

WEIMAR CONSTITUTION

In 1919, elections were held, and the National Assembly met. It was moved away from the violent atmosphere of Berlin, to a town called Weimar. This was where the constitution was drawn up.

POSITIVES

- All men and women over 20 got the vote, and could get for members of the Reichstag
 - ▷ This allowed for equality in democracy
- The president of the Republic was elected every 7 years.
 - ▷ It allowed for the leader that the people wanted
- The German Chancellor was chosen from the largest party in the Reichstag
 - ▷ This allowed for equal representation of Germany
- Germany was given basic civil rights
 - ▷ This allowed for fair treatment of Germans
 - Some of these rights were, free speech, worship any religion, freedom of politics, join a trade union, and form a political party

NEGATIVES

- Article 48 allowed the president to declare a state of emergency, which gave him power to rule Germany without permission from the Reichstag, like a dictator
 - ▷ This took away the democracy of the constitution
- The proportional representation allowed small extreme parties to get into parliament. All they needed was 60,000 votes to get an MP
 - ▷ This gave extremist parties the opportunity to destroy parliament
- Proportional representation made it difficult for one party to get an overall majority in parliament, so often there was a coalition government.
 - ▷ Coalition governments meant it was difficult to make decisions, the government collapsed & made Germany unstable.
