Global Fragments Anke Bartels, Dirk Wiemann, 2007 While the world seems to be getting ever smaller and globalization has become the ubiquitous buzz word regionalism and fragmentation also abound This might be due to the fact that far from being the alleged production of cultural homogeneity the global is constantly re defined and altered through the local This tension pervading much of contemporary culture has an obvious special relevance for the new varieties of English and the literature published in English world wide Postcolonial literatures exist at the interface of English as a hegemonic medium and its many national regional and local competitors that transform it in the new English literatures Thus any exploration of a globalization of cultures has to take into account the fact that culture is a complex field characterized by hybridization plurality and difference But while global or transnational cultures may allow for a new cosmopolitanism that produces ever changing fluid identities they do not give rise to an egalitarian global village an asymmetry between centre and periphery remains largely intact albeit along new parameters The essays collected in this volume offer readings of literary theoretical and filmic texts from the postcolonial world These texts are read as attempts to articulate the global with the local from a perspective of immersion in the actual diversity of life worlds focusing on such issues as consumption identity politics and modes of affiliation In this sense they are global fragments locally refracted figurations of an experience of world wide interconnectedness

Teo's Durumi Elaine U. Cho, 2025-08-05 The dazzling and cinematic sequel to space opera Ocean's Godori takes Ocean and her crew deep into the cloisters of the Moon and the conflicts of the heart As ever Elaine U Cho takes us on a twisting journey that further expands on her haunting themes around grief memory and sacrifice bringing us breathlessly to the end of a story we ll never forget Lena Waithe Rishi Rajani and Naomi Funabashi Hillman Grad Books Teo Anand former ne er do well second son of the Anand Tech empire and current solar fugitive has just crash landed on the Moon after escaping the latest attempt on his life But if anyone can help exonerate him it s his best friend bold Korean space pilot Ocean Yoon Falsely accused of murdering his family Teo is running out of both time and options But loyalties are uncertain in their group of steadfast comrades and tentative new allies and it s difficult to know who to trust in the tangled web that awaits them in Artemis a city on the Moon rich in Korean history and haunted by ghosts from Teo s and Ocean s pasts Further complicating matters are Haven the pensive medic whose beliefs challenge Ocean s and the dashing Phoenix a space raider who s come blazing into Teo s life in more ways than one All the while Corvus the real culprit behind the slaying of the Anands is sowing a path of destruction that threatens to swallow the solar whole The crew will wrestle with clashing ideals flying bullets and undeniable feelings as they race toward a stunning final stand Teo s Durumi brings Cho s space opera duology to an exhilarating close one that contends with questions of identity and acceptance grief and redemption and loyalty and sacrifice
