

The background of the entire slide is an antique map. The map is rendered in a sepia or aged brown color. It shows a coastline with several bays and inlets. In the lower-left portion of the map, there is a small island or peninsula with a cluster of buildings, possibly a fort or a small town. The map's style is reminiscent of 18th or 19th-century cartography, with detailed shading to indicate terrain and water features. A dark, semi-transparent rectangular box is overlaid on the upper-middle part of the map, containing the title and publisher information in white text.
