Debrett's Bibliography of Business History Stephanie Zarach, 1987-06-18 The British Consumer Co-operative Movement and Film, 1890s-1960s Alan Burton, 2005-09-03 This volume provides a new study on the Co operative Movement s engagement with film for educational cultural and publicity purposes It provides insights into the political and commercial use of cinema in the 20th century and significantly extends our understanding of the achievements of workers cinema in Britain Eugenics at the Edges of Empire Diane B. Paul, John Stenhouse, Hamish G. Spencer, 2017-11-16 This volume explores the history of eugenics in four Dominions of the British Empire New Zealand Australia Canada and South Africa These self governing colonies reshaped ideas absorbed from the metropole in accord with local conditions and ideals Compared to Britain and the US Germany and Scandinavia their orientation was generally less hereditarian and more populist and agrarian It also reflected the view that these young and enterprising societies could potentially show Britain the way if they were protected from internal and external threat This volume contributes to the increasingly comparative and international literature on the history of eugenics and to several ongoing historiographic debates especially around issues of race As white settler societies questions related to racial mixing and purity were inescapable and a notable contribution of this volume is its attention to Indigenous populations both as targets and on occasion agents of eugenic ideology From Space in Modern Art to a Spatial Art History Jutta Vinzent, 2019-12-02 This book traces artists theories of constructive space in the first half of the twentieth century Drawing on these concepts and recent theories on space it develops a methodology termed Spatial Art History that conceives of artworks as physical spatio temporal things which produce the social to overcome the reductive understanding of art as a mere mirror or facilitator of society A History of the Baptists Justin Almerin Smith, 1896 A History of Trinity College, Dublin, from Its Foundation to 1702 Harold Lawson Murphy, 1951 Newsletter William Morris Society, 1997 History of Alabama and Her People Albert Burton Moore, 1927 The Arvon Book of Life Writing Sally Cline, Carole Angier, 2010-06-01 Essential reading for anyone interested in writing biography or memoir with practical advice from successful biographers and creative writing teachers Business History Collection Dallas Public Library. Business and Technology Division, 1974 Lives for Sale Mark Bostridge, 2004-10-12 This is a collection of new essays by many of the best biographers now writing in Britain not only the established names but also the rising stars of the profession These biographers tales based on personal experience tell of the ups and downs of life writing of shocking discoveries and frustrating dead ends strange literary hauntings and curses bitter professional rivalries and problems with families and friends of biographical subjects and of ways in which the biographer s imagination can be inspired by a sense of place or touch of a letter BOOK JACKET International Bibliography of Business History Francis Goodall, Terry Gourvish, Steven Tolliday, 2013-12-16 The field of business history has changed and grown dramatically over the last few years There is less interest in the traditional company centred approach and more concern about the wider business context With the growth of multi national corporations in the 1980s international and inter firm comparisons have gained in importance In addition there has been a move towards improving links with mainstream economic financial and social history through techniques and outlook The International Bibliography of Business History brings all of the strands together and provides the user with a comprehensive guide to the literature in the field The Bibliography is a unique volume which covers the depth and breadth of research in business history This exhaustive volume has been compiled by a team of subject specialists from around the world under the editorship of three prestigious business historians Visualising Slavery Celeste-Marie Bernier,Hannah Durkin,2016 This book adopts a comparative and interdisciplinary perspective to investigate the experimental bodies of works produced by African African American African Caribbean and Black British artists in order to excavate and theorise the formal and thematic contours of an African Diasporic visual arts tradition Information Sources in Art, Art History and Design Simon Ford,2015-05-19 No detailed description available for Information Sources in Art Art History and Design "James Barry, 1741?806: History Painter " Tom Dunne,2017-07-05 Bringing into relief the singularity of Barry s unswerving commitment to his vision for history painting despite adverse cultural political and commercial currents these essays on Barry and his contemporaries offer new perspectives on the painter s life and career Contributors including some of the best known experts in the field of British eighteenth century studies set Barry s works and writings into a rich political and social context particularly in Britain Among other notable achievements the essays shed new light on the influence which Barry s radical ideology and his Catholicism had on his art they explore his relationship with Reynolds and Blake and discuss his aesthetics in the context of Burke and Wollstonecraft as well as Fuseli and Payne Knight The volume is an indispensable resource for scholars of eighteenth century British painting patronage aesthetics and political history The Tate Frances Spalding,1998 It was the inspiration and determination of one individual the sugar magnate Henry Tate which brought the Tate Gallery into being in 1897 In this first complete account Frances Spalding assesses the impact of successive Directors and the changing place of the Tate in British cultural life She draws on extensive archive materials as well as interviews with past and present Directors Trustees and staff to tell the story of the Tate Book jacket Bibliography of Printed Works on London History to 1939 Heather Creaton,Tony Trowles,1994 The history of London is so important in national and indeed international terms it seems extraordinary that this is the first general bibliography of the subject to appear It contains over 22 000 selected references to books and articles on the history of London from the Dark Ages to the beginning of the Second World War The whole of the former GLC area plus the City is covered Arrangement is by subject and there is a substantial analytical index Material for the bibliography was collected from specialist libraries all over London and beyond It is a starting point for any enquiry about London s development over the centuries whether from the academic historian the amateur or the general enquirer A supplement is planned to cover new material on the period Life Writing Sally Cline,Carole Angier,2013-10-10 Life Writing A Writers Artists Companion is an essential guide to

Curating the Great War Paul Cornish, Nicholas J. Saunders, 2022-08-31 Curating the Great War explores the inception and subsequent development of museums of the Great War and the animating spirit which lay behind them The book approaches museums of the Great War as political entities some more overtly than others but all unable to escape from the politics of the war its profound legacies and its enduring memory Their changing configurations and content are explored as reflections of the social and political context in which they exist Curating of the Great War has expanded beyond the walls of museum buildings seeking public engagement both direct and digital and taking in whole landscapes Recognizing this fact the book examines these museums as standing at the nexus of historiography museology anthropology archaeology sociology and politics as well as being a lieu de mmoire Their multi vocal nature makes them a compelling subject for research and above all the book highlights that it is in these museums that we see the most complete fusion of the material culture of conflict with its historical political and experiential context This book is an essential read for researchers of the reception of the Great War through material culture and museums
