Sir William Dawson A Life In Science And Religion:

John William Dawson Susan Sheets-Pyenson,1996 In the first full length biography of John William Dawson 1820 1899 eminent scientist and principal of McGill University Susan Sheets Pyenson highlights the extraordinary scope of Dawson s educational and scientific career and his commitment to science rationality and the advancement of knowledge Sir William Dawson, a Life in Science and Religion Charles F. O'Brien,1971 Sir William C. Macdonald William Fong,2007-08-24 Born into a prominent Scottish family on Prince Edward Island Macdonald rejected his Catholic upbringing and left home when he was eighteen After three years in Boston as a bookkeeper he headed to Montreal and began to work as a commission agent By 1868 Macdonald had become the leading manufacturer of chewing tobacco in Canada and by 1885 he may have been the richest person in the country The Americanization of the Apocalypse Donald Harman Akenson,2023 In The Americanization of the Apocalypse Creating America s Own Bible Donald Harman Akenson examines the creation and spread of Dispensationalism a belief system that produced The Scofield Reference Bible the ur text of American apocalyptic evangelicalism Still Voices--Still Heard James S.S. Armour,Judith A. Kashul,William Klempa,Lucille Marr,Dan Shute,2015-09-29 This sesquicentennial project of Presbyterian College tells the stories of thirteen individuals chosen from among its graduates faculty and benefactors whose still voices represent in unique ways the history and influence of the college over the past 150 years Each chapter presents a biography a sermon address letter or report followed by a commentary showing how this still voice spoke to the issues of the time and why it still should be heard The themes remind us of the college s continuing mission to provide the Church with strong and visionary leaders The book concludes with useful lists of Presbyterian College s students scholars supporters and societies down through the years

Four Treatises for the Reconsideration of the History of Science Fabio Farina,2003 Was Isaac Newton considered by many to be the most important scientist of all time actually a mystical occultist Was Galileo often viewed as science s greatest voice of reason to blame for his conflict with the Catholic Church Four Treatises for the Reconsideration of the History of Science examines these and other momentous episodes in the history of science by shedding light on some of the more prevalent misconceptions regarding our views concerning the genesis of science Historian and freelance writer Fabio J A Farina provides an excellent academic introduction to four important case studies necessary for understanding the historical contexts that have influenced science His arguments show that there is a far more complex interplay of issues ideologies and philosophies rather than the simple rationalist evolution as many may view it today The many interesting concepts and viewpoints presented in this small yet invaluable collection will undoubtedly fuel interest for further research and future discussions Contribution of Presbyterianism to the Maritime Provinces of Canada Charles H.H. Scobie,George A. Rawlyk,1997-04-11 Presbyterianism was not only the largest and most influential Protestant denomination in the Maritimes during much of the nineteenth and early twentieth centuries but also one of the largest and most influential

Protestant denominations in Canada While t Andrew Fernando Holmes Richard Vaudry,2020-01-29 This is the first comprehensive study of the life and work of Andrew Fernando Holmes famous for his work on congenital heart disease Physician surgeon natural historian educator Protestant evangelical Andrew Fernando Holmes s name is synonymous with the McGill medical faculty and with the discovery of a congenital heart malformation known as the Holmes heart Born in captivity at Cadiz Spain Holmes immigrated to Lower Canada in the first decade of the nineteenth century He arrived in a province that was experiencing profound social economic and cultural change as the result of a long process of integration into the British Atlantic world A transatlantic perspective therefore undergirds this biography from an exploration of how Holmes s family members were participants in an Atlantic world of trade and consumption to explaining how his educational experiences at Edinburgh and Paris informed his approach to the practice of medicine medical education and medical politics
