C. Zain,1931 Spiritual Alchemy Mike A. Zuber,2021-10-06 Spiritual Alchemy traces the early modern antecedents of modern alchemy through generations of followers of Jacob Boehme the cobbler and theosopher of G rlitz Spiritual alchemy combines traditional elements of alchemical literature with Christian mysticism In 1850 it inspired Mary Anne Atwood to write her landmark Suggestive Inquiry into the Hermetic Mystery usually seen as the first modern interpretation of alchemy Drawing extensively on manuscript and otherwise obscure sources Zuber challenges the received wisdom that posits a rupture between pre modern and modern forms of alchemy Alchemy of the Soul Martin Lowenthal,2004-10-01 Life without myth the vital force of archetypal experiences is life filled with maladies neuroses addictions and disease Alchemy of the Soul retells the myth of Eros and Psyche to help readers reconnect mind and relatedness to find wholeness and deep meaning Author Martin Lowenthal describes how the story of Eros and Psyche illustrates the alchemical process of marrying soul and matter so that life can be lived with more joy meaning and a tangible sense of divine love The book is divided into three parts Part 1 is a beautiful retelling of the myth of Eros and Psyche Part 2 examines the power of myth and alchemy and shows how spiritual alchemy can restore and transform the soul Part 3 is an initiation into the alchemical mysteries using myth as mentor Lowenthal writes The story assails the defenses of our mind and our reactive habits and seeks to wrest a victory for life and growth from the inertia of daily habits and confusion It initiates us into a world far more vibrant rich and nourishing than the one we knew in childhood and naively yet regressively settle for In this sense story reveals what happens as we attempt to spread our emotional wings in the developmentally confining domain of our childhood home and community and what it takes to make something significant of ourselves in ways that feed the future As guests of the story we discover the larger sacred garden in which we emerge as a unique and beautiful flower in a bed of exquisite blossoms each one unique and essential Alchemy of the Soul takes alchemy from the realm of the esoteric and places it in practical terms of story terms that anyone can understand value and use as a guide to

Magical Transformations on the Early Modern English Stage Lisa Hopkins, Helen Ostovich, 2016-05-13 Magical Transformations on the Early Modern Stage furthers the debate about the cultural work performed by representations of magic on the early modern English stage It considers the ways in which performances of magic reflect and feed into a sense of national identity both in the form of magic contests and in its recurrent linkage to national defence the extent to which magic can trope other concerns and what these might be and how magic is staged and what the representational strategies and techniques might mean The essays range widely over both canonical plays Macbeth The Tempest The Winter s Tale The Merry Wives of Windsor Doctor Faustus Bartholomew Fair and notably less canonical ones such as The Birth of Merlin Fedele and Fortunio The Merry Devil of Edmonton The Devil is an Ass The Late Lancashire Witches and The Witch of Edmonton putting the two groups into dialogue with each other and also exploring ways in which they can be profitably related to contemporary cases or accusations of witchcraft Attending to the representational strategies and self conscious intertextuality of the plays as well as to their treatment of their subject matter the essays reveal the plays they discuss as actively intervening in contemporary debates about witchcraft and magic in ways which themselves effect transformation rather than simply discussing it At the heart of all the essays lies an interest in the transformative power of magic but collectively they show that the idea of transformation applies not only to the objects or even to the subjects of magic but that the plays themselves can be seen as working to bring about change in the ways that they challenge contemporary assumptions and stereotypes The Heritage of Hermes Alexandra Lember, Alexandra Lember-Heidenreich, 2004
