Psychotherapy with Severely Deprived Children (Psychology Revivals) Mary Boston,Rolene Szur,2014-10-17 Originally published in 1983 this study describes the experience of severely deprived children referred for individual psychoanalytic psychotherapy at the Tavistock Clinic in London and at other clinics and schools Most were living in children s homes all came from chaotic and disrupted families and many had been abused or neglected Children from such backgrounds have previously been considered unsuitable for psychotherapy and the theoretical and technical issues arising from their treatment are discussed here and detailed case material is presented There is a high rate of emotional and behavioural disturbance among children in community care The experience of the therapists struggling often painfully to establish contact and communication with these young people who have been hurt and disillusioned by life provide illuminating material on the children s perceptions of their lives This book clearly demonstrates the need for and the capacity to respond to treatment and it provides insights which are of relevance to all who are in close contact with such children North Side Story Frank W. Pandozzi,2003 They were called the Back Alley Boys and best define the North Side of Syracuse New York during the 50s and 60s Although not as legendary as the Dead End Kids portrayed in the movies of the 1930s they had their own flare for drama But North Side story is not just a story about growing up on the North Side in the 50s and 60s It is also a story of a changing neighborhood Names like Stretch Axle Scams and Boogers are now gone Today the North Side residents have names like Cuong Danh and Ai Just as the immigrant grandparents of the Back Alley Boys had once struggled to come to this country so did the Vietnamese boatpeople North Side story is their story as well Legends & Leagues Workbook Ned Bustard,2004
