Temporary Society:

Tattooing in Contemporary Society Michael Rees, 2021-12-15 Tattooing has become an increasingly popular phenomenon in the twenty first century with growing numbers of sports stars and celebrities choosing to go under the needle and tattooing regularly featuring in mainstream media Based on interviews and participant observation at tattoo studios and tattoo conventions this book investigates the reasons why so many people choose this form of body modification among all the options available to construct their identity Drawing on Norbert Elias figurational sociology the author considers the importance of the desire to create community with others and to claim an authentic identity among the various reasons for choosing to be tattooed A study of the connection between body and identity richly illustrated with empirical material this book will appeal to sociologists and scholars of cultural studies Understanding Contemporary Society Gary Browning, Gary K. Browning, Abigail Halcli, Frank Webster, 2000-02-11 This is a practical guide to the application of social theory in understanding the complex modern world A global perspective of the issues is provided by the contributors who cut through the confusion and upheavals in current thought and practice Invisible Crisis of Contemporary Society Bernard S Phillips, Louis C. Johnston, 2015-12-03 Is there a growing gap in today's world between cultural aspirations and their fulfillment a gap that is increasing social problems of all kinds If so what forces are producing that gap How can these forces be changed To answer these questions Phillips and Johnston employ a very broad approach to the scientific method drawing evidence from a wide variety of data and sources including sociologists psychologists political scientists historians philosophers educators psychiatrists and novelists They find substantial evidence for a widening gap suggesting an invisible crisis throughout contemporary society They also find substantial evidence that a simplistic and static metaphysical stance or worldview is largely responsible for that gap and that an alternative worldview can work to close that gap Promising Practices: Women Volunteers in Contemporary Japanese Religious Civil Society Paola Cavaliere, 2015-01-27 Based upon a survey of five faith based volunteer groups Promising Practices offers valuable insights and fresh perspectives into the ways women's participation in religious civic organizations may work as a gateway toward participatory democracy By approaching women's faith based volunteering as a social practice the book engages with three of the most important dimensions of civil society gender religion and democracy Cavaliere teases out the complexity of interactions among these three dimensions of civic life through stories of individual women who volunteer for three different religious organizations The volume examines how faith based volunteering is experienced by women in contemporary Japan and how it becomes a site of empowering and disempowering practices through which women balance the benefits and the costs of personal shifts socio economic changes and democratic transformation Guns and Contemporary Society Glenn H. Utter, 2015-12-01 This three volume set examines various approaches to firearms including constitutional and legal issues public health and criminal justice concerns and perspectives on personal safety and self defense Recent mass shootings have led to renewed calls for additional legislation at the state and federal levels to address gun access and control In this hard hitting compilation experts delve into various aspects of firearms in America from gun control and gun rights to militia movements to school related shootings and to the recent trends in gun ownership by women Authors from varied backgrounds and viewpoints share their perspectives on the pros and cons of firearm ownership as all of the following a constitutional right a key instrument of self defense a guarantee of political freedoms and as a major factor in crime and personal injury The reference is divided into three volumes The first volume covers firearm history legislation and policy the second volume explores public opinion gun ownership trends international laws and self defense and the third considers popular debates about firearm policy including concealed carry of firearms terrorism and the ownership of firearms background checks for purchasing guns and stand your ground laws The work concludes with an informed debate on gun policy between Richard Feldman president of the Independent Firearm Owners and Paul Helmke former president of the Brady Campaign to Prevent Gun Violence

The Fascination with Violence in Contemporary Society Oriana Binik, 2019-10-22 This book directly explores the question of why contemporary society is so fascinated with violence and crime The Fascination with Violence in Contemporary Society posits that the phenomenon is in part because we have all become consumers of the sublime an intense and strongly ambiguous emotion which is increasingly commodified Through the experience of violence and the sense of disorientation that accompanies it we obsessively seek out moments of intensified existence Equally crime continues to speak to the depths of the collective unconscious questioning us about our transience and the model of society we wish to live in Binik proposes that this is why the reaction to violence has become a tool with which to express and take ownership of a desire for social cohesion This book uses interviews with viewers dark tourists collectors and others to further interrogate this social trend Many of these are participants in the four key case studies explored within the study emotional pathways while watching a true crime TV series the trend of dark tourism murderabilia collecting and the fanaticism of and for Anders Breivik This book seeks to answer one of the most pressing cultural trends of the modern age and fill in a gap in the criminological literature on the subject
