Patrologiae Cursus Completus: Series Latina Jacques-Paul Migne, 1854 , The Voice of the Masters Roberto González Echevarría, 2010-07-05 By one of the most original and learned critical voices in Hispanic studies a timely and ambitious study of authority as theme and authority as authorial strategy in modern Latin American literature An ideology is implicit in modern Latin American literature argues Roberto González Echevarría through which both the literature itself and criticism of it define what Latin American literature is and how it ought to be read In the works themselves this ideology is constantly subjected to a radical critique and that critique renders the ideology productive and in a sense is what constitutes the work In literary criticism however too frequently the ideology merely serves as support for an authoritative discourse that seriously misrepresents Latin American literature In The Voice of the Masters González Echevarría attempts to uncover the workings of modern Latin American literature by creating a dialogue of texts a dynamic whole whose parts are seven illuminating essays on seminal texts in the tradition As he says To have written a sustained expository book would have led me to make the same kind of critical error that I attribute to most criticism of Latin American literature I would have naively assumed an authoritative voice while attempting a critique of precisely that critical gesture Instead major works by Barnet Cabrera Infante Carpentier Cortázar Fuentes Gallegos García Márquez Roa Bastos and Rodríguez are the object of a set of independent deconstructive and reconstructive readings Writing in the tradition of Derrida and de Man González Echevarría brings to these readings both the penetrative brilliance of the French master and a profound understanding of historical and cultural context His insightful annotation of Cabrera Infante's Meta End the full text of which is presented at the close of the study clearly demonstrates these qualities and exemplifies his particular approach to the text

Perception, Sensibility, and Moral Motivation in Augustine Sarah Catherine Byers, 2012-11-12 This book argues that Augustine assimilated the Stoic theory of perception into his theories of motivation affectivity therapy for the passions and moral progress Using his sermons to elucidate his treatises

Sarah Catherine Byers demonstrates how Augustine enriched Stoic cognitivism with Platonism to develop a fuller and coherent theory of action. That theory underlies his account of moral development including his account of the mind's reception of grace. By analyzing Augustine's engagement with Cicero, Seneca, Plotinus, Ambrose, Jerome, Origen, and Philo of Alexandria, Byers sheds new light on a major thinker of the early Christian world whose work is of critical importance for understanding key and recurring themes in Western philosophy. Latin American Literature Bernard McGuirk, 2013-12-19

Critical theory meets Latin American fiction in this bold and challenging analysis of literature and literary criticism through post-structuralist analysis. Focusing on Latin American literary and critical production from the 1890s to the 1990s, Bernard McGuirk highlights the confrontation between theory, politics, and literature. The range of literatures discussed is extensive, including writings from Argentina, Brazil, Chile, Guatemala, Mexico, Nicaragua, and Peru. The symptomatic differences between and within cultures are illuminated by analysis of texts by such authors as César Vallejo, Jorge Luis Borges, Rubén Darío, Pablo Neruda, Julio Cortázar, João Guimarães Rosa, Susana Théron, Carlos Fuentes. Bernard McGuirk holds the Chair of Romance Literatures and Literary Theory at the University of Nottingham. He is currently President of the Association of Hispanists of Great Britain and Ireland.

English Constitutional History from the Teutonic Conquest to the Present Time Thomas Pitt Taswell-Langmead, 1890

