The Art and Craft of Play Directing David Stevens, 2013-03-13 Theatre is an interpretive art based upon a director's emotional reaction to reading a play and imagining a production of that play Before the audience experiences the production the director must go through a process part art and part craft to create it This book is intended to introduce undergraduate students with a solid theatre background to that process Stevens includes chapters covering theatre and art the interpretation of the script composition and movement working with actors and matters of style Each chapter contains exercises in order for students to consolidate what they have learned The complete text of John Millington Synge's Riders to the Sea is included as an example and study text and Stevens relates many examples from his own rich directing background Twenty production photos two sample floor plans and numerous diagrams round out the text The study of directing is a life long project and in this book Stevens provides a basis for that study

Nigerian Stage Directors' Philosophies, Aesthetics and Ideologies Bisi Adigun, Duro Oni, 2025-02-15 In several Nigerian universities theories of Western stage directors who are long dead are still relied upon to teach Nigerian students the art of stage directing This is akin to eating Nigerian delicacies such as isi ewu a goat's head delicacy which are traditionally eaten with fingers with cutlery How can the brain of an aspiring Nigerian theatre director be full of the principles of Russian German English French and Polish stage directors who are all dead while he or she does not know much about contemporary Nigerian stage directors many of whom are still alive and practising This is the major lacuna that this book fills Containing essays and interview contributions from 30 directors of different ages generations genders and social classes and from different parts of Nigeria and beyond this book will afford the future generation of stage directors not only in Nigeria but also in the world at large the opportunity to learn from an epistemic community and stand on the shoulders of indigenous Nigerian theatre giants to touch the sky
