Teotihuacan Art From The City Of The Gods:

Teotihuacan Kathleen Berrin, Esther Pasztory, 1993 The Art of Urbanism William Leonard Fash, Leonardo López Luján, 2009 The Art of Urbanism explores how the royal courts of powerful Mesoamerican centers represented their kingdoms in architectural iconographic and cosmological terms Through an investigation of the ecological contexts and environmental opportunities of urban centers the contributors consider how ancient Mesoamerican cities defined themselves and reflected upon their physical and metaphysical place via their built environment Themes in the volume include the ways in which a kingdom's public monuments were fashioned to reflect geographic space patron gods and mythology and how the Olmec Maya Mexica Zapotecs and others sought to center their world through architectural monuments and public art This collection of papers addresses how communities leveraged their environment and built upon their cultural and historical roots as well as the ways that the performance of calendrical rituals and other public events tied individuals and communities to both urban centers and hinterlands Twenty three scholars from archaeology anthropology art history and religious studies contribute new data and new perspectives to the understanding of ancient Mesoamericans' own view of their spectacular urban and ritual centers

The Teotihuacan Trinity Annabeth Headrick, 2013-03-15 Northeast of modern day Mexico City stand the remnants of one of the world's largest preindustrial cities Teotihuacan Monumental in scale Teotihuacan is organized along a three mile long thoroughfare the Avenue of the Dead that leads up to the massive Pyramid of the Moon Lining the avenue are numerous plazas and temples which indicate that the city once housed a large population that engaged in complex rituals and ceremonies Although scholars have studied Teotihuacan for over a century the precise nature of its religious and political life has remained unclear in part because no one has yet deciphered the glyphs that may explain much about the city's organization and belief systems In this groundbreaking book Annabeth Headrick analyzes Teotihuacan's art and architecture in the light of archaeological data and Mesoamerican ethnography to propose a new model for the city's social and political organization Challenging the view that Teotihuacan was a peaceful city in which disparate groups united in an ideology of solidarity Headrick instead identifies three social groups that competed for political power rulers kin based groups led by influential lineage heads and military orders that each had their own animal insignia Her findings provide the most complete evidence to date that Teotihuacan had powerful rulers who allied with the military to maintain their authority in the face of challenges by the lineage heads Headrick's analysis also underscores the importance of warfare in Teotihuacan society and clarifies significant aspects of its ritual life including shamanism and an annual tree raising ceremony that commemorated the Mesoamerican creation story

Canons and Values Larry Silver, Kevin Terraciano, 2019-08-27 A critical rethinking of the way canons are defined constructed dismantled and revised A century ago all art was evaluated through the lens of European classicism and its tradition This volume explores and questions the foundations of the European canon offers a critical rethinking of ancient and classical art and interrogates the canons of cultures and regions that have often been left at the margins of art history It underscores the historical and geographical diversity of canons and the local values underlying them Twelve international scholars consider how canons are constructed and contested focusing on the relationship between canonical objects and the value systems that shape their hierarchies Deploying an array of methodologies including archaeological investigations visual analysis and literary critique the authors examine canon formation throughout the world including Africa India East Asia Mesoamerica South America ancient Egypt classical Greece and Europe Global studies of art which are dismantling the traditionally Eurocentric canon promise to make art history more inclusive But enduring canons cannot be dismissed This volume raises new questions about the importance of canons including those from outside Europe for the wider discipline of art history Constructing

Power and Place in Mesoamerica Merideth Paxton, Leticia Staines Cicero, 2017-12-15 Identities of power and place as expressed in paintings from the periods before and after the Spanish conquest of Mesoamerica are the subject of this book of case studies from Central Mexico Oaxaca and the Maya area These sophisticated skillfully rendered images occur with architecture in manuscripts on large pieces of cloth and on ceramics Routes, Interaction and Exchange in the Southern

Maya Area Eugenia Robinson, Gavin Davies, 2023-07-31 This book explores routes of interaction and exchange in the Southern Maya Area a zone that had both short and long distance trade and whose natural resources were exploited by merchants and rulers colonists and entrepreneurs during Olmec Teotihuacan Maya Aztec colonial and modern times The book presents the research of both archaeologists and art historians to identify routes of interconnection to demonstrate the strategic importance of settlements and ritual locations and to assess the significance of modes and mediums of exchange The contributors employ innovative approaches making use of state of the art technologies to reproduce and analyze the archaeological landscape e g LiDAR GIS and least cost path analysis and to source and characterize archaeological materials e g neutron activation analysis NAA X ray fluorescence analysis XRF and strontium analysis The book combines these innovative approaches with earlier data sources and past analyses to develop a new synthetic analysis of interaction Routes Interaction and Exchange in the Southern Maya Area will appeal to professional academics students and interested lay readers from a broad range of social science fields including anthropology archaeology geography economics history and art history and is appropriate for undergraduate and graduate courses in Mesoamerican archaeology Ancient Teotihuacan