Writing At Risk Jason Weiss, 1991-10-01 Much has been made of the image of writers in Paris, romanticized and idealized in fiction and on screen. These migrant artists in sidewalk cafés spark our imagination with unusual force. But rarely do the real-life figures speak to us directly, to comment on their work, their lives, and their reasons for choosing to live and work in Paris. In these striking interviews, E. M. Cioran, Julio Cortázar, Brion Gysin, Eugène Ionesco, Carlos Fuentes, Jean-Claude Carrière, Milan Kundera, Nathalie Sarraute, and Edmund Jabès do just this as they speak out on the risks they've taken, on their struggles and discoveries, on tradition, challenge, and their near-unanimous status as migrants. A consummate interviewer, Jason Weiss spoke in depth with these pathbreaking artists regarding their lives, their craft, and their very special relationship to Paris. Their writings were naturally the main focus of investigation, but Weiss's concern was always to build on previous interviews, to deepen certain lines of inquiry and open new ones, to contribute fresh material to the ongoing record. The result is a series of invigorating, detailed portraits that go beyond personality, habits, and pleasures to examine some of the causes and effects in the unique relationship of place and temperament Writing at Risk suggests that there is more than we suspect binding writers of such disparate cultures and genres perhaps their attitudes toward writing perhaps their common attraction to risk Readers will relish the immediacy of these interviews and will want to re discover the work of these exceptional artists Reclaiming the Author Lucille Kerr,1992 The recent fiction of Spanish America has been widely acclaimed for its experimental and revolutionary qualities In Reclaiming the Author Lucille Kerr studies the sources of power of this newly emergent literature in her detailed examination of the critical concept of the author Kerr considers how Spanish American narratives raise questions about authorial identity and activity through the different figures of the author they propose These author figures she maintains both complement and contradict notions of authority that exist outside of the world of fiction By focusing on works by well known Spanish American authors Cortazar Donoso Fuentes Poniatowska Puig and Vargas Llosa Kerr shows how the Spanish Americans have formed a radical poetics of the author Her readings demonstrate how exemplary Spanish American texts such as Rayuela Terra nostra and El hablador call into question the author as a unitary or uniform and therefore unproblematical figure Individually and together Kerr s readings reclaim the author as a complex critical concept encompassing diverse conflicting even competitive roles Ibbetson Street #39 Doug Holder,2016-05-26 Poetry from Jennifer Barber Ted Kooser Kathleen Spivack X J Kennedy Danielle Legros Georges Mary Buchinger Bodwell and more Interview with novelist Paul Harding Captured by Fire Chris Czajkowski,Fred Reid,2019-09-28 In the summer of 2017 wildfires dominated the headlines in British Columbia As a low pressure weather system continued to cause lightning strikes starting new fires strong winds fanned the existing ones Over two hundred fires burned in the province and nearly ten thousand people in or around the towns of 100 Mile House Ashcroft Cache Creek Princeton and Williams Lake received the instruction YOU MUST EVACUATE NOW But not everyone left Captured by Fire alternates between the dramatic first person accounts of wilderness dweller Chris Czajkowski and homesteader Fred Reid who both ignored the evacuation order and stayed to protect their properties animals and livelihoods Living in a remote area they knew that their homes would be of low priority to officials when fire fighting resources were deployed Over the course of the summer as alerts fluctuated and even the firefighters pulled out both had to decide when is it time to go Interviews with Contemporary Novelists Diana Cooper-Clark,1986-06-18 Carlos Fuentes Robert Brody,Charles Rossman,2014-02-20 Carlos Fuentes is a master of modern world literature With the translation of his major works into English and other languages his reputation has surpassed the boundaries of his native Mexico and of Hispanic literature and has become international Now each new novel stimulates popular and scholarly reviews in periodicals from Mexico City and Buenos Aires to Paris and New York Carlos Fuentes A Critical View is the first full scale examination in English of this major writer s work The range and diversity of this critical view are remarkable and reflect similar characteristics in the creative work of Carlos Fuentes a man of formidable intellectual energy and curiosity The whole of Fuentes work is encompassed by Luis Leal as he explores history and myth in the writer's narrative. Insightful new views of single works are provided by other well-known scholars such as Roberto González Echevarría writing on Fuentes' extraordinary Terra Nostra and Margaret Sayers Peden exploring Distant Relations for which she served as authorized translator. Here too are fresh approaches to Fuentes' other novels among them Where the Air Is Clear, Aura and The Hydra Head as well as an examination by John Brushwood of the writer's short fiction and a look by Merlin Forster at Fuentes the playwright. Lanin Gyrko reaches outside Fuentes' canon for his fascinating study of the influence of Orson Welles' Citizen Kane on The Death of Artemio Cruz. Manuel Durán and George Wing consider Fuentes in his role as critic of both literature and art. Carlos Fuentes: A Critical View has been prepared with the writer's many English-speaking readers in mind. Quotations are most frequently from standard readily available English translations of Fuentes' works. A valuable chronology of the writer's life rounds off the volume.

Early Palaeozoic Biogeography and Palaeogeography D.A.T. Harper, T. Servais, 2014-01-27

The Early Palaeozoic was a critical interval in the evolution of marine life on our planet. Through a window of some 120 million years the Cambrian Explosion, Great Ordovician Biodiversification Event, End Ordovician Extinction and the subsequent Silurian Recovery established a steep trajectory of increasing marine biodiversity that started in the Late Proterozoic and continued into the Devonian. Biogeography is a key property of virtually all organisms; their distributional ranges mapped out on a mosaic of changing palaeogeography have played important roles in modulating the diversity and evolution of marine life. This Memoir first introduces the content, some of the concepts involved in describing and interpreting palaeobiogeography and the changing Early Palaeozoic geography is illustrated through a series of time slices. The subsequent 26 chapters, compiled by some 130 authors from over 20 countries, describe and analyse distributional and in many cases diversity data for all the major biotic groups plotted on current palaeogeographic maps. Nearly a quarter of a century after the publication of the Green Book Geological Society London Memoir¹² edited by McKerrow and Scotese, improved stratigraphic and taxonomic data together with more accurate digitized palaeogeographic maps have confirmed the central role of palaeobiogeography in understanding the evolution of Early Palaeozoic ecosystems and their biotas.
