The Doctrine of the Holy Spirit in the Major Reformed Confessions and Catechisms of the Sixteenth and Seventeenth Centuries Yuza Adhinarta, 2012-06-14 With the rise of Pentecostalism in the early twentieth century and growth in the charismatic movement since a resurgence of interest in the Holy Spirit and Christian spirituality in both theology and the church's life has become evident Along with increased interest in the doctrine of the Holy Spirit there are criticisms of the treatment of the doctrine in church history for having neglected the Holy Spirit in both theology and the church's life Critical studies of the treatments of the doctrine of the Holy Spirit in church history have been laboriously conducted However there have not been many studies on the doctrine of the Holy Spirit in Reformed orthodoxy particularly in its confessional standards Recognizing the gap in the history of scholarship this work explores and provides a systematic account of the person and some aspects of the work of the Holy Spirit as presented in the major Reformed confessions and catechisms of the sixteenth and seventeenth centuries Attention is particularly given to those aspects of the work of the Holy Spirit that have not been greatly explored but are pertinent to contemporary discussions The Way of Spiritual Direction Francis Kelly Nemeck, Marie Theresa Coombs, 1993 It may well become a classic in this important area of spirituality It is the reader's opinion that if you read only one book on this subject this year The Way of Spiritual Direction should be the one John G Durbin STL The Feeling Clayton Tylor, 2017-05-19 This book is an Esoteric interpretation of Emanuel Swedenborg's spiritual writings It is written from a sinner's perspective as a personal memoir meant to impart spiritual guidance by example It is a hands on self help book on how to birth the Divine Feminine Essence of Love from within The author traces the Divine back to its original source as Essential Love and Essential Innocence which begins in the body as a sensual feeling of love and through the process of regeneration it becomes the Word of God Then by sharing the spiritual feeling of the Word as love it becomes a blissful union with the Divine within as the feeling of the New Church The New Church is the perception of an influx of spiritual love flowing from within as happiness For when the feeling of love from a sensual life has been transformed into the spiritual feeling of love and when done on a mass scale it ultimately manifests as the Brotherhood of Mankind as the feeling of Heaven on Earth