George L. Cowgill, 2015-04-06 Long before the Aztecs and 800 miles from Classic Maya centers Teotihuacan was part of a broad Mesoamerican tradition but had a distinctive personality This book synthesizes a century of research including recent finds and covers the lives of commoners as well as elites Teotihuacan Matthew Robb, 2017-09-26 Founded in the first century BCE near a set of natural springs in an otherwise dry northeastern corner of the Valley of Mexico the ancient metropolis of Teotihuacan was on a symbolic level a city of elements With a multiethnic population of perhaps one hundred thousand at its peak in 400 CE it was the cultural political economic and religious center of ancient Mesoamerica A devastating fire in the city center led to a rapid decline after the middle of the sixth century but Teotihuacan was never completely abandoned or forgotten the Aztecs revered the city and its monuments giving many of them the names we still use today Teotihuacan City of Water City of Fire examines new discoveries from the three main pyramids at the site the Sun Pyramid the Moon Pyramid and at the center of the Ciudadela complex the Feathered Serpent Pyramid which have fundamentally changed our understanding of the city's history With illustrations of the major objects from Mexico City's Museo Nacional de Antropología and from the museums and storage facilities of the Zona de Monumentos Arqueológicos de Teotihuacan along with selected works from US and European collections the catalogue examines these cultural artifacts to understand the roles that offerings of objects and programs of monumental sculpture and murals throughout the city played in the lives of Teotihuacan's citizens Published in association with the Fine Arts Museums of San Francisco Exhibition dates de Young San Francisco September 30 2017 February 11 2018 Los Angeles County Museum of Art LACMA March June 2018

Teotihuacan and Early Classic Mesoamerica Claudia García-Des Lauriers, Tatsuya Murakami, 2022-02-14 The Early Classic period in Mesoamerica has been characterized by the appearance of Teotihuacan related material culture throughout the region Teotihuacan known for its monumental architecture and dense settlement became an urban center around 100 BC and a regional state over the next few centuries dominating much of the Basin of Mexico and beyond until its collapse around AD 650 Teotihuacan and Early Classic Mesoamerica explores the complex nature of Teotihuacan's interactions with other regions from both central and peripheral vantage points The volume offers a multiscalar view of power and identity showing that the spread of Teotihuacan related material culture may have resulted from direct and indirect state administration colonization emulation by local groups economic transactions single event elite interactions and various kinds of social and political alliances The contributors explore questions concerning who interacted with whom what kinds of materials and ideas were exchanged what role interregional interactions played in the creation transformation and contestation of power and identity within the city and among local polities and how interactions on different scales were articulated The answers to these questions reveal an Early Classic Mesoamerican world engaged in complex economic exchanges multidirectional movements of goods and ideas and a range of material patterns that require local regional and macroregional contextualization Focusing on the intersecting themes of identity and power Teotihuacan and Early Classic Mesoamerica makes a strong contribution to the understanding of the role of this important metropolis in the Early Classic history of the region The volume will be of interest to scholars and graduate students of Mesoamerican archaeology the archaeology of interaction and the archaeology of identity Contributors Sarah C Clayton Fiorella Fenoglio Lim n Agapi Filini Julie Gazzola Sergio Gomez Chavez Haley Holt Mehta Carmen Perez Patricia Plunket Juan Carlos Saint Charles Zetina Yoko Sugiyama Gabriela Uruela Gustavo Jaimes Vences Encyclopedia of Prehistory Peter N. Stone Trees Transplanted? Central Mexican Stelae of the Epiclassic and Early Postclassic and the Question of Maya 'Influence' Keith Jordan, 2014-10-10 Stelae dating to the Epiclassic and Early

Postclassic from Tula Xochicalco and other sites in Central Mexico have been cited as evidence of Classic Maya influence on Central Mexican art during these periods This book re evaluates these claims via detailed comparative analysis of the Central Mexican stelae and their claimed Maya counterparts

