for International Student Assessment PISA The accomplishments are the result of a long haul vision of education and more importantly a deep commitment towards developing teachers for the 21st century Singapore has invested steadfastly from the early years in teachers at the front line of the classrooms in schools This book explicates the thinking behind Singapore's approach to developing teachers and building the teaching profession It examines how Singapore strives to attract the best and the brightest people to become teachers develop them into autonomous professionals and grow them over their career so that they are able to deliver quality education for every child The author hopes that by sharing the hindsight insight and foresight of the system and looking at Singapore's aspirations and challenges the book can stimulate reflection and generate discussion and provide ideas for improving teaching and teacher learning worldwide Preparing Classroom Teachers to Succeed with Second Language Learners Thomas Levine, Elizabeth Howard, David Moss, 2014-07-11 This volume identifies resources models and specific practices for improving teacher preparation for work with second language learners It shows how faculty positioned themselves to learn from resources experts preservice teachers their own practice and each other The teacher education professionals leverage their experience to offer theoretical and practical insights regarding how other faculty could develop their own knowledge improve their courses and understand their influence on the preservice teachers they serve The book addresses challenges others are likely to experience while improving teacher preparation including preservice teacher resistance the challenge of adding to already packed courses the difficulty of recruiting and retaining busy faculty members and the question of how to best frame the larger issues The authors also address options for integrating the work of improving teacher preparation for linguistic diversity into a variety of different teacher education program designs Finally the book demonstrates a data driven approach that makes this work consistent with many institutions mandate to produce research and to collect evidence supporting accreditation
