Practices Saskatchewan Meredith Cherland University of Regina, 2013-10-23 First Published in 1994 The study of literacy no longer focuses solely on psychological processes In the past ten years literacy has been reconceptualized as a social practice or rather as social practices that make up the fabric of daily life Using an anthropological perspective Private Practices examines the broad fictional reading of middle class pre teen girls and offers fresh insights into the place of literacy both at home and at school in the construction of gender The author provides a wealth of evidence to support the central assumption of the book Gender is a cultural and social construction not a biological given Gender is something that people create while interacting with each other in all the practices of their daily lives including their literacy practices The book also provides critical analysis and commentary concerning the role that reading fiction plays in cultural reproduction In the hope that deeper knowledge of literacy as a social practice will support social transformation and eventually social justice the author suggests compelling reasons for the fact that girls read more fiction and different fiction than do boys Private Practices Meredith Rogers Cherland, 1994 A constructed world Gender practices Literacy practices Instructional practices Identity practices Private lessons Goose Sense Akua A. Fayette, 2022-01-21 Goose Sense By Akua A Fayette Goose Sense is an educational tool for adults and children to learn about history culture and family as seen through the eyes of geese The book centers around how children live through innocence and joy until they reach the age when life begins to present itself with negative and positive situations Through powerful storytelling readers can analyze how they feel about their friends family and adult role models From this story Fayette hopes readers take away the need for unity and compassion and to treat people the way you want to be treated The most important thing to remember is to let love reflect back on all relationships The ending phrase of all the stories is If only people had the sense of a goose Host Bibliographic Record for Boundwith Item Barcode 30112047793085 and Others, 1879 Record Series Yorkshire Archaeological and Topographical Association, 1910 Intellectual Freedom and Censorship Frank W. in Afghanistan and Iraq and Betty Joseph's on the anti colonial uses of women's time in the creation of nineteenth century Indian nationalism Feminist Time Against Nation Time juxtaposes feminist time against nation time in order to consider temporalities that are at once contrary to but also drawing toward each other Yet Hesford and Diedrich also argue that because as an untimely project feminism necessarily operates in a different temporality from that of the nation againstness is also used to provoke a rupture a momentary opening up of a disjuncture between the two that will allow us to explore the possibilities of creating a space and time for feminists to think against the current of the present moment