Visual Culture of the Ancient Americas Esther

Pasztor, 2017-01-26 In the past fifty years the study of indigenous and pre Columbian art has evolved from a groundbreaking area of inquiry in the mid 1960s to an established field of research This period also spans the career of art historian Esther Pasztor Few scholars have made such a broad and lasting impact as Pasztor both in terms of our understanding of specific facets of ancient American art as well as in our appreciation of the evolving analytical tendencies related to the broader field of study as it developed and matured The essays collected in this volume reflect scholarly rigor and new perspectives on ancient American art and are contributed by many of Pasztor's former students and colleagues A testament to the sheer breadth of Pasztor's accomplishments Visual Culture of the Ancient Americas covers a wide range of topics from Aztec picture writing to nineteenth century European scientific illustration of Andean sites in Peru The essays written by both established and rising scholars from across the field focus on three areas the ancient Andes including its representation by European explorers and scholars of the nineteenth century Classic period Mesoamerica and its uses within the cultural heritage debate of the twentieth and twenty first centuries and Postclassic Mesoamerica particularly the deeper and heretofore often hidden meanings of its cultural production Figures maps and color plates demonstrate the vibrancy and continued allure of indigenous artworks from the ancient Americas Pre Columbian art can give more Pasztor declares and the scholars featured here make a compelling case for its incorporation into art theory as a whole The result is a collection of essays that celebrates Pasztor's central role in the development of the field of Ancient American visual studies even as it looks toward the future of the discipline

Teotihuacan Esther Pasztor, 1997 This book is the first comprehensive study and reinterpretation of the unique arts of Teotihuacan including architecture sculpture mural painting and ceramics Comparing the arts of Teotihuacan not previously judged artistic with those of other ancient civilizations Ester Pasztor demonstrates how they created and reflected the community's ideals Most people associate the pyramids of central Mexico with the Aztecs but these colossal constructions antedate the Aztecs by more than a thousand years The people of Teotihuacan who built the pyramids as part of a city of unprecedented size remain a mystery

Olmec Art at Dumbarton

Oaks Karl A. Taube, Dumbarton Oaks, 2004 Olmec Art at Dumbarton Oaks presents the Olmec portion of the Robert Woods Bliss Collection of Pre Columbian Art It illustrates all thirty nine Olmec art objects in color plates and includes many complementary and comparative black and white illustrations and drawings The body of Pre Columbian art that Robert Bliss carefully assembled over a half century between 1912 and 1963 amplified only slightly since his death is a remarkably significant collection In addition to their aesthetic quality and artistic significance the objects hold much information regarding the social worlds and religious and symbolic views of the people who made and used them before the arrival of Europeans in the New World This volume is the second in a series of catalogues that will treat objects in the Bliss Pre Columbian Collection The majority of the Olmec objects in the collection are made of jade the most precious material for the peoples of ancient Mesoamerica from early times through the sixteenth century Various items such as masks statuettes jewelry and replicas of weapons and tools were used for ceremonial purposes and served as offerings Karl Taube brings his expertise on the lifeways and beliefs of ancient Mesoamerican peoples to his study of the Olmec objects in the Bliss collection His understanding of jade covers a broad range of knowledge from chemical compositions to geological sources to craft technology to the symbolic power of the green stone Throughout the book the author emphasizes the role of jade as a powerful symbol of water fertility and particularly of the maize plant which was the fundamental source of life and sustenance for the Olmec The shiny green of the stone was analogous to the green growth of maize This fundamental concept was elaborated in specific religious beliefs many of which were continued and elaborated by later Mesoamerican peoples such as the Maya Karl Taube employs his substantial knowledge of Pre Columbian cultures to explore and explicate Olmec symbolism in this catalogue

City of Sacrifice David Carrasco, 2000-12-08 At an excavation of the Great Aztec Temple in Mexico City amid carvings of skulls and a dismembered warrior goddess David Carrasco stood before a container filled with the decorated bones of infants and children It was the site of a massive human sacrifice and for Carrasco the center of fiercely provocative questions If ritual violence against humans was a profound necessity for the Aztecs in their capital city is it central to the construction of social order and the authority of city states Is civilization built on violence In City of Sacrifice Carrasco chronicles the fascinating story of Tenochtitlan the Aztec capital investigating Aztec religious practices and demonstrating that religious violence was integral to urbanization the city itself was a temple to the gods That Mexico City the largest city on earth was built on the ruins of Tenochtitlan is a point Carrasco poignantly considers in his comparison of urban life from antiquity to modernity Majestic in scope City of Sacrifice illuminates not only the rich history of a major Mesoamerican city but also the inseparability of two passionate human impulses urbanization and religious engagement It has much to tell us about many familiar events in our own time from suicide bombings in Tel Aviv to rape and murder in the Balkans
