very edge the very depths and heights of bipolar illness but almost always with a sense of humour Much like a car crash people cannot help but look when they spy on these sort of black events It is a new perspective on manic depression as in Prof K R Jamison's autobiography about her illness in An Unquiet Mind but mixed explosively with S Kaysen's immersion into madness in Girl Interrupted except this book feels like it s been written whilst on crack cocaine and directed by Quentin Tarantino on a blood thirsty day This book may be dark but its underlying message is one of hope Sometimes you have to see the depths of Hades before you can really appreciate life and health Being a manic depressive from just 5 then adding in anorexia bulimia self harm and hundreds of suicide attempts typical student substance misuse on the heavy end of normal culminating in a long hospitalisation when I was an Oxford doctoral student in clinical medicine I ended up totally mad in a long term psychotic mixed episode being both manic and depressed concurrently and suffering from delusions and hallucinations and several actual deaths that I was revived from This had a massive impact on the lives of my friends and family who have been dragged through 25 years of serious illness whilst feeling helpless and scared I also experienced a lot of unhelpful medical treatment and misdiagnoses all detailed here which should teach those in the profession what not to do This book will also answer the guestions of friends and family and give some pointers of ways to help and not help I lost many friends as I withdrew into my illness but I made many friends with people similarly ill Some have died some have recovered and some remain ill All agree that such a complete and honest book like mine is needed This is my autobiographical tale a girl who came from nowhere up North to study medicine at Oxford University and spent the majority of her life quite literally mad but never stopped laughing about it This suits a wide audience for personal and professional reasons I want to reach sufferers carers and professionals I am proof that anything can be overcome what should not be survived can be and that nothing is more important in these diseases than hope About the AuthorKaty Sara Culling was born in Liverpool North England in 1975 Daughter of Sue and Paul Culling her family moved back to its roots in Derbyshire where she grew up along with her younger sister Beth in the village of Castle Donington on the Derbyshire Leicestershire border However even as young as 5 she exhibited symptoms of bipolar disorder She attended a private school for girls Loughborough High School where she was a high achieving student Unfortunately due to bullying and also to numb her mania and depression she developed anorexia nervosa and began to self harm Katy Sara then went to The University of Nottingham where she studied Biochemistry and Nutrition She did her 1st class thesis on alcohol and metabolism interested in the psychology of Alcoholism All this was done despite considerable illness including over 60 suicide attempts and purging type anorexia and yet more bullying Her good work at Nottingham lead to an offer of a place at The University of Oxford where she studied for a PhD DPhil in Clinical Medicine In her final year she became so ill with bipolar disorder that she was in hospital first as a day patient then an inpatient and eventually a sectioned inpatient During that year and a half she attempted suicide over 300 times dying twice only to be revived She finally at the age of 28 got a diagnosis of bipolar disorder and the correct medication and has been mostly fine ever since She later wrote up her PhD thesis and published her results Now Katy Sara is mostly well and has become a writer wanting to prevent othe Romance Fiction Kristin Ramsdell, 2012-03-02 A comprehensive guide that defines the literature and the outlines the best selling genre of all time romance fiction More than 2 000 romances are published annually making it difficult for fans and the librarians who advise them to keep pace with new titles emerging authors and constant evolution of this dynamic genre Fortunately romance expert and librarian Kristin Ramsdell provides a definitive guide to this fiction genre that serves as an indispensible resource for those interested in it including fans searching for reading material as well as for library staff scholars and romance writers themselves This title updates the last edition of Romance Fiction A Guide to the Genre published in 1999 While the emphasis is on newer titles many of the important older classics are retained keeping the focus of the book on the entire genre instead of only those titles published during the last decade Specific changes include new chapters on linked and continuing romances a new section on Chick Lit in the Contemporary Romance chapter an expansion of coverage on the alternative reality subset This is THE romance genre guide to have Intercultural Education Eleanor Nesbitt, 2006-04-28 This book has been written for teachers teacher trainers and their students and others working with children and young people It provides a valuable resource for those engaged in religious studies and South Asian studies comprising a rich library of data relevant to current The Shadow of War Stewart Binns, 2014-07-17 The Shadow of War is the first novel in Stewart debates in these fields Binns s new series which will see a book release for each year of the First World War June 1914 The beginning of another long prosperous summer for Britain But beneath the clear skies all is not as it seem as the chill wind of social discontent swirls around this sceptred isle Shots ring out in a distant European land the assassination of a foreign aristocrat From that moment the entire world is propelled into a conflict unlike any seen before This is the story of five British communities their circumstances very different but who will all share in the tragedy that is to come All that they have known will be changed for ever by the catastrophic events of the Great War This is a story of love and comradeship of hatred and tragedy this is the story of the Great War The Shadow of War the first novel in The Great War series from Stewart Binns is a thrilling read and perfect for those who enjoy the writing of Conn Iggulden and Bernard Cornwell Praise for Stewart Binns Anyone with even a vague interest in Britain and the Great War should read Shadow of War Celia Sandys granddaughter of Winston Churchill A fascinating mix of fact legend and fiction this is storytelling at its best Daily Mail Stewart Binns has produced a real page turner a truly stunning adventure story Alastair Campbell Once again Stewart Binns has managed to create something unique entertaining and eye opening Parmenion Books Unarquably heart warming will leave any reader with a sense of British pride Goodreads Truly a book that educates while entertaining a talent of this best selling author Historical Novel Review Stewart Binns began his professional life as an academic He then pursued several adventures including a stint at the BBC before settling into a career as a schoolteacher specializing in history Later in life a lucky break took him back to the
